Mr. and Mrs. Ollie C. Adcox of Pinebluff announce the engagement of their daughter, Eloise Lenore, to Ronald Joseph Bleau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Bleau of Palmer, Mass. The wedding will take place August 2 at Pinebluff Methodist church.

Barrow-Polk Wedding To Take Place Saturday

Ted Barrow, Jr., of Southern Pines and Miss Claudia Dare Polk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Polk of Rockingham, will be married at 5:30 o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon in the Rockingham Methodist church.

Several local people will be attendants and a number of friends from the Sandhills will go to the wedding.

Miss Mary Epps Wallace Is Bride of Mr. Bender

In an afternoon ceremony on June 7, in Holy Trinity church, Washington, D. C., Miss Mary Epps Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Wallace of Carthage, was married to Francis Joseph Bender, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Bender of Ebenburg, Pa. The Rev. O'Leary officiated using the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was given by the church organist. Miss Carolyn Hall sang, accompanied at the organ by her mother, Mrs. H. J. Hall, aunt of the bride, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length dress of white Chantilly lace over satin. Her veil was attached to a coronet of illusion edged with seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white bridal roses and orchids.

Miss Peggy Wallace, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore blue nylon net over taffeta with a matching taffeta duster and pale pink accessories. She carried a cascade bouquet of cream roses.

Toni Bender, United States Navy, served his brother as best man. Ushers were Steve Arledge of Raleigh, Jimmy Larkin of Washington, N. C., Earl Slayton of Washington, D. C., and Walter McIver of New Orleans, La.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception and cake cutting in the garden of Mrs. C. T. Draper of Georgetown, after which the bridal couple left for a honeymoon in the New England states.

Upon their return, they will make their home in Washington, D. C., where Mrs. Bender is with the Justice Department and Mr. Bender is with the Office of Price Stabilization. He is a veteran of World War 2 in which he had an overseas assignment.

Mrs. Herring And Daughter Complement Miss Lewis At Tea

Honoring Miss Jane Lewis of Carthage, whose wedding to the Rev. Johnny Aycock is set for June 28, Mrs. D. B. Herring and daughter, Miss Jane Herring, who will be one of Miss Lewis' attendants, entertained at a tea at their home on North Poplar street, Aberdeen, Wednesday afternoon of last week from four to six o'clock.

Miss Ila Blue of Aberdeen greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line, in which were the hostesses, Mrs. T. A. Lewis of Carthage, mother of the bride-elect, Miss Lewis, and other attendants: Mrs. Richard Babbitt, Miss Mary Katsos and Miss Ruth Tyson. The honoree was wearing a white carnation corsage, a gift from the hostesses.

Arrangements of cut flowers throughout the house emphasized the bridal motif of green and white, and in the dining room, to which guests were directed by Miss Berta Blue of Aberdeen, the table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a silver bowl of snapdragons, lilies, and larkspur flanked by white tapers in silver candelabra. Party sandwiches, bridal cakes, nuts and sweets were served by Mrs. John Sloan, Mrs. Donald Jones, Mrs. W. B. Marks and Mrs. Bob Lee. Alternating at the punch bowl were Miss Pearl McMillan and Mrs. Bob Maurer. Goodbyes were said by Mrs. Charles Worth.

Approximately 100 guests from Southern Pines, Aberdeen, Carthage and Vass called during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blue, Jr. left Wednesday for Lawndale to spend the rest of the week with Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Maybin and son.

Honoring Preston Matthews prior to his departure from Rocky Mount Tuesday for Anchorage, Alaska, all members of the family gathered at the home of Mrs. W. Duncan Matthews on Ridge street Sunday to have dinner together. Present were Preston and a Rocky Mount friend, Fred Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Matthews and family of Fayetteville, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Matthews and family, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Harry Fullenwider and daughter, Janet, all of Southern Pines.

Friendship Circle Closes Year With Family Picnic

The Friendship circle of the Woman's society of the Church of Wide Fellowship held its final meeting in the form of a picnic Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Proctor. Members had as their guests their husbands and children or friends.

A bountiful meal was spread on tables previously arranged by the hostess on the spacious picnic grounds and at the conclusion of the meal the group moved indoors for a social hour.

Mrs. Luella Smiley, who named the Circle, was able to be present as a very special guest after having been confined to her home for some time because of ill health.

Reports showed that the Circle had completed a successful year and was able to turn over a nice gift to the church building fund.

Mrs. Paul Ward, chairman for the past two years, was presented a gift as a token of appreciation from the Circle, by Mrs. J. D. Sitret, retiring secretary.

The group adjourned to resume meetings in September with the following officers: Mrs. Earl Park, chairman; Mrs. J. D. Sitret, assistant chairman; Mrs. Paul Ward, secretary; Miss Martha Underhill, treasurer.

Mrs. Reuben Bauer of Brooklyn, N. Y., was a weekend guest of Mrs. Mark J. King, Jr.

