Henry Vesta Post, American Legion, Elects Officers

The Henry Vesta Post 150, Negro American Legion organization with headquarters at Carthage, has elected officers for 1952-53 as follows:

Elmer U. Grant, commander; Jesse Kelly, first vice-commander; Louis Holt, second vice-commander; Heratio Goins, adjutant; Samuel McKeithan, service officer; Herbert Hayes, finance officer; William Jones, sergeant-at-arms; Willie Henderson, chaplain; and Carson Brower, historian.

During the past year the post has organized a women's auxiliary, with former Vice-Commander E. A. Thornton in charge of the organization work.

The post was recently visited by District Commander L. C. Grant who commended its spirit and progress.

The post sponsors Boy Scout Troop 152 at Cameron. Last year a Boy Scout was sent to a summer camp.

Delegates from the post have attended every conference and convention, as encouraged by Vice-Commander Thornton. During the year, the post has helped conduct funeral services for three comrades and has taken care of three sick comrades.

With the cooperation of the women's auxiliary the post is looking forward to a more impressive and effective program during the coming year, the new commander said.
