Alfred Moore Chapter, DAR, Meets In Sanford

The Alfred Moore chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held its May meeting Saturday at the lovely new home of Mrs. O. T. Sloan in Sanford. Other Sanford DAR members were joint hostesses with Mrs. Sloan and assisted in receiving the guests. The chapter has a membership of 57, from Harnett, Lee and Moore counties, and a large number attended.

An interesting report was given by Mrs. Ralph Jordan of Gulf, who was a delegate to the Continental Congress in Washington. Mrs. R. P. Rosser, chapter regent, and two pages, Misses Betty Rosser and Mary Carolyn Reeves from Sanford, also attended the conference.

The new officers: Mrs. W. G. Brown, regent; Mrs. R. P. Rosser, vice regent; and Mrs. Ralph Jordan, recording secretary, were installed by Mrs. T. B. Melvin, who served as chaplain in the absence of Mrs. H. F. Seawell.

Members and guests were invited into the dining room for delicious refreshments which were served from a beautifully appointed table.

Circles Set New Attendance Record

May meetings of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church circles broke all records for attendance, chalking up a total of 102 for the eight circles. Three have met since last week's report.

Mrs. W. Lamont Brown was hostess to No. 5 Tuesday morning, with Mrs. Joe S. Hiatt in charge of the Bible study and Mrs. C. L. White, the Survey. Mrs. R. B. Hill, a new member, brought the attendance to 17.

Circle 6 met Thursday night with Mrs. N. E. Gilliland at her home. Mrs. Walter Harper and Mrs. Vernon Maness were visitors, and eight members attended. Mrs. Hubert Cameron led the Bible study, and Mrs. J. W. Causey gave the Survey article.

No. 7 met Thursday night at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Charles L. Wicker, with Mrs. Elwood Blake as co-hostess. Eighteen members, including two new ones, Mrs. Mildred Keithley and Mrs. Graves Vann, were present, also two visitors, Mrs. Harold McNeill and Mrs. Joe C. Thomas. Mrs. C. K. Ligon and Mrs. Joe Garzik presented the Bible study and Survey article, respectively.

Thrift Shop Closes

The Thrift Shop, under the management of St. Mary's and St. Anne's guilds of Emmanuel Episcopal church, after a very successful year closed last week for the summer months. The shop will reopen September 15.

"We wish to take this way to thank the people who have given us contributions this year," the sponsors say. "This money the Guilds use for missionary gifts locally, to the diocese, to the nation and the world."

Another source of satisfaction to the Guilds is the feeling that their shop has aided many individuals. "Many people, both white and colored, have told us of the help the shop has been to them in purchasing things they could not have bought elsewhere," they disclose.

Attends Wedding

Mrs. Valerie Nicholson went to Greensboro Friday to attend the wedding of Miss Glenn Abbott Harden to Fred Springer-Miller of Stowe, Vt. After the wedding at Trinity Episcopal church and the reception held at the Harden home, Mrs. Nicholson went to Salisbury, her former home town, with Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Murphy for an overnight visit with them there.

ST. JOSEPH'S GUILD ENDS SEASON WITH BUSINESS MEETING AND TEA

Sixty enthusiastic members of St. Joseph's guild met at the hospital Tuesday afternoon for the last meeting of the season.

Mrs. Audrey Kennedy presided over the business session, during which highly satisfactory reports of past accomplishment were made and plans for 1952-1953 benefits were discussed. The first of these benefits will be a bingo party November 13.

In the three years and three months since the Guild was organized it has raised a grand total of $34,000, practically all of which has already been spent on hospital equipment. Many new articles of equipment had arrived shortly before the meeting, and these were on display. Members also had the thrill of visiting the newly decorated hospital kitchen and seeing the dishwasher which they had purchased for it at a cost of $1,545.

Mrs. Clark, a winter guest from Iowa, as holder of a lucky ticket became the owner of a beautiful silver necklace and bracelet donated to the Guild.

The Sisters of St. Joseph's entertained the group at a lovely tea. The table centerpiece was especially attractive, being a may-pole dance scene with six-inch dolls dressed in colorful costumes as the dancers.

MANY EVENTS PLANNED FOR LADIES ATTENDING PHARMACEUTICAL MEETING

Plans have been completed for giving the ladies attending the annual meeting of the State Pharmaceutical Association and its Auxiliary at Pinehurst next week a round of entertainment that will long be remembered.

The convention will get underway Wednesday night with a joint session in the ballroom of the Carolina hotel, with a skit by the Raleigh Little Theatre as a highlight.

Thursday morning at 10 o'clock Mrs. W. A. Way will give an illustrated talk on orchid growing at the Carolina.

Thursday's luncheon will be at the Pinehurst Country club, with a short program following. Mrs. T. J. Ham, Jr., of Yanceyville, State Auxiliary president, will preside. Thursday afternoon will find the ladies assembling at the Carolina for bridge and canasta.