A/2c John Wyatt New of Dumas, Ark., and Miss Billie Wynn Culpepper of Star City, Ark., were married Saturday in the first formal military wedding to be held at the USAF Air-Ground Operations school, at Highland Pines Inn.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Culpepper, was given away by Col. Samuel T. Moore, special assistant to the commandant, while officers and airmen of the staff and faculty looked on.

The ceremony was performed by Air Chaplain LeRoy H. Lewis, of Ninth Air Force, Tactical, Pope AFB.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. James R. Cloninger. The organist was Mrs. Graham Culbreth, while Mrs. Douglas F. Rowe was soloist.

Best man was a fellow airman, A/1c Jimmy E. Barrow. Ushers, all from the 4425th School Squadron, were S/1c Lee Davidson; A/1c Manor Aughtry; A/3c James T. Clark, and A/3c Bruce L. Eldridge.

Members of the traditional Air Force Honor Guard were M/Sgt. Welton L. Darracott; S/1c, Sylvain T. Barrett; S/1c, James R. Cloninger; A/1c William A. Wimberly; A/1c John R. Schenevar; A/2c Richard Farkosh.

Classroom No. 1, where many a prominent U. S. commander, together with those of Allied and NATO nations have learned their air-ground ABC's, was converted into a chapel as the bride and groom marched down a flower-bordered aisle.

Airman New, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Rogers of Dumas, Ark., served overseas with the Seventh Division in Korea before joining the Air Force in 1951.

A reception was held in the Non-Commissioned Officers club at Highland Pines Inn, after which the couple left for Wrightsville Beach on their honeymoon. They will make their home in Southern Pines for the duration of his assignment at USAFAGOS.

Miss Ellen Wilhoit Weds John Thompson

Miss Ellen Wilhoit, daughter of Mrs. John R. Wilhoit and the late Mrs. Wilhoit of Carthage, became the bride of John Thompson, son of Mrs. John Leslie Thompson and the late Mr. Thompson, Sunday at four o'clock at the First Baptist church in Carthage. The Rev. O. J. Hagler officiated.

Mrs. R. B. Moore, organist, and Mrs. Ralph Ingram, of Kannapolis, soloist, presented the wedding music.

The vows were spoken before altar decorations of palms and baskets of white gladioli, stock and chrysanthemums and candelabra with tall white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Kenneth McKenzie, wore a cream lace street-length dress over cream taffeta and crinoline, a white lace cap set with rhinestones, and a cream veil. She carried a bouquet of purple-throated white orchids, mums and ivory with white satin streamers.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Duncan McPherson, was matron of honor and wore pink embroidered organza over pink taffeta. Her accessories were white. She carried pink carnations, centered with a white orchid, with blue streamers.

E. J. Sutphin, of West End, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Banks Williams, John Blair Hagler, Monroe Vaughn and William Flinchum were ushers.

The bride graduated from the Carthage High school and has been employed as bookkeeper for the Farmer's Exchange in Carthage.

Mr. Thompson is a graduate of the West End schools and a veteran of World War 2, serving in the Pacific theater.

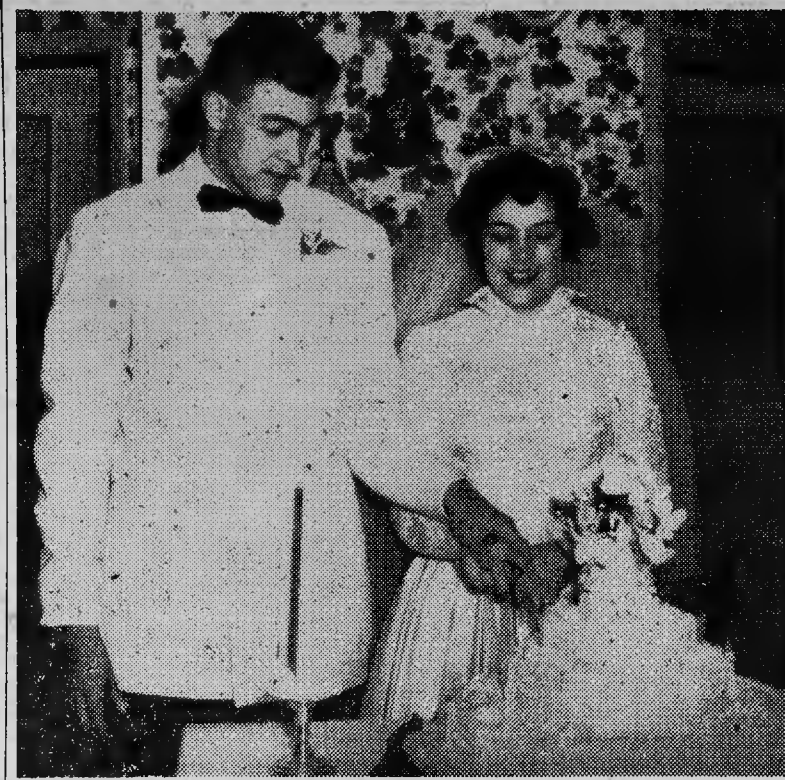

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short trip, after which they will be at home in West End where Mr. Thompson is engaged in farming.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Brown went to Durham Wednesday for Mrs. Brown to have a routine check-up at Duke hospital, and she is said to be "doing fine."

Mark J. King, III, visited Maj. and Mrs. Edwin Harris and family at Buckroe Beach, Va., last week and was accompanied home by Miss Sandra Harris, for a visit to the King family.

Mrs. Ernest Massei and children, Donna and Kathy, who live in one of the Mayfair cottages, left Friday for Detroit, Mich., to visit Mrs. Massei's father.

Mrs. Opal Rhyme of Wichita Falls, Texas, left Thursday after a 10-day visit to her son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Dixon.

MR. AND MRS. FRANCIS CHARLES SHEA go about the business of cutting their wedding cake at a reception at Dante's restaurant, following their wedding at St. Anthony's Catholic church May 31. Mrs. Shea is the former Miss Shirley Catherine Newhart. They are now at home at 470 North Bennett street.

DEVINS-FRASSINETI VOWS EXCHANGED IN MILITARY WEDDING AT WEST POINT

A military wedding in the finest West Point tradition was that of Miss Danila Jessie Frassinetti, daughter of Mrs. Edward Gordon-Mann of Southern Pines, and Second Lieut. Joseph Herbert Devins, Jr., which was solemnized at high noon Wednesday, June 4, in the Cadet Chapel at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y.

The wedding occurred the day after Lieutenant Devins' graduation and commissioning at the Academy's 150th commencement exercises and followed a full week of festivities—the famed "June Week" of the venerable institution.

Immediately after graduation began the procession of the new officers and their brides to the altar in the beautiful chapel, with many weddings taking place in the light of its famed stained glass windows during the ensuing three days.

For her wedding Miss Frassinetti wore a ballerina-length white frock with bodice of imported lace and full tulle skirt. As veil she wore a Spanish lace mantilla of her mother's, the ivory hue of which met a harmony of color in the brown orchids which she carried.

Miss Betty Jean Cook of New York City, formerly of Southern Pines, as maid of honor wore a blue taffeta ballerina frock with tulle overskirt and stole. Similarly fashioned gowns were worn by the bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Devins of Washington, D. C., sister of the groom, in blue, and the Misses Gabriella and Patricia Gordon-Mann of Southern Pines, sisters of the bride, in pink. All carried old-fashioned nosegays in pastel hues, with matching wreaths in their hair.

Best man was Frederick C. Pew III, of Detroit, Mich. Ushers were Lieutenants Frank Benedict, Charles Lynch and Frank Lynch, classmates of the groom. Another classmate, Lieut. Reynold Thomas, gave the bride away. All the West Pointers, including the groom, were in full military dress.

The bride's mother wore a silver-grey brocaded cotton with navy accessories, and the groom's mother was in blue lace with matching hat. Their corsages were purple-throated orchids.

Chaplain Frank E. Pulley performed the ceremony, to the accompaniment of soft organ music.

MISS CATHERINE HILDERMAN IS BRIDE OF IRVING SOSENSKY IN COLUMBIA, MO.

Miss Catherine Hilderman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hilderman of 225 Weymouth road, was married to Irving Sosensky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Sosensky of New Haven, Conn., at Read hall in Columbia, Mo., Sunday afternoon, June 1. The Rev. Alexander Duff Gordon read the vows.

Miss Helen Hilderman was her sister's only attendant. She was dressed in beige silk shantung and carried carnations shaded from yellow to red.

The bride wore a white emossed pique dress with a full skirt and V-neckline lined with pique flowers. She carried a crescent cascade of daisy poms. Sydney Krause was Mr. Sosensky's best man.

Following a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Vineyard, Mr. and Mrs. Sosensky left for a honeymoon trip. They will be at home in Columbia, Mo., where she is an instructor at Stephens Playhouse and he is a philosophy instructor at the university.

The bride is a graduate of Southern Pines High school, Woman's college of the University of North Carolina, and received her Master's Degree in Fine Arts from Yale university.

The bridegroom was graduated from Wesleyan university and received his AM degree from Yale. He is working toward his doctorate at Columbia university.

Church Group Elects Officers, Holds Picnic

The Lena Sweezy group of the Church of Wide Fellowship held its final meeting before suspending for the summer Tuesday at 11 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Minnie Austin. Miss Norma Shiring was reelected chairman for the coming year; Miss Hazel Shiring was returned to the office of treasurer, and Mrs. Harry Pethick was reelected secretary. After the business meeting the group of 10 enjoyed a picnic lunch on the shady porch of their hostess' home.

Miss Margaret Bishop will spend next week at her summer cottage at Banner Elk in the mountains of North Carolina. Mrs. Dorothy H. Avery will be in western North Carolina next week, visiting in Morganton and Banner Elk.
