

DAILY DOUBLES

“Old Bethesda” Homecoming Is Set For September 28

The annual homecoming for Old Bethesda church near Aberdeen will be held on Sunday, September 28.

Plans for the occasion are almost complete, says H. Clifton Blue general chairman for the homecoming program.

For the morning service the Rev. John D. McLeod, D. D., a son of Bethesda and now a Presbyterian minister in Virginia, will deliver the homecoming sermon. He is the son of Mrs. John D. McLeod of the Roseland community. A chorus from Flora Macdonald college will sing two special selections for the morning service. Dinner will be spread picnic style on the long tables at the noon hour.

In the afternoon E. T. McKeithen, who a few weeks ago returned from a tour of England and Scotland, will speak, telling of the “old country” as he saw it. Another interesting feature of the afternoon service will be special singing by a male chorus of 16 or more. John G. Sloan is chairman of the male singing group.

A committee composed of M. B. Pleasants, Elbert Garner and W. T. Matthews has been named to clean up the church grounds. Another committee composed of Jack Smith, Ben W. Wicks and Paul Kellis has been appointed to provide drinking water for the occasion.