The Traveling Men's Auxiliary will be hosts to all convention guests at a floor show and dance in the ballroom of the Carolina Thursday night, with an orchestra from New York to provide music.

The women's auxiliary will hold its annual business session at the Carolina at 10 a.m. Friday, and that afternoon, a garden party will be held on the hotel lawn. A banquet Friday night for all convention guests will be the closing feature.

Special music will be provided during the convention by Miss Emmalyn Gamble of Monroe, accompanied by Miss Ann Hess.

There will be door prizes and gifts of various kinds to add interest to the days. Also, the Shaw House in Southern Pines, which has closed for the season, will reopen Thursday and Friday afternoons for the pleasure of convention guests and a couple of hostesses will be on hand. Tea will be available, if desired.

The local hospitality committee comprises 11 members of the recently organized Sandhills Pharmaceutical auxiliary, two of whom, Mrs. Wesley Viall, Sr., and Mrs. Graham Culbreth, are members of the State hospitality committee also. Others are: Mrs. J. T. Overton, Mrs. James Lawson, Mrs. Joe Montesanti, Mrs. Lloyd Prime, Mrs. R. A. Knight, Mrs. W. B. Whitlock, Mrs. Helen Rimmer, Mrs. Dolph Blue and Mrs. Dave Gamble. Mrs. Culbreth's daughter, Mrs. Harris Coley, Jr., of Raleigh is coming down to assist with the entertainment.

Party At Pinehurst Convalescent Home Honors Mrs. Graham

A surprise birthday party was given at the Pinehurst Convalescent Home Tuesday afternoon honoring Mrs. W. B. Graham of Vass, a patient there for several weeks, on her birthday.

Wheeled into the living room for what she thought was a routine change of scenery, Mrs. Graham found several of her relatives waiting with gifts. In the adjoining dining room from a table attractive with party decorations, birthday cake, ice cream and lemonade were served. Staff members assisting with the party were Mrs. C. B. Chase, Mrs. Clyde Council and Mrs. Griffin.

Guests were Mrs. Graham's five sisters, Mrs. W. D. Matthews of Southern Pines, Mrs. C. J. Temple, Mrs. W. C. Leslie, Mrs. C. L. Tyson, and Mrs. H. A. Borst, all of Vass, Mrs. A. M. Cameron, Mrs. W. A. Muse, Miss Louise Leslie, Mrs. Russell Bullock and little Marjorie Leslie Bullock, also of Vass.

Miss Jane Lewis, Bride-Elect, Is Feted At Vass

Miss Bessie Cameron, Mrs. W. A. Muse, Miss Louise Leslie and Mrs. R. A. Evans, of Vass, entertained Miss Jane Lewis, bride-elect, and her mother, Mrs. A. T. Lewis, of Carthage, at a four-course dinner at Dixie Inn in Vass Wednesday evening. The table was decorated with a floating arrangement of magnolias, and white candles. Miss Lewis was presented a white carnation corsage and a gift of china in her chosen pattern.

The bride-elect is home economics teacher in the Vass-Lakeview High school. Her wedding to the Rev. Johnnie Dolphus Aycock of Littleton is set for June 26, in the Methodist church, Carthage.

Six Children Baptized At Mother's Day Service

A baptismal service was held on Mother's day at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian church, at which time the following children were presented for this sacrament: Nancy Claire Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson; Thomas Michael Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Henderson; John Scott Newton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton; Nancy Karen Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Blake; Barbara Susan McCrimmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. McCrimmon; and Linda Sue Robson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hurshell Robson.

Kitchen Shower Is Given To Honor Miss Shirley Newhart

Honoring Miss Shirley Newhart, whose engagement to Francis Shea has recently been announced, Mrs. William J. Wilson entertained at a kitchen shower at the Park View hotel Wednesday afternoon.

Spring decorations lent a festive air and the table was most attractive with candles and a centerpiece made in the form of a bridal bouquet. Cake, cookies, fudge, nuts and punch were served, with Mrs. Lenox Forsyth pouring.

Mrs. Helen Shea, mother of the honoree's fiancé, introduced the guests to Miss Newhart, and Mrs. Forsyth assisted her in opening and displaying the many gifts which she received for her home-to-be.

Attending were Miss Newhart, Mrs. Shea, Mrs. Joe Warren, Miss Frances Schwartz, Mrs. Claude Hayes, Miss Katherine McMahan, Miss Emile Mae Wilson, Mrs. J. B. Gifford, Mrs. Dante Montesanti, Mrs. Angelo Montesanti, Miss Millie Montesanti, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Miss Marguerite Wolf, Mrs. S. R. Jellison, Mrs. William Heller, Mrs. Howard Burns, Mrs. William Thomas, Mrs. Chan Page, Miss Annette Frye, Mrs. John Buchholz, Mrs. Joe Montesanti, Mrs. Lenox Forsyth, Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Charles Sadler.

