

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

Miss Clarine Glisson Weds Charles B. Shields In Myrtle Beach Church

Miss Clarine Glisson, daughter of Mrs. Robert Pigford of Carthage, became the bride of Charles B. Snipes, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Snipes of Carthage, in a double-ring ceremony at the First Baptist church in Myrtle Beach, S. C., at 11:30 a. m., Saturday, July 19. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Carl Compton.

The bride wore a white Palm Beach suit with white accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Mrs. Snipes is a graduate of Carthage High school. She was employed for a while in Southern Pines by the Central Carolina Telephone company, and is now a member of the Moore County hospital office personnel, serving as admitting officer.

Mr. Snipes attended Carthage High school, and served in the Air Force nearly four years. He returned from overseas about a year ago and was stationed in California, receiving his discharge last February. He is now employed in Carthage by the State Highway department.

Mr. and Mrs. Snipes are making their home in Pinehurst.

Attending the wedding were Miss Betty Blue, Miss Phyllis Apperson and Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Yarborough.

Chandlers Entertain Office Personnel At Party In New Home

The attractive new home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chandler, Sr., on Maple road was bright with summer flowers when they entertained Mr. Chandler's office personnel and their husbands and wives at a final get-together Tuesday night before his retirement as district manager of the Carolina Power and Light company.

Tables were set up for the game of hearts, and after several progressions prizes were awarded, as follows: high score for ladies, Mrs. Ted Klingenschmidt; men's high score, George McDonald; floating prize, Mrs. G. L. Culler.

Nuts, raisins and punch were enjoyed throughout the time of play, and later Mrs. Chandler, assisted by Mrs. R. L. Chandler, Jr., served chicken salad sandwiches, ice cream and cake.

With Grady Wright serving as spokesman, the employees presented to Mr. Chandler a sterling silver cigar box in appreciation of his kindness and courtesy to them during their time in his employ.

A special guest at the party was Mr. Chandler's successor, Ward Hill of Asheville.

Attending were George McDonald, Paul Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Allred, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wright, Charles F. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Prim, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Klingenschmidt, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chandler, Jr., Mrs. Grady Culler and Mrs. Grady L. Culler, Jr.

Mills Family Plans Trip To Kansas

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mills and his mother, Mrs. C. R. Mills, will leave Saturday morning for Marion, Kansas, to visit Mrs. Russell Mills' mother for two weeks. They will go by way of Hendersonville to pick up Mike Mills, who is at the Elks' camp there.

Honeymooners On Break the Bank

Sandhills friends who were listening to the "Break the Bank" program Monday morning were interested to hear as contestants Mr. and Mrs. Oscar LeRoy Shoeneft, Jr., who were married in Carthage Saturday and are on a wedding trip to the Big City and New England. Program time ended before they finished, so they were back for the broadcast Tuesday. While they didn't break the bank, they did win $100 and gain some mighty good diary material.

They missed their try for the $2000 question when they failed to answer the actor and actress of a movie which played during Oscar's primary school days and Elizabeth's kindergarten days.

Does Hold Family Picnic

Does and members of their families, totaling around 40, gathered on the terrace of the Southern Pines Country club Sunday evening for a picnic supper. Before and after supper, which was served at 7 o'clock, children of the party played games, while the elders engaged in conversation and tried to keep cool.

Buffet Supper Honors Visiting Army Family

As a compliment to their weekend houseguests, Col. and Mrs. James H. Lynch and family, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Frank M. Smith entertained a number of friends at a buffet supper on the terrace of their home at 305 South Ashe street Friday night.

Additional guests were Maj. and Mrs. Charles Harris, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Lamar Welch, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. George Hunt, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. N. R. Hoskot of Fort Bragg, Col. and Mrs. Porter Kidwell of Pope Field, and Lieut. Col. Roland P. Desnier of the Fifth Armored Division at Camp Chaffey, Ark.

The special honor guests were en route from Fort Benning, Ga., to the Army War College, Carlisle Barracks, Pa., where Lieut. Colonel Lynch is now stationed.

Dr. Milliken And Family Plan Trip

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Milliken and daughter, Miss Louise Milliken, will leave Sunday morning by automobile for Darien, Conn. where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Deane M. Evans (Sue Milliken). After several days there Dr. and Mrs. Milliken will go to New York City, then on a tour of the New England states. During her stay with her sister Miss Louise Milliken will go to New York for a weekend. She and her parents will return to Southern Pines Tuesday, August 19.

