

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

Newlyweds Visit Relatives Here

Lieut. and Mrs. J. H. Devins, Jr., who were married June 4 at the U. S. Military Academy chapel, West Point, spent last weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gordon-Mann and family after spending their honeymoon at Sarasota, Fla.

Mrs. Devins is the former Miss Danila Frassinetti, daughter of Mrs. Gordon Mann. She and her husband left Sunday for Columbia, S. C., where they will be at home at the Camellia apartments until December, while Lieutenant Devins is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga.

Visits Here Before Going To Korea

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Frank Smith had as their houseguests over the past weekend Colonel Smith's brother and sister-in-law, Lieut. and Mrs. John Harvey Smith. Lieutenant Smith has been stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., since his graduation from West Point in 1950, and is presently en route to Korea for duty. Colonel Smith returned only last November from Korea, where he was awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action. He has been an instructor with the Air-Ground school at the Highland Pines Inn since January. Colonel and Mrs. Smith and son Richard make their home at 305 South Ashe street.

Presbyterian Circle Meetings

With the meetings of three Circles held too late to be included in last week's report, total attendance for the eight Circles of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church for July stands at 89.

Circle 2 met with Miss Nancy Long and Mrs. W. C. Hilderman Tuesday afternoon. Attending were seven members; two new members, Mrs. Ted Klingensmidt and Mrs. W. A. Shaw enrolled at this meeting, and a visitor, Mrs. Dan McNeill, making a total of 10. Mrs. McNeill led the Bible study and the group discussed the Survey article.

Circle 6 met at the home of Mrs. John Scott Newton Thursday night with 16 present. Two of the number were enrolled as members, Mrs. Harold Collier and Mrs. W. G. Bradley, and there were five visitors: Mrs. Ethel Everett, Mrs. Joe C. Thomas, Mrs. Wayland Blue, Mrs. Walter Harper and Mrs. H. E. Wakefield. Mrs. Ray McDonald gave the Bible study, and Mrs. Joe Thomas presented the Survey article.

Circle 7 met with Mrs. George Jackman and Mrs. Everett Horrell at the Jackman home Thursday night. Ten members were present, and five visitors: Mrs. Irie Leonard, Mrs. Margaret Frederick, Mrs. John Reagan, Jr., Mrs. Gaskins and Mrs. Haynes. Mrs. Robert Arey led the Bible study and Mrs. Edward Blake, the Survey.

Norma Cordon Has Birthday Party

Norma Cordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cordon, entertained 16 little girls of her neighborhood at a party at her home Thursday afternoon of last week to celebrate her sixth birthday.

Norma's older sister, Jean, directed a series of outdoor games, and, later, their mother came out to serve ice cream, cake and lemonade from a picnic table on the lawn. Norma was presented many gifts, which she opened and displayed.

Tea At Graves Home Will Honor Miss Currie

Mrs. C. T. Grier and Mrs. W. G. Brown, of Carthage, and Mrs. Henry L. Graves of Southern Pines will entertain at a tea at the Graves home on Hill road from 4 to 6 o'clock this afternoon (Friday) honoring Miss Elizabeth Currie of Carthage, whose wedding to Oscar Leroy Shoensfelt, Jr., will take place July 26.

McKenzies Hold Family Picnic

Friday afternoon the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McKenzie of Pinehurst met at Pinebluff lake for a family picnic.

Relatives enjoying the outing were: Sgt. and Mrs. John Albert (Sara McKenzie) and daughters, Shirley and Pamela, of Fort Benning, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Buck McKenzie, Jack and Becky, of Cameron; Mr. and Mrs. Ed McKenzie, Donna, Eddie, Gwen and Ralph, of Southern Pines. Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Copeland and daughter, Rose, were present, also.

LIEUT. AND MRS. CHARLES NEWTON MYERS

AFTERNOON CEREMONY AT FORT BRAGG UNITES MISS SNIPES AND LIEUT. MYERS

Miss Gladys Melita Snipes, daughter of Mrs. J. V. Snipes and the late Mr. Snipes, of Niagara, became the bride of First Lieut. Charles Newton Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Myers of Longwood, Kennett Square, Pa., in a ceremony at 2:30 p.m., Saturday, June 28, at the Main Post Chapel, Fort Bragg. Chaplain Richard R. Bell officiated.

The vows were spoken before a background of palms, ferns, baskets of white gladioli and candelabra holding white tapers. Stanley R. Waterfield, organist, and Lieut. James Girard, tenor, presented a program of nuptial music.

