

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

Miss Gladys Baker and James Paris Speak Wedding Vows

Miss Gladys Virginia Baker of Pinehurst, adopted daughter of Miss Mary Beasley of Vass, became the bride of James Millard Paris of Aberdeen, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Paris of Lumberton, in a private ceremony at the Methodist church in Faison at 5 p. m. Saturday, August 30. The Rev. Dennis Kinlaw officiated.

Miss Daisy Garner of Pinehurst was maid of honor, wearing a tan taffeta dress under a brown linen duster. Her accessories were brown and her corsage was of talisman roses.

Harry Watson of Aberdeen attended Mr. Paris as best man. The couple entered together, the bride wearing a two-piece dress of beige silk faille.

After a wedding trip the couple will reside in Aberdeen. For traveling the bride wore a gray jumper suit with blue nylon blouse and black accessories.

Mrs. Paris was graduated from Vass-Lakeview High school and attended Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The bridegroom received his degree from the University of North Carolina in 1949. He served in the Air Corps overseas during World War 2, and is now employed as chemist with the Taylor Chemical company, Inc., Aberdeen.

Officers Wives Hear Talk On Iranian Art

Lieut. Col. Alfred B. Belsma spoke to the USAFAGOS Officers Wives club on Iranian art and culture at the luncheon meeting held Wednesday at the Highland Pines Inn.

The speaker served three years in an advisory capacity with the Iranian Air Force, during which time he instructed the Shah of Iran in instrument flying. His tour took him all over the country and it was then that he became interested in Iranian rug making and other arts.

Introduced to the group were one new member, Mrs. Glenn Vinquist; an associate member, Mrs. Sam Carter; and a visitor, Mrs. L. A. Des Pland.

Mrs. Jack Gryder, whose husband, Lieutenant Gryder, is returning to civilian life at Miami Fla., was given one of the club's special memento certificates as a reminder of her service days in Southern Pines. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Richard M. McCoy and Mrs. Walter F. Greenwood.

Hostesses for the meeting which had an attendance of 35 were Mrs. G. W. Wiley, Mrs. David S. Steege, and Mrs. John C. Tullett.

Mrs. Joe Steed Honored At Party

Mrs. R. C. Johnson and Mrs. Mark J. King, Jr., were joint hostesses at a shower honoring Mrs. Joe Steed at the apartment of Mrs. Johnson Wednesday night. The group, numbering around 30 presented the honoree a baby crib complete with mattress, cover pillow and sheets.

Winners in Hearts, the game of the evening, were Miss Ruby Hall and Mrs. N. L. Hodgkins. The hostesses served party sandwiches, cakes and punch.

Mrs. Clyde Council's Father Critically Ill

Mrs. Clyde Council received word Wednesday night that her father, the Rev. C. R. Hester of St. Pauls, had suffered a heart attack. Mr. and Mrs. Council left immediately for the Lumberton hospital to which he was carried and found him critically ill. Mr. Council returned after spending the night, but Mrs. Council, who is a nurse, remained with her father.

McDonalds Return From New England

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McDonald returned Saturday night from a two weeks' vacation, spent touring the New England states. Mrs. McDonald's sister, Mrs. M. O. Moran of Kane, Pa., has been here on a visit, and she went with them as far as Scranton, on her way home. Included on their tour which took them into 10 states, was a two-day stop in Bethlehem, N. H., where the McDonalds saw some Southern Pines friends, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Jellison, also J. E. Harrington.

MRS. HANNAS L. THOMPSON

Thompson-Voyles Wedding Solemnized In Bennettsville

Miss Stella Mae Voyles, daughter of Mrs. Bonnie Voyles of Southern Pines and William Austin Voyles of Portland, Ore., and Hannas Lindsie Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Thompson of Candor, were married in a private ceremony in Bennettsville, S. C., at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, August 30. Probate Judge Newton performed the ceremony at his home.

The bride wore a dress of white nylon net over satin with a fingertip veil of bridal illusion. Her bouquet was of red roses and orange blossoms.

Mrs. Milton Kaylor of Southern Pines, wearing a dress of baby blue and a corsage of white carnations, was matron of honor, and Mr. Kaylor attended the bridegroom as best man.

Present for the ceremony were Mrs. Voyles, mother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Blue and Miss Shirley Blue of Southern Pines; Mrs. Thompson, the bridegroom's mother, and Mrs. Edna Marks, of Candor.

