

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

Col. and Mrs. Egan Entertain Guests

Col. and Mrs. John C. Egan entertained 75 guests, most of them high ranking officers attending the fighter symposium as delegates and observers from the Ninth Air Force and USAFAGOS, with their wives, at a cocktail-buffet Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins Entertain At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Collins entertained the members of their bridge club at dinner and bridge Monday evening at their home, Pickridge. Club-member guests were Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Hollister, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hoke Pollock, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Milliken, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wright of Pinehurst. Additional guests were Brig. Gen. and Mrs. William Gross, John Underwood and Dr. Cook.

High score prize for women was won by Mrs. Gross, and Dr. Hollister won the men's high.

Miss Stevenson And The Iveses To Attend Interesting Events

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Ives and Miss Letitia Stevenson, aunt of Mrs. Ives, who arrived Thursday, will go to Salisbury Monday to be specially honored guests for the Rowan Bicentennial.

Through them Rowan will pay honor to Adlai Stevenson, brother of Mrs. Ives, titular leader of the Democratic party.

Stevenson ancestors came from many places in the Piedmont area close to Salisbury—and, by a curious coincidence, the section is also full of Eisenhower kin (spelled Isehnour and Isehnower in Rowan) and President Eisenhower will also be a guest of the Bicentennial Thursday.

While in Salisbury the Iveses and Miss Stevenson will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Kizziah, and will be much entertained.

Wednesday, they will go to the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Cannon, near Concord, for an "Elizabethan tea" with some of the most beautiful gardens of North Carolina as background. The Cannon home, "For Pity's Sake," is famous for its gorgeous planting and spring-time - blooming flowers and shrubs. The tea, expected to attract crowds from all over the state, will be held for the benefit of a fund for an Elizabethan garden at Manteo, site of "The Lost Colony."

Mrs. Ives, in the receiving line and during the afternoon, will play the part of "Good Queen Bess," wearing the Queen Elizabeth costume used in "The Lost Colony."

An authentic Elizabethan dance, with music in keeping, will be held on the lawn at 4 o'clock.

Miss Letitia Stevenson, who lives in St. Louis, will be visiting these places for the first time, and will be a unique attraction along the way. Despite advanced years, she proved herself a doughty campaigner with Stevenson, joining the campaign train for an extended tour and enjoying every minute of it. Of pioneer stock, tracing back to Kentucky and North Carolina, she was featured last fall in a picture article, with full-page photograph, in Life.

Thistle Club

Mrs. W. L. Baker, Mrs. G. A. Munn, Miss Marguerite Wolf and Mrs. A. Montesanti were bridge winners at Wednesday afternoon's meeting of the Thistle club, held at the regular meeting place, Tarheelia.

A tea is scheduled for next Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., and reservations may be made by calling 2-6934.

Emmaday Collins Is Hostess At Egg Hunt

Emmaday Collins entertained her Girl Scout troop, No. 53, at an Easter egg hunt at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Collins, Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Ann Carter, for finding the most eggs, Janet Carter for finding the prize Girl Scout egg, and Sharon Harp, finder of the booby egg, were awarded prizes.

Sixteen troop members and four guests attended and they had a good time hunting eggs, playing games, and partaking of the ice cream, cookies and punch served on the terrace of the Collins home.

Mrs. Laura Woods has as her guests her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Isabel Woods and daughters, Stephanie and Octavia Woods, of New York City.

Ladies Night Banquet Marks 57th Anniversary Of Masonic Lodge 484

Southern Pines Masonic Lodge No. 484, AF&AM, celebrated its 57th anniversary with a Ladies Night banquet at the Pinehurst Country club Tuesday night, with Attorney Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., of Carthage as speaker and with 150 in attendance.

The event, which easily merited the rating of outstanding among those of the organization's long history, was marked by informality and good fellowship.

Lloyd L. Woolley presided as toastmaster, and Miss Patricia Kirk at the piano provided dinner music.

The meeting opened with the singing of a stanza of "America," led by Herbert W. Ehrhardt, Jr., past master. J. D. Hobbs spoke the invocation.

Past Master J. W. Causey welcomed the ladies, and Mrs. D. D. Shields Cameron, in responding, echoed the sentiment of all whom she represented by ending her response with "Why don't we do this more often?"

Mr. Woolley introduced a large number of guests of the organization, Past masters, officers and the banquet committee, then had members with guests to present them to the crowd.

Past masters and wives present were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Salty, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Thomas, Thomas H. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Chandler, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Steed, Jr., James W. Causey, Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall G. McRae, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Ehrhardt, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Woolley.