The bride was given in marriage by Capt. Mark S. Leibbrook, Special Services Officer, Fort Bragg. She wore a ballerina-length dress of tulle over white satin. The bouffant skirt was trimmed with nylon Chantilly lace, and the dress featured a jacket of the same lace with an Elizabethan pointed waistline, a Mary Queen of Scots collar and long sleeves. The fingertip veil of nylon illusion was worn with a Mary Queen of Scots bonnet trimmed with a twist of small pearls. The bride carried a white and gold Bible with a white orchid and satin streamers attached.

Mrs. Evelyn Short, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Marie Short served as flower girl and ring bearer. Mrs. Short wore a ballerina-length gown of green net, fashioned with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt, with matching headress. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with yellow carnations. The flower girl's dress was yellow, and she carried a nosegay similar to the bouquet of the matron of honor. Lieut. Howard S. Peters was best man, and ushers were Leroy A. Snipes of Niagara, brother of the bride, Capt. Jack G. Holland, Capt. Stephen Fowler and Capt. Francis H. Hollick, all of Fort Bragg.

Mrs. Snipes, mother of the bride wore a navy dress with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose dress with gray lace overdress and a corsage of white gardenias. Immediately after the ceremony the bride's mother entertained at a reception in the Civilian Women's Quarters.

For a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C., the bride chose a white brocaded dress with white accessories and the white orchid from her Bible.

Mrs. Myers is a graduate of Southern Pines High school and is employed as secretary to the Special Services officer at Fort Bragg. For the past four years she has served as organist at several chapels on the post.

Lieutenant Myers is a graduate of Northwestern university and is presently assigned to the Special Services section at Fort Bragg.

Lieutenant Myers and his bride plan to establish temporary residence in Salzburg, Austria, following his transfer there in August.

PLANS FOR TUFTS-PHILLIPS WEDDING SATURDAY AFTERNOON ARE DISCLOSED

Plans for the wedding of Miss Peggy June Phillips and Peter Vail Tufts, which takes place Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the Church of Wide Fellowship, have been disclosed.

The ceremony will be performed by the pastor, Dr. Robert Lee House, and the bride will be given in marriage by her father, June Alton Phillips. Attending her as matron of honor and as junior bridesmaids will be her cousins, Mrs. John Ward and Misses Anne and Nancy Ward, of Asheboro. Bridesmaids will be Miss Betty Jean Conley of Marion and Raleigh and Mrs. James Harrington, Jr., of Southern Pines, sister of the groom.

Mr. Tufts will have his father, Richard Sise Tufts, of Pinehurst, as best man and ushers will be Duncan Vail and William Sledge, of Pinehurst, James Harrington, Jr., of Southern Pines and John Ward of Asheboro.

Wedding music will be by Mrs. L. D. McDonald, organist, and Dr. R. Bruce Warlick, vocalist, both of Southern Pines. Miss Phillips will entertain her attendants at a luncheon at the home of her parents Friday, and the cake cutting will be held there after the rehearsal Friday night, with Mrs. John Ward as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward and daughters arrived from Asheboro Thursday to be guests in the Phillips home until after the wedding. They will leave Sunday morning for Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Drove 42, BPO Does Holds Monthly Session

The monthly meeting of Southern Pines Drove 42, BPO Does, was held at the Southern Pines Country club Tuesday night, with the president, Mrs. Bryan Poe, presiding.

The group voted to provide a picnic table for the picnic grounds of the town's new Knollwood recreation park, also to provide a permanent Does trophy for the use of the local Tennis Association. It was decided to hold a picnic at the Country club for the Does, Elks and their families at 6:30 p.m., Sunday, July 27. All who attend are asked to bring along a "covered dish."

The president announced the appointment of Mrs. Leo O'Callaghan, Jr., as attendant to the Junior counselor to take the place of Mrs. Harry Fullenwider, who was elected to the secretaryship of the lodge.

Mrs. Howard Hoffman of Greenville, S. C., who served as the second president of the local Drove, was a guest at the meeting.

The committee in charge of refreshments was composed of Mrs. G. B. Kimbrell, Mrs. June Blue, Mrs. J. T. Overton and Mrs. Barbara Corbett.

Sale Articles Are Requested By Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary is soliciting contributions for a rummage and "white elephant" sale to be held August 2 on the lot next to Mr. Rhodes' shop on Pennsylvania avenue.