Class Supper

Intermediates of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian church held a class supper at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Howard Butler, last Saturday night. Attendance was badly cut by the late afternoon storm, but those attending had a good time playing games, engaging in contests and singing. The supper originally planned for an outdoor event, was served indoors.

Attending were Shirley Thwing, Lillian Bullock, John Ray, Stephen Holderness, Bill Marley, Richard Parshley, and Bobby Cline, of the class, their pastor, the Rev. C. K. Ligon, and guests Eileen Thwing, Betty Weatherspoon and Dan Butler, young son of the hostess.

Word From the Burts

Good news comes from the Struthers Burts. They are both now back, staying with Mrs. Burt's cousin, Mrs. George Page, at Secane, Pa., and will shortly move into the Hotel Barclay in Philadelphia. Mr. Burt left the hospital last week, following his serious illness, and says now that he feels better than he has "since last October." They plan to start for the ranch in Wyoming around June 7.

Baptist Circles Plan Projects

Baptist Circles held their monthly meetings Tuesday night of last week, with programs, and business sessions during which community and home mission projects were planned.

The Helen Fuller Circle met at the home of Mrs. Harry Lewis with 14 members present. Mrs. C. B. Gale led the devotions and program. The group planned a visit to a convalescent home and the sending of a cheer basket to a needy family.

Mrs. Charles Parker was hostess to the Dorothy Wonderly group with 11 members present and two visitors, Mrs. C. C. Kennedy of Carthage and Mrs. E. B. McDonald. Mrs. Kennedy spoke on "The Christian Home." A visit to McCain sanatorium and cheer for a needy family were planned.

Willing Workers met at the home of Mrs. Elliot Shearon with Mrs. M. B. McRae as co-hostess. Present were 18 members and one visitor, Mrs. Ned Kimball. Mrs. Janice Norton led the devotions and Mrs. J. Sheppard was in charge of the program. As a community mission project the group will provide Bible verses for trays at the hospital.

The Harriet Witte Circle met with Mrs. David Hoskins with 10 members and one visitor, Mrs. Joseph Haney. Miss Mary Richardson led the devotions and Mrs. Arthur Preiss the program. Visits to shut-ins were planned.

Legion Auxiliary

At Tuesday night's meeting of the American Legion auxiliary, held at the Legion hut with Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin presiding, Mrs. Virgil P. Clark announced that the work of judging the 27 entries submitted locally in the Americanism Essay contest was in progress. Reports of the meeting of District 12 in Asheville last month and of the recent Poppy sale were given. Announcement of the department convention to be held at Durham June 7-10 was made.

Mrs. McLaughlin conducted an informative question-and-answer program covering several phases of the national child welfare program of the Legion and Auxiliary, containing a brief history of the purpose of the program, its methods of operation, new principles and obligations.

Baptist Sunbeams Win Recognition

At a recent associational meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union at Aberdeen, the Sunbeams of the Baptist church in Southern Pines were praised for their excellent work and were recognized by Mrs. O. J. Hagler, superintendent of the Associational Woman's Missionary Union, as the only A-1 Sunbeam organization in the South Sandy Creek association and the only Sunbeam band that had grown enough to form a second band.

Those responsible for leading this group, composed of boys and girls from four to eight years of age, so well are Mrs. G. H. Bowden, Mrs. Ben Steen and Mrs. Roger L. Martin, Jr.

Nancy Vail Harrington Is Christened Sunday

Nancy Vail Harrington, baby daughter of Lieut. and Mrs. James Harrington of Southern Pines and granddaughter of Mrs. Bernice Harrington of Southern Pines and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tufts of Pinehurst, was christened in a special ceremony attended only by the families at 12:30 p. m. last Sunday. The christening was held in the Village Chapel at Pinehurst, with the pastor, the Rev. Adam Weir Craig officiating.

Mrs. Newton Is Circle Hostess

Mrs. S. R. Newton was hostess to Circle 2 of Manly Presbyterian Women of the church at her home Tuesday night of last week, with 12 members and one visitor, Mrs. G. L. Culler, Jr., present.

Miss Mary Scott Newton presided over the business session, in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. J. Bruce Cameron, and Mrs. Tom Vann conducted the Bible study.

The hostess served strawberry shortcake and iced tea.

Mrs. Fullenwider Hostess To Ruth Sanborn Group

The Ruth Burr Sanborn group of the Church of Wide Fellowship held its monthly meeting Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Harry Fullenwider, Mayfair apartments.

Mrs. R. L. House conducted the devotions and Mrs. Harold McAllister presided over the business session, during which ways and means of raising funds were discussed.

Eleven members were present. The meeting closed with a refreshment period.
