

Auxiliary Sends Two Local Girls To Girls' State

Peaches Cameron and Elaine Johnson, members of the rising junior class at Southern Pines High school, will leave today for Woman's college, Greensboro, to take part in the week-long "Girls State" sponsored by the N. C. American Legion Auxiliary.

At "Girls State" members of the class of 1953 from high schools all over the state will participate in a practical application of government and politics. They will hear talks by leading members of the Woman's college faculty, and will enjoy a number of fun and social events. Peaches and Elaine will take part under sponsorship of the Sandhill Post, American Legion auxiliary. They were chosen with cooperation of the school authorities, as girls who would benefit by the training in leadership offered by Girls State, and be able to employ their knowledge for the good of the school and community.

Meat production under Federal inspection for the week ended April 26 was estimated at 305 million pounds.

Lawyers Attend State Bar Association Meet; Leland McKeithen Is President

A number of Moore County lawyers, several of them taking their wives, will spend this weekend at Wrightsville Beach, where the N. C. State Bar association, of which W. A. Leland McKeithen of Pinehurst is president, is holding its 54th annual convention.

Mr. McKeithen, elected to the presidency last June, will relinquish the office in elections to be held Saturday, moving over to the position of ex officio member of the board.

The convention was to open Thursday night at the Ocean Terrace hotel with the president's address, in fulfillment of a constitutional requirement of the association. Instead of giving the traditional review of the year's work, which is to be well covered in committee reports to be made Saturday morning, Mr. McKeithen made a strong speech presenting the case for the organized bar, and urging that each lawyer devote some portion of his working time to furthering the aims of his profession in general, rather than exclusively on matters of his own private practice. Only in this manner, he said, will lawyers as a group be able to make their aims known, secure some measure of their accomplishment, and render a full mead of service to the public.

Several distinguished speakers will be heard in morning and afternoon business sessions today (Friday). Tonight, the banquet speaker will be Joseph H. McConnell, brother of John D. McConnell of Southern Pines, law partner of President McKeithen in the Pinehurst firm of McKeithen and McConnell. The brothers are natives of Davidson, where their father was for many years on the faculty of Davidson college.

Joseph H. McConnell, a former member of the N. C. Bar association, has for the past three and a half years held the important position of president of the National Broadcasting company, in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. McKeithen left for Wrightsville Tuesday, and were followed Thursday afternoon by John D. McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Johnson of Aberdeen, and others of the county.

Lawrence Johnson will make a report Saturday morning for his father, J. Talbot Johnson, who with Mrs. Johnson is now on a tour of the Scandinavian countries. He will make the report of the delegate to the American Academy of Political and Social Science.

The biggest in town!

- Here's a nickel that buys plenty of service ... comfort and entertainment. It's a nickel spent for electric service! For example, here's what 5c worth of electric service can do for your family:
 - Make toast for you and your family for all three meals ... (A penny's worth does that!)
 - Swish clean three full tubs of laundry ... (Only a penny for that power, too!)
 - Vacuum six large rugs ... (Lots of work for a cent's worth of electricity!)
 - Furnish a cooling breeze for four full hours ...
 - AND
 - Bring you and your family an evening's entertainment!
- Where else could the average family get so much value for one small nickel? In fact, your electric service is just about the biggest bargain in your family budget. Don't you agree?