The bride attended Southern Pines school and is employed by the Central Carolina Telephone company here.

Mr. Thompson is a graduate of Reeford High school. He holds a position with the Robbins Cloth Mill at Aberdeen.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are now at home in the Kaylor cottage on Youngs road.

Mrs. Peggy Mechlin Weds Mr. Richardon In Village Chapel

Mrs. Peggy Ewing Mechling, daughter of Mrs. Edgar Adlai Ewing and the late Commander Ewing of Knollwood, Southern Pines, and cousin of Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, was united in marriage to John R. Richardson, II, of Gaylord, Va., in a ceremony at the Village Chapel in Pinehurst at five o'clock Saturday afternoon, August 30. Chaplain (Col.) Frank M. Thompson, of Pinehurst officiated.

Mrs. Wilbur Currie of Pinehurst presented a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by Nathaniel S. Hurd of Pinehurst, her godfather. She wore a dark green lace dress fashioned along simple lines, matching headband and slippers, and carried a bouquet of pink lilies.

Mr. Richardson had his nephew, Lieut. Fred Spencer, of Gaylord, Virginia, as best man. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Richardson of Chicago and Virginia.

The wedding was followed by a reception at the Ewing home for around 75 guests.

Mrs. Jack Ramsey Returns From Trip

Mrs. Jack Ramsey has returned from a two weeks' trip that was filled with interesting experiences. She met Mr. Ramsey, who is presently located in Arkansas, at Little Rock and together they toured the state. They spent several days in Elaine with Mayor and Mrs. Forrest Watson. Mayor Watson was one of 16 men chosen to go aboard the USS Dixie for an inspection trip to Hawaiian Islands and he had just returned. Mrs. Ramsey came back by Asheville to see her son Martin, who is a patient at Oteen.

Back From Summer At Myrtle Beach

Misses Seiger Herr, Phyllis Faircloth, Mary Johns Cameron, JoAnne Harriss and LaNelle Kirk have returned from a summer of work and good times at Myrtle Beach, S. C. They enjoyed their work very much, they say, at this popular resort.

MISS FAYE CADDELL, who will speak her wedding vows with Harold Sadler tomorrow Miss Caddell, formerly of Southern Pines, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Caddell of Elon College. Mr. Sadler's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Esmond Sadler of Suffolk, Va.

Miss Mary G. McDonald, Sgt. Allen, Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan E. McDonald of Manly announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Grace, to Norville Bryant Allen, staff sergeant, United States Air Force, now at Highland Pines Inn, Southern Pines. Sergeant Allen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen of Benson. A spring wedding is planned.

LOOKING AHEAD . . .

- CIRCLE MEETINGS
The eight Circles of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church will meet next week, as follows:
No. 1, with Mrs. Roy Stutts, Sr., Tuesday at 3 p. m.
No. 2, with Mrs. T. A. Jones, Tuesday at 3 p. m.
No. 3, with Mrs. John A. Ferguson and Mrs. T. L. Campbell in the ladies' classroom at the church, Tuesday at 3 p. m.
No. 4, with Mrs. Jimmy Springer, Monday at 8 p. m.
No. 5, with Mrs. Claude Reams, Tuesday at 10 a. m.
No. 6, with Mrs. Charles Meares, Thursday at 8:15 p. m.
No. 7, with Mrs. Elwood Blak and Mrs. Charles L. Wicker at the church, Thursday, 8:15 p. m.
No. 8, with Mrs. Roy Newton, Monday at 8 p. m.

EASTERN STAR
Magnolia Chapter 26, Order of the Eastern Star, will resume its regular schedule beginning with a meeting tonight (Friday) at 8 o'clock. A Bob Morris program will be presented, and the Worthy Matron urges a full attendance of officers, members, and visiting Stars.

LENA SWEETZ GROUP
The Lena Sweezzy group of the Church of Wide Fellowship will meet next Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Louis Scheipers.

GIRL SCOUT COMMITTEE
The Southern Pines Girl Scout city committee will meet at 8 p. m. next Tuesday in the basement of the Style-Mart building. Committee members, troop leaders and interested friends are urged by the chairman to attend.

RUTH SANBORN GROUP
The Ruth Burr Sanborn group of the Church of Wide Fellowship will meet at 8 p. m. next Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leland, Kensington road.

OPEN HOUSE
The Student Council of Southern Pines High school will hold open house tonight (Friday) from 8 to 10 for parents to have an opportunity to meet the new teachers. A dance for high school students will follow from 10 to 12.