Any persons who have second hand clothing or other marketable articles they are willing to donate are asked to call Mrs. James Springer (tel. 2-6814) at once, and she will collect them. The Auxiliary members would like to get the sorting and pricing done in advance of the sale date.

LOOKING AHEAD . . .

SUPPER AT WEST END

The price will be medium but the supper will be good is the claim made by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of West End Methodist church about the baked ham supper which the organization is sponsoring on Friday of next week. The supper will be held in the youth building on the Methodist church grounds in West End, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m., with friends from throughout the Sandhills invited to attend.

LEARN-MORE CLASS

The Learn-More Bible class, which regularly meets each Monday night, has called off its meeting for next week.

CHURCH WOMEN'S MEETING

Mrs. Arthur W. McNeill, pastor's aide, will have charge of the program when the Women of the Church meet at 8 p. m. Monday at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian church, and the topic will be "The Life of John Knox." Others taking part will be Mrs. Ralph Chandler, Jr., Mrs. A. H. Grant and Mrs. Hal McAdams.

McGraw-Thomas Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Thomas of Carthage announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to James Lloyd McGraw, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McGraw of Carthage. An August wedding is planned.

Julia McMillan Celebrates Birthday

Julia McMillan celebrated her sixth birthday Thursday, July 10 by entertaining several friends at a luncheon at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. McMillan. Attending were Norma and Betty Cordon, Laura DeBruin, Nonie White, Jeanie Butler, Xandra Dundas, and Julia's sister Mary.

New Heir-rivals

RICHARD TIMOTHY MORGAN Mr. and Mrs. Alex Morgan are the parents of a son, who arrived at St. Joseph's hospital Saturday, July 12, weighing five and a half pounds. They have named him Richard Timothy. Mrs. Morgan, before her marriage, was Miss Mary Catherine Crain.

Miss Grace Thwing, driving Misses Shirley and Eileen Thwing to Camp Shirley Rogers, Roaring Gap, last Wednesday for a two weeks' stay, went on for a delightful mountain trip. With her was her mother, Mrs. Eugene Thwing. They spent Wednesday night at Boone, where they saw "Horn In the West," then drove to Cherokee Thursday to spend the night and enjoy "Unto These Hills." Coming back, they visited Chimney Rock and Blowing Rock.

:: In and Out of Town ::

Mr. and Mrs. John V. Clarke have returned from a month's vacation in New York City and at Sachem's Head, Conn., where they visited relatives and friends. Miss Louise Milliken arrived home Tuesday following completion of her summer course at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Mrs. P. R. Barnhardt of Concord was a guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hethcox, for several days, leaving today. Her son Ralph accompanied her and remained until last Sunday.

J. S. McLaughlin, who underwent an emergency operation at Moore County hospital, continues to improve. It is thought that he can come home within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jones spent a few days this week in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Atticus Bryant of Aberdeen and their guest, Mrs. M. D. McNeill of Sanford, called on Mrs. J. W. Atkinson Friday.

R. J. Gamble of Belton, S. C., visited his aunt, Mrs. Rosa Bowen, several days this week. He was a guest at The Lantana in Aberdeen while in the Sandhills.

Mrs. W. D. McCraney and Mrs. Thurlow Evans, of Vass, and their guest, Mrs. A. K. Thompson of Burlington, were dinner guests of Misses Kate and Eva Graham Friday. They called on Mrs. J. W. Atkinson, also.

Dr. Julia Arrowwood of Boston, Mass., came Monday for a few days' visit in the home of her nephew, Dr. R. M. McMillan, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Butler spent Wednesday in Raleigh.

Mrs. Gerard J. P. DeBruin underwent an emergency appendectomy at Moore County hospital Saturday. She is reported to be making satisfactory progress.

Norman C. Cordon, Sr., came down from Blowing Rock Thursday and carried his granddaughters Norma and Betty Cordon back to spend the remainder of the summer with him and their grandmother. Jean Cordon has gone to Atlanta for a two weeks' visit to her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Russell Bridges, and her brother, Teddy left yesterday for four weeks at Camp Sea Gull, near Morehead City. The four are children of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cordon.

Mrs. W. A. McDonald and her infant son, William Michael, are now at their Midland Road home. They left Moore County hospital on Wednesday of last week.