Leaving Monday For California

Mrs. D. E. McDonald, Miss Mary Grace McDonald, Mrs. Ralph Mills and S/Sgt. Norvelle Allen will leave Monday for California, planning to be away about three weeks. Mrs. Mills will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Keith E. Harding, at Pasadena, and the other members of the party will visit Mrs. McDonald's daughter, Mrs. Paul Foley, Mr. Foley and their daughter Diana, at Stockton, and go on a sightseeing trip to Los Angeles.

Cupid Takes A Hand, With Pleasing Results

When Julie Hendricks of Pickens, S. C., was planning her wedding to Lieut. David E. Rippetoe of Dillon, S. C., which took place in Pickens last March 22, it was only natural that she should want her college roommate, Fanny Vancor of Plumtree, N. C., as a bridesmaid.

Likewise, it was not to be wondered at that Lieutenant Rippetoe, stationed at Pope Field, should want his good friend, Lieut. James R. Dennett, of Kansas City and Pope Field, as a guest at the big event in his life.

But perhaps Cupid took a hand in things when Julie was led to pair Fanny off with Jim on a blind date during the pre-nuptial festivities.

At any rate, there was a wedding at Plumtree in June, and now only a wall in the new Mayfair building in the heart of Southern Pines separates the apartments of Dave and Julie and Jim and Fanny, and the girls have plenty of time for college-day reminiscing and planning for the future after their husbands get off each day for Pope Field.

LOOKING AHEAD . . .

CIRCLE MEETINGS

The schedule of August Circle meetings for Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the church has been announced, with seven groups meeting next week, and one, No. 5, a week later, as follows:

No. 1, with Mrs. F. M. Dwight, Tuesday at 3 p. m.

No. 2, with Mrs. David Morrison, Tuesday at 3 p. m.

No. 3, with Mrs. William J. Hethcox, Tuesday at 3 p. m.

Nos. 4 and 8, meeting jointly with Mrs. Dorothy Avery and Miss Margaret Bishop in the home of the late Miss Laura Jenks, 115 South Ridge street, Monday night at 8:15 o'clock.

No. 5, with Mrs. Joe S. Hiatt, Midland road, Tuesday, Aug. 12, at 10 a. m.

No. 6, with Mrs. Ray McDonald, Thursday at 8:15 p. m.

No. 7, with Mrs. Bob Arey, Thursday at 8:15 p. m.

SATURDAY SALE

The American Legion Auxiliary will hold a rummage and white elephant sale on the lot next to Mr. Rhodes' shop on Pennsylvania avenue tomorrow (Saturday).

OFFICERS WIVES CLUB

The USAFAGOS Officers Wives club will hold a luncheon meeting at 1 p. m. next Wednesday at the main Officers Club at Fort Bragg, with the club members who live at Fort Bragg serving as hostesses. Double cards are being sent to members, and they are asked to make reservations by returning the reply card, according to instructions given. The nursery at the Episcopal church will open at 12 o'clock noon.

LEARN-MORE CLASS

The Learn-More Bible class will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jimmy Stevens in Pinedene.

New Heir-rivals

SUSAN IDA AUSTIN

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Austin are the parents of their third child—girl number three—who was born July 26 at Moore County hospital weighing eight pounds, six ounces. The new baby, who has been named Susan Ida, was born on her sister Alice's second birthday. The other sister, Roberta, is five. Mrs. Austin and Susan Ida came home Thursday.

Miss Valentine And Mrs. McCain Return From West Coast

Miss Elinor Valentine and Mrs. P. P. McCain returned last week-end from a vacation of over three weeks on the west coast. They flew from Asheville to Los Angeles, where they spent two days, then went to San Francisco for two days of sightseeing before going to Portland, Ore., to visit Miss Valentine's relatives. From Portland they took side trips to several interesting places, including Crater Lake and Spirit Lake. Their final stop was at Seattle, Washington, where they visited other relatives and friends of Miss Valentine.