LEGION AUXILIARY
The American Legion auxiliary will meet at the Legion hut at 8 p. m. next Tuesday, at which time Mrs. F. M. Dwight will install officers for the coming year. Mary Johns Cameron and Elaine Johnson, local delegates to Girls' State this summer, will give reports of their attendance.

LEARN MORE CLASS
The Learn More Bible class will meet at 8 p. m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Emery Smith on May street.

Miss Helen Henson of Carthage will be guest soloist at the Church of Wide Fellowship at the 11 a. m. service Sunday.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES ROBERT McCORMAC CHURCH CEREMONY SATURDAY UNITES MISS BETTY JO BOWDEN, MR. McCORMAC

In a ceremony at the First Baptist church at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, August 30, Miss Betty Jo Bowden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bowden, became the bride of Charles Robert McCormac, son of Mrs. G. W. McCormac and the late Mr. McCormac, all of Southern Pines. Dr. William C. Holland officiated.

Magnolia, English ivy and palms formed a background for seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers, and baskets of white gladioli. The couple spoke their wedding vows standing beneath an arch decorated with ivy and sprays of pink roses.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. C. R. Mills, organist, and Mrs. Douglas F. Rowe, vocalist, presented a program of wedding music. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle-length gown of embroidered French organdy fashioned with a fitted bodice featuring a scalloped neckline, and gathered skirt. Her finger-tip veil of bridal ter-net powder blue or, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Hackney, in pink, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Bertha Maude Ramsey, and Miss Lois Anderson of Bennettsville, S. C., a cousin of the groom, wearing lavender and Nile green. Gowns of the four were of nylon organza, similar in design to that of the bride. They wore matching mitts and headbands, the headbands trimmed with yellow carnations. Each carried a cascade bouquet of yellow carnations.

Donna Wellman was flower girl, wearing a white organdy dress made like the bride's and carrying a basket of blue and white flowers. Allen Preiss, the ring bearer, wore a white coat, navy bow tie and navy trousers.

George A. McCormac was his brother's best man, and ushers were Dr. R. B. Warlick, Ralph Chandler, Jr., and Max Rush, of Southern Pines, and Roy Swink of Fayetteville.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bowden wore violet lace over taffeta with navy accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. McCormac, the bridegroom's mother, had an orchid taffeta afternoon dress with which she wore black accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the bridal party received in the church parlor. The table was decorated with a large fan covered with material like that in the bride's dress, ruffled with white and green tulle trimmed with pink roses. The lace cloth was caught at the corners with smaller fans of similar design. Magnolias and assorted greens were used throughout the reception room.

For traveling the bride wore pink nylon linen with navy accessories and a corsage of white orchids lifted from her wedding bouquet. The couple left by automobile for Washington, D. C., and upon their return will reside at 235 Page street.

Mrs. McCormac was graduated from Southern Pines High school and attended the Baptist School of Nursing at Greensboro.

COURTESIES
Mr. and Mrs. George A. McCormac entertained the wedding party, out-of-town guests and a few additional friends at an after-rehearsal party Friday night at their home. A green and yellow motif was used. Individual nose-gays of green and yellow carnations formed the centerpiece for the table, and these were later presented to the ladies present.

Bridal cakes bearing the initials "B. & B." were served by Mrs. George W. McCormac, and Mrs. Nellie Mann poured punch. Mints and nuts were on the table.

Thursday evening the bride-to-be was honored at a lingerie shower given by Miss Bertha Maude Ramsey, Miss Mary Elizabeth Hackney and Mrs. Bob Ehermann at the Ramsey home. Pink and green were combined in the color scheme. There were two cakes, one pink, the other green, mints, nuts, and gingerale with ice cubes in the chosen color motif.

Games and contests were enjoyed by the 16 guests.

DOES, AT FIRST FALL MEETING, PLAN RUMMAGE SALE AND PARTY FOR VETS

Southern Pines Drove 42, BPO Does, resumed the regular schedule of first and third Tuesday evening meetings this week at the Southern Pines Country club, with the president, Mrs. Bryant Poe, wielding the gavel.

First project on the fall calendar, as announced by Mrs. Chan Peas, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, will be a rummage sale to be held in the fish market building, corner Pennsylvania avenue and Bennett street, Friday and Saturday, September 12 and 13. Does and their friends are being solicited for donations for the sale, and any member of a special Sale committee, named at the meeting may be called for transportation.