Visiting Masons and wives, with the lodge to which they belong, were: Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Farrior, Aberdeen; Mr. and Mrs. Hal Adams, Robbins; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Collier, Savannah, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ward, West Virginia; Harris Blake, West End; Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Hiatt, Raeford; Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Warlick, Lowell; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gunn, Gastonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Smith, worthy patron and worthy matron of Magnolia Chapter 26, OES, Mrs. Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., Mrs. Sidney Windham and a number of others were present.

A popular feature of the program was music by The Sandhillers—Dr. Bruce Warlick, Bill Benson and Tom Howerton, who sang "Lindy Lou," "Are You From Dixie?," "I Want a Girl," "When You Were A Tulip," and a novelty number which they called "Bingo." The crowd clamored for more and the trio sang as an encore "Get On Board."

Mr. Woolley presented Francis M. Dwight, who introduced the after dinner speaker.

Mr. Seawell, who gained statewide fame as a speaker during last fall's campaign when he was candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, thanked Mr. Dwight for his "kind, highly exaggerated and scandalous remarks," and set the house in an uproar as he read flowery introductions which he said were used during the campaign and from which Mr. Dwight might get some pointers.

To set the minds of his hearers at ease, he declared that he would not speak on "Potentialities of the Eisenhower Administration," would not quote from the Reader's Digest, nor would he use the subject "World Federation and Everlasting Peace." He took as his topic "Folks," and with that announcement launched forth on a round of anecdotes that kept the crowd highly entertained for an hour.

In closing, he hit a serious vein for a very short time, during which he pointed up, not religion, but Jesus, and the quiet of the room was as noticeable as the previous waves of laughter.

A sumptuous dinner was served from flower bedecked tables.

The banquet committee was composed of A. G. Edwards, James I. Lawson, L. D. Jones, L. Russell McRae, Alden G. Bower, Albert B. Sally and Joe C. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Smith, worthy patron and worthy matron of Magnolia Chapter 26, OES, Mrs. Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., Mrs. Sidney Windham and a number of others were present.

A popular feature of the program was music by The Sandhillers—Dr. Bruce Warlick, Bill Benson and Tom Howerton, who sang "Lindy Lou," "Are You From Dixie?," "I Want a Girl," "When You Were A Tulip," and a novelty number which they called "Bingo." The crowd clamored for more and the trio sang as an encore "Get On Board."

Mr. Woolley presented Francis M. Dwight, who introduced the after dinner speaker.

Mr. Seawell, who gained statewide fame as a speaker during last fall's campaign when he was candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, thanked Mr. Dwight for his "kind, highly exaggerated and scandalous remarks," and set the house in an uproar as he read flowery introductions which he said were used during the campaign and from which Mr. Dwight might get some pointers.

To set the minds of his hearers at ease, he declared that he would not speak on "Potentialities of the Eisenhower Administration," would not quote from the Reader's Digest, nor would he use the subject "World Federation and Everlasting Peace." He took as his topic "Folks," and with that announcement launched forth on a round of anecdotes that kept the crowd highly entertained for an hour.

In closing, he hit a serious vein for a very short time, during which he pointed up, not religion, but Jesus, and the quiet of the room was as noticeable as the previous waves of laughter.

A sumptuous dinner was served from flower bedecked tables.

The banquet committee was composed of A. G. Edwards, James I. Lawson, L. D. Jones, L. Russell McRae, Alden G. Bower, Albert B. Sally and Joe C. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Smith, worthy patron and worthy matron of Magnolia Chapter 26, OES, Mrs. Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., Mrs. Sidney Windham and a number of others were present.

A popular feature of the program was music by The Sandhillers—Dr. Bruce Warlick, Bill Benson and Tom Howerton, who sang "Lindy Lou," "Are You From Dixie?," "I Want a Girl," "When You Were A Tulip," and a novelty number which they called "Bingo." The crowd clamored for more and the trio sang as an encore "Get On Board."

Mr. Woolley presented Francis M. Dwight, who introduced the after dinner speaker.

Mr. Seawell, who gained statewide fame as a speaker during last fall's campaign when he was candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, thanked Mr. Dwight for his "kind, highly exaggerated and scandalous remarks," and set the house in an uproar as he read flowery introductions which he said were used during the campaign and from which Mr. Dwight might get some pointers.

To set the minds of his hearers at ease, he declared that he would not speak on "Potentialities of the Eisenhower Administration," would not quote from the Reader's Digest, nor would he use the subject "World Federation and Everlasting Peace." He took as his topic "Folks," and with that announcement launched forth on a round of anecdotes that kept the crowd highly entertained for an hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Smith, worthy patron and worthy matron of Magnolia Chapter 26, OES, Mrs. Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., Mrs. Sidney Windham and a number of others were present.

A popular feature of the program was music by The Sandhillers—Dr. Bruce Warlick, Bill Benson and Tom Howerton, who sang "Lindy Lou," "Are You From Dixie?," "I Want a Girl," "When You Were A Tulip," and a novelty number which they called "Bingo." The crowd clamored for more and the trio sang as an encore "Get On Board."

Mr. Woolley presented Francis M. Dwight, who introduced the after dinner speaker.

Mr. Seawell, who gained statewide fame as a speaker during last fall's campaign when he was candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, thanked Mr. Dwight for his "kind, highly exaggerated and scandalous remarks," and set the house in an uproar as he read flowery introductions which he said were used during the campaign and from which Mr. Dwight might get some pointers.

To set the minds of his hearers at ease, he declared that he would not speak on "Potentialities of the Eisenhower Administration," would not quote from the Reader's Digest, nor would he use the subject "World Federation and Everlasting Peace." He took as his topic "Folks," and with that announcement launched forth on a round of anecdotes that kept the crowd highly entertained for an hour.

In closing, he hit a serious vein for a very short time, during which he pointed up, not religion, but Jesus, and the quiet of the room was as noticeable as the previous waves of laughter.

A sumptuous dinner was served from flower bedecked tables.

The banquet committee was composed of A. G. Edwards, James I. Lawson, L. D. Jones, L. Russell McRae, Alden G. Bower, Albert B. Sally and Joe C. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Smith, worthy patron and worthy matron of Magnolia Chapter 26, OES, Mrs. Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., Mrs. Sidney Windham and a number of others were present.

A popular feature of the program was music by The Sandhillers—Dr. Bruce Warlick, Bill Benson and Tom Howerton, who sang "Lindy Lou," "Are You From Dixie?," "I Want a Girl," "When You Were A Tulip," and a novelty number which they called "Bingo." The crowd clamored for more and the trio sang as an encore "Get On Board."

Mr. Woolley presented Francis M. Dwight, who introduced the after dinner speaker.

Mr. Seawell, who gained statewide fame as a speaker during last fall's campaign when he was candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, thanked Mr. Dwight for his "kind, highly exaggerated and scandalous remarks," and set the house in an uproar as he read flowery introductions which he said were used during the campaign and from which Mr. Dwight might get some pointers.

To set the minds of his hearers at ease, he declared that he would not speak on "Potentialities of the Eisenhower Administration," would not quote from the Reader's Digest, nor would he use the subject "World Federation and Everlasting Peace." He took as his topic "Folks," and with that announcement launched forth on a round of anecdotes that kept the crowd highly entertained for an hour.

In closing, he hit a serious vein for a very short time, during which he pointed up, not religion, but Jesus, and the quiet of the room was as noticeable as the previous waves of laughter.

A sumptuous dinner was served from flower bedecked tables.

The banquet committee was composed of A. G. Edwards, James I. Lawson, L. D. Jones, L. Russell McRae, Alden G. Bower, Albert B. Sally and Joe C. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Smith, worthy patron and worthy matron of Magnolia Chapter 26, OES, Mrs. Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., Mrs. Sidney Windham and a number of others were present.

A popular feature of the program was music by The Sandhillers—Dr. Bruce Warlick, Bill Benson and Tom Howerton, who sang "Lindy Lou," "Are You From Dixie?," "I Want a Girl," "When You Were A Tulip," and a novelty number which they called "Bingo." The crowd clamored for more and the trio sang as an encore "Get On Board."

Mr. Woolley presented Francis M. Dwight, who introduced the after dinner speaker.

Mr. Seawell, who gained statewide fame as a speaker during last fall's campaign when he was candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, thanked Mr. Dwight for his "kind, highly exaggerated and scandalous remarks," and set the house in an uproar as he read flowery introductions which he said were used during the campaign and from which Mr. Dwight might get some pointers.

To set the minds of his hearers at ease, he declared that he would not speak on "Potentialities of the Eisenhower Administration," would not quote from the Reader's Digest, nor would he use the subject "World Federation and Everlasting Peace." He took as his topic "Folks," and with that announcement launched forth on a round of anecdotes that kept the crowd highly entertained for an hour.

In closing, he hit a serious vein for a very short time, during which he pointed up, not religion, but Jesus, and the quiet of the room was as noticeable as the previous waves of laughter.

A sumptuous dinner was served from flower bedecked tables.

The banquet committee was composed of A. G. Edwards, James I. Lawson, L. D. Jones, L. Russell McRae, Alden G. Bower, Albert B. Sally and Joe C. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Smith, worthy patron and worthy matron of Magnolia Chapter 26, OES, Mrs. Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., Mrs. Sidney Windham and a number of others were present.

A popular feature of the program was music by The Sandhillers—Dr. Bruce Warlick, Bill Benson and Tom Howerton, who sang "Lindy Lou," "Are You From Dixie?," "I Want a Girl," "When You Were A Tulip," and a novelty number which they called "Bingo." The crowd clamored for more and the trio sang as an encore "Get On Board."

Mr. Woolley presented Francis M. Dwight, who introduced the after dinner speaker.

Mr. Seawell, who gained statewide fame as a speaker during last fall's campaign when he was candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, thanked Mr. Dwight for his "kind, highly exaggerated and scandalous remarks," and set the house in an uproar as he read flowery introductions which he said were used during the campaign and from which Mr. Dwight might get some pointers.

To set the minds of his hearers at ease, he declared that he would not speak on "Potentialities of the Eisenhower Administration," would not quote from the Reader's Digest, nor would he use the subject "World Federation and Everlasting Peace." He took as his topic "Folks," and with that announcement launched forth on a round of anecdotes that kept the crowd highly entertained for an hour.

In closing, he hit a serious vein for a very short time, during which he pointed up, not religion, but Jesus, and the quiet of the room was as noticeable as the previous waves of laughter.

A sumptuous dinner was served from flower bedecked tables.

The banquet committee was composed of A. G. Edwards, James I. Lawson, L. D. Jones, L. Russell McRae, Alden G. Bower, Albert B. Sally and Joe C. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Smith, worthy patron and worthy matron of Magnolia Chapter 26, OES, Mrs. Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., Mrs. Sidney Windham and a number of others were present.

A popular feature of the program was music by The Sandhillers—Dr. Bruce Warlick, Bill Benson and Tom Howerton, who sang "Lindy Lou," "Are You From Dixie?," "I Want a Girl," "When You Were A Tulip," and a novelty number which they called "Bingo." The crowd clamored for more and the trio sang as an encore "Get On Board."

RY BLUE CAMERON of Carthage, an outstanding student at Pineland college, Salem, was recently chosen a member of the 1953 May Court at Pineland. Her photograph was among those mailed to Jeff Chandler, Hollywood movie star, for selection of a May Queen and Maid of Honor. Miss Cameron is the daughter of Mrs. Martha Cameron, a member of the Pineland College staff, and W. L. Cameron of Vass. May Day will occur at Pineland Saturday, May 9.

LOOKING AHEAD . . .

LEGION AUXILIARY
The American Legion Auxiliary will meet next week at the home of Mrs. L. A. Des Pland at 8 p. m. Thursday, instead of Tuesday.

FELLOWSHIP FORUM
The Southern Pines High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Winifred Bodie, will present a musical program at the 8 p. m. meeting of the Fellowship Forum at the Church of Wide Fellowship Sunday.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB
The Junior Woman's club will meet at the Community Center at 8 p. m. Tuesday. Officers will be installed by Miss Vivian Oliver of Sanford. Mrs. Ernest Ives will speak on "Early American History."

LEARN MORE CLASS
The Learn More Bible class will meet at the home of Mrs. E. B. McDonald in Pinedene, at 8 p. m. Monday.

MOTHERS CLUB
The Mothers club will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Community Center. The Rev. Charles V. Covell will review Constance Foster's "Fathers Are Parents, Too." Husbands of club members will be guests at the meeting.

BIRD CLUB
Weather permitting, the Bird Club and any guests who care to attend will go by automobile for a short field trip next Tuesday morning, starting at 9 o'clock from 160 South Bennett street.

DAR MEETING
Mrs. Harold A. Collins and Mrs. L. A. Des Pland will be hostesses to the Alfred Moore Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at 2:30 tomorrow (Saturday) at Pickridge, home of Mrs. Collins, on Youngs road.

OFFICERS' WIVES CLUB
The USAFAGOS Officers' Wives club will hold a social meeting at the Highland Pines Inn at 1:00 p. m. next Wednesday. For reservations call Mrs. Louie Money, 2-4594, or Mrs. Edward Hafner, 2-6602, hostesses for the meeting.

Miss Helen Reid Honors Mrs. Dunn

Miss Helen Reid was hostess at a luncheon at the Belvedere hotel Tuesday honoring Mrs. James Dunn of Providence, R. I., on the occasion of her birthday. Guests included Mrs. Dunