

West End Lions Stage All-Male Show Tonight

An all-male show put on by the West End Lions club will be a big entertainment attraction at the West End High school tonight (Friday).

The modest admission prices will go toward the Lions welfare fund for the blind. For their money, spectators will enjoy the privilege of watching 30 dignified business men of the community shed their dignity in portraying feminine and comic-character roles.

"The Big Baby Revue" is the name of this extravaganza, on which the curtain goes up at 8 o'clock. It concerns a party being given by Mrs. Finefeathers (A. J.

Hanner) for her many friends of stage and screen, among whom are Carmen Miranda (D. A. Patterson); Al Jolson (E. P. Henson); Emmett Kelly (M. H. Tucker); Gypsy Rose Lee (Earl Auman); Lil' Percy (Paul VonCanon); Frank Sinatra (Robert Henderson); Baby Snooks (T. J. Fletcher); Jiggs (Billy Johnson) and Maggie (Dunk McInnis).

The audience will be treated to the sight of Aunt Jemima (W. A. Johnson, Sr.) dancing with Old Black Joe (L. G. Melvin) to the tune of "Darktown Strutters Ball."

"Miss West End of 1952" will also be presented. The show is being directed by Miss Ruth Mills of the H. M. Rickard Producing company, Black River Falls, Wis.

Junior, Senior Tennis Teams Win League Matches

Both the senior and junior Southern Pines tennis teams won their matches in the Eastern Carolina League series played last weekend.

For the junior team, it was the opener of their six-match series. They played Saturday afternoon at Raleigh, defeating the Raleigh juniors by a score of 4 to 3. Making up the local team were Steve Choate, Kenneth Tew, Deryl Holiday, Johnny Watkins and Julian Pleasants.

They will meet the Kinston junior team on the local courts in their second match of the series Saturday.

The seniors defeated a team from Rocky Mount here Sunday afternoon by 6 to 3 and will go this Sunday to Chapel Hill. They have previously played, and defeated, the Sanford team. Playing Sunday were Harry Lee Brown, Jr., Angelo Montesanti, Malcolm Clark, Page Choate, Norris Hodgkins, Jr., and Bobby Barefield.

On their trip to Raleigh Saturday the junior team was accompanied by Harry Lee Brown, Jr., advisor from the Sandhills Tennis association, and Stanley Austin, who drove them there. At Raleigh they were joined by Don Moore, a member of the local faculty and also an advisor from the STA to the junior group. Mr. Moore lives at Raleigh and after the match had the entire Southern Pines party as guests for a buffet supper at his home.

Ann Pearson Wins Scholastic Medal At St. Mary's

Ann Hoke Pearson, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Annabelle Pearson of East Connecticut avenue, was awarded the Cooper Medal at commencement exercises at St. Mary's in Raleigh last week, for having the highest scholastic average for the year in the entire high school department.

Ann is a freshman at St. Mary's, a junior in high school. Her first two years of high school were spent at the Southern Pines school, where she was a marshal for her class in both 1950 and 1951.

The Cooper Medal was established in 1944 by Mrs. Sterling Gray Gilliam (Fannie Closs Cooper, '44) of Henderson, in memory of her brother. To be eligible, a student must have carried four credit courses throughout the year, completing them satisfactorily, and also must have maintained a satisfactory bearing in all other phases of school life during the year.

Ann was one of five girls recently elected to the Beacon, high school honor society. She will spend the summer at the Hill camp, Chesham, N. H., where she will be a junior counselor for the second year. She will leave for camp toward the end of June.

Only Five Called For June Draft, Two For July

Preinduction calls remain high, while induction calls stay low, according to Mrs. Harry W. Davis, selective service clerk at Carthage.

Five Moore men, to be selected next week after reclassification by the board, are to be inducted into the Army June 28. The July call, already received, is for only two, to be inducted July 27.

Twenty men were called for preinduction examination this week. Only seven passed, most of them flunking their mental test. Preinduction examination will be given 25 Moore men July 1.

Of six men sent in response to the May draft call, only two were inducted, James Arthur Cole and Herman Edward Leake, both Negroes.

All married non-fathers eligible for the draft have now been given their preinduction exams, but all who passed have not yet been inducted, Mrs. Davis said.