David Prim left last week for Cedartown, Ga., to visit his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mungall, for several weeks. Jimmy Prim spent last week in Charlotte with his cousin, Billy Sitton. David and Jimmy are sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Prim, Jr., of New York Avenue extension.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan S. Ray were Mr. Ray's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Taylor of Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Ted Barrow, Jr., who underwent an appendectomy at Moore County hospital the middle of last week, was able to return home Wednesday.

Anna Poole has returned to her home in Asheboro after visiting her aunt, Mrs. N. R. Curtis, and Mr. Curtis on Youngs road.

Mrs. J. G. Coughlin, accompanied by her six-year-old granddaughter, Barbara Ann Coughlin, arrived Saturday from Edina, Mo., to spend two weeks with her son and daughter-in-law, Maj. and Mrs. P. E. Coughlin, and their young son, Peter, on Youngs road.

Mrs. Myron Hill is confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mills and son Mike and C. R. Mills spent Tuesday at White Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Rowe spent several days last week visiting Hatteras, Nags Head and Manteo. At Manteo they attended Paul Green's historical drama "The Lost Colony."

Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Caudle of the Knollwood apartments are spending the week at Virginia Beach. On the way they stopped at Manteo to see a performance of "The Lost Colony," and before returning will go to Williamsburg Va., to see The Common Glory.

Misses Louise Caddell and Betty Sessoms, Mr. and Mrs. Havis Hunsucker and their little son, Tommy, spent last week vacationing in Florida. They motored to Daytona Beach and Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rasmussen and children, Bobby and Sharon, and Mrs. Elva Phalyn, of Chicago, Ill., came last week to visit Mrs. Rasmussen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Council. Mr. Rasmussen is returning to Chicago this week, but the others will remain for the rest of the summer. The Council's other daughter, Mrs. Jack Richardson, and baby Jaan returned to their home in Baltimore last week after a visit here.

Mrs. John Dundas will leave Monday to spend three or four weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Penn Watson, Jr., who recently moved from Goldboro to Wilson. She expects to return about the middle of August.

Mrs. Katherine S. McColl left Tuesday by train for Jackson, Wyoming, accompanied by her nine-year-old grandson, David Lynch, of Bennettsville, S. C. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Struthers Burt at their home, Three Rivers Ranch, for the next month or six weeks.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Ligon and children will arrive today (Friday) from Richmond, Va., to spend the weekend at the manse.

Recent guests in the home of Mrs. Bert Thomas and Mrs. George Mattocks were Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hanson of Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. J. L. Thompson and daughter Lolly, of Heflin, Ala. They were here to attend the Thomas reunion which is held each year at Lakeview. They also spent a weekend at Lake Waccamaw, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Mattocks, Mrs. Thomas and Barbara Baker.

Misses Madeline and Dorothy O'Connor and Judy Andrews, of Greensboro, were weekend visitors in the home of their uncle, W. S. Harrington, on South Bennett street.

Mrs. Thomas Vann and children, Ann and Thomas, visited Mrs. Vann's brother, William Phillips, and family in Raeford from Wednesday until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Little and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kelly, Jr., Mrs. Little's sister and brother-in-law, from Friday until Sunday, at Virginia Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wilson of South Ashe street have returned home after a five-weeks' visit to Wisconsin.

Mrs. M. L. Farrior left Tuesday morning to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. M. N. Paul, in Dublin, Ga. She plans to return today (Friday).

Our Annual PRE-INVENTORY SALE Continues

We Still Have Many Excellent Values From Our Regular Stock of Spring and Summer Merchandise

Come in and see these drastic reductions in our Spring-Summer Clothing.

- Sport Jackets and Slacks
- Sportswear - Beachwear
- Nationally Advertised Dress Shirts
- Straw and Felt Hats, also Caps
- Robes and Bedroom Slippers
- Fine Values in Dress and Sport Shoes
- Men's Socks and Jewelry
- Belts and Neckwear

Patch's Tog Shop

CHAS. S. PATCH, Prop. Southern Pines

SUNTAN
lotions and creams

Your First Stop to Summer Fun

The sun's fun—but mighty treacherous when you don't protect yourself. Play safe with sun tan preparations. Choose from our large selection of brand names.

WE WILL BE OPEN SUNDAY
July 20th—10 a.m. till 6 p.m.
and each night the following week until 9 p. m.

(Note later opening and closing)

Southern Pines Pharmacy

Phone 2-5321
SOUTHERN PINES, N. C.
Night Phones: GRAHAM CULBRETH 2-4180 DICK KNIGHT 2-6021