Serving on this committee are Mrs. George Thompson, chairman; Mrs. Broadus Smith, Mrs. Wilson Russ, Mrs. O. T. Parks, Jr., Mrs. Jerry Healy, and Mrs. Walter Alpert of Pinebluff, Mrs. H. L. Kimbrell of Aberdeen and Mrs. George Mahoney of Pinehurst.

Second on the agenda will be the entertainment of veterans in the VA hospital at Fort Bragg September 23. Mrs. Walter Topping was named chairman of a special committee for this project, with Mrs. Don Jones and Mrs. Wilson Russ as her co-workers. At the close of the business session refreshments were served in the green room, with Mrs. John Ormsby, Mrs. Howard Burns, Mrs. J. D. Sitterson and Mrs. Louis Scheipers as the hostess group.

MISS SALLY ANN CHENEY OF PINEHURST IS BRIDE OF CLAUDIUS MILLER, III

A double ring ceremony in the Pinehurst Community church, Saturday evening, August 30, united in marriage Miss Sally Ann Cheney and Claudius Miller, III. The Rev. Roscoe L. Price officiated, assisted by the Rev. John Mott of Greensboro.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. True Prescott Cheney of Pinehurst. Mr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Greensboro.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Richard Knight of Southern Pines, organist, and Brantley Greeson of Pinecton, N. J., vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her sister's wedding gown of nylon tulle and imported lace over frosty white satin. It was fashioned with a tulle yoke edged with a border of the lace. The pointed satin bound bodice fastened down the back with tiny self covered buttons. The bouffant skirt of tulle was bordered with lace, and the skirt was sprinkled with lace flowers. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a lace cap inset with pearls. She carried the bridegroom's mother's prayer book which was centered with a white orchid and showered with stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Donald E. Sloan, was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara C. Miller, sister of the bridegroom, of Arlington, Va., Miss Mary Louise Black of New York, and Miss Frances Campbell of Pinehurst. They wore dresses of minuet pink nylon tulle of ballerina length. The fitted bodices were finely pleated with a trim of corded satin at the waist, over which was worn a short bolero of the pleated nylon. They carried colonial bouquets of mixed summer flowers.

The bridegroom's niece, Miss Patti Yeiser of Arlington, was flower girl. She wore a pink organdy dress and carried a nosegay of summer flowers.

The bridegroom had his father as his best man. The ushers were Harold Hornaday of Concord, Harry E. Yeiser, brother-in-law of the bridegroom of Arlington, Va., Dr. William L. Moore of Richmond, Va., and Eric Collie of Liverpool, England.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony the bride's parents entertained the guests at a reception in the church parlor.

Mrs. Miller was graduated from the Woman's college of the University of North Carolina and is now a member of the faculty of Dolly Madison Junior High school, Arlington, Va.

Mr. Miller was graduated from Guilford college and has completed a year at Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria, Va., where he is studying for the Episcopal priesthood.

After a short trip the couple will be at home in Alexandria.

Cameron's Take Vacation Trip; Shields Hears Adlai

Mr. and Mrs. Shields Cameron and Miss Peggy Jean Cameron returned Sunday from a 10-day vacation trip to Boston and Bedford, Mass., to visit Mrs. Cameron's uncle John Lyman Porter at Bedford.

En route they stopped overnight with Mrs. Walter Scott Halliwell and Leonard Halliwell at the Halliwell's Pineholm Farm in Litchfield, Conn. The Halliwells will be remembered here as having built the Pineholm Place out on Youngs road, now occupied by Notre Dame academy.

Shields, as a Legionnaire and member of the French chapeaued 40 & 8 Club of the Legion, attended meetings of these organizations at the National Convocation in New York and saw Governor Adlai Stevenson at his state home.

Both organizers and speaker at the Madison Square Garden, New York, 27. Through the kindness of the Madison Square Garden, New York, 27. Through the kindness of the Madison Square Garden, New York, 27.

Robert Lee House was added to Moore County hospital for treatment, and is still there.

George Hunt has returned from a two weeks' vacation spent in Florida.

GABMONT by PURITAN

You're tailored for action in Gabmont, Puritan's colorful custom rayon gab sportshirt. With hand-picked collar and pockets. Shrink-set, fully washable. In a host of great colors. Small, Medium, Medium Large, Large.

$4.95

Patch's Tog Shop

Sports Center of the Sandhills

Chas. S. Patch, Prop.

Southern Pines