MISS ELIZABETH CURRIE OF CARTHAGE IS BRIDE OF OSCAR L. SHOENFELT, JR.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Currie, daughter of Wilbur Hoke Currie and the late Elizabeth Woltz Currie of Carthage, became the bride of Oscar Leroy Shoeneft, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Leroy Shoeneft of Mount Vernon, New York, at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Carthage Presbyterian church. The Rev. William M. Currie of Greensboro, uncle of the bride, officiated at the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. William S. Golden of Carthage.

The church was decorated with cibotium lace ferns; basket arrangements of white stock, gladioli, and snapdragons; and candelabra holding white tapers. The aisles were marked with white ribbons and floral sprays.

Mrs. L. R. Sugg, church organist, presented the wedding music; and the soloist was Mrs. Dudley Pendleton.

James Gorden of Mullins, S. C., was best man. Ushers were Aubry Rothrock, Jr., of Spartanburg, S. C., cousin of the groom; Robert Young of Mount Vernon, N. Y.; John Hilton of Wilmington; Robert Hoffman of Washington, D. C.; Harry Aycock of New Orleans, La.; and Bion Brewer of Carthage. John L. Currie and Tommy Currie, brothers of the bride, were junior ushers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight satin fashioned with princess lines. The fitted bodice was outlined at the sweetheart neck with a design of seed pearls, and the long tapering sleeves, carrying out the seed pearl design, ended in points over the wrists. The bouffant skirt extended into a long cathedral train. Her heirloom cathedral length veil of illusion and Brussels rosepoint lace, which was worn by her mother, fell from a matching Juliet cap of the same lace. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Katherine Currie, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Ann and Ruth Douglass Currie, also sisters of the bride; Miss Caroline Green of Atlanta, Ga., cousin of the bride; Miss Pauline Fisher of Richmond, Va.; Miss Mary Anne Foster of Bloomfield Hills, Mich.; and Mrs. John G. Hutchens of High Point. Miss Lynn Currie and Master Hoke Currie, sister and brother of the bride, were the flower girl and ring bearer.

The bride's attendants wore Nile green ballerina-length dresses of net and lace and matching mitts and Mary of Scotland hats. They carried bouquets of white daisies. A dress and hat of blue chantilly lace and a white orchid were worn by Mrs. Currie, the bride's stepmother. The groom's mother

JOHN MCCONNELL IS HOST TO TAR HEEL DELEGATION AT DINNER IN CHICAGO

John D. McConnell of Southern Pines was host at a dinner at the Drake hotel, Chicago, Wednesday night of last week, at which members of the North Carolina delegation attending the Democratic National convention were guests.

Also present, as special honor guests, were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Ives of Southern Pines, brother-in-law and sister of Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois who, two nights later, was acclaimed as the Democratic nominee for president.

Few of the delegation had met Mrs. Ives, and a major object of the party was to see that she became acquainted with the party

OUR AUGUST
SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE

BEGINS FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 1

In order that we may make room for new Fall Merchandise we are closing out all our Summer Stock. IT HAS TO GO!

You will find many items reduced 50%.

Summer Suits One-Half Price

Sport Coats and Suits Good for Fall Wearing
Reduced as Much as One-Third

For the best values in Straw Hats, Shirts, Slacks, Shoes and Socks, you just can't pass up these REDUCTIONS of Nationally Advertised items

Terms Cash--No Approvals--Alterations Extra

Patch's Tog Shop

CHAS. S. PATCH, Prop. Southern Pines

Air Conditioned

For Your Comfort

VACATION NEEDS

THERMOS BOTTLES — SUNSHADES
SUN GLASSES — BEACH BALLS
FIRST AID KITS
and many other items you'll need.

COME IN

WE WILL BE OPEN
SUNDAY, AUGUST 3

Sandhill Drug Company
PRESCRIPTION SPECIALISTS
Telephone 2-6663 Southern Pines, N. C.

DRIVE CAREFULLY — SAVE A LIFE!

Fields Plumbing & Heating Co.
PHONE 5952
PINEHURST, N. C.

All Types of Plumbing, Heating,
(G. E. Oil Burners)
and Sheet Metal Work

PRIVATE CLASSES FOR GIRLS
EIGHT TO TWELVE YEARS

Complete Elementary Course with French and Music

Individual tutoring also arranged.

MRS. MILLICENT A. HAYES
(Formerly The Ark)
SOUTHERN PINES, NORTH CAROLINA

JOHN C. PARRISH
Plumbing and Heating
Day Phone 6893 Southern Pines Night Phone 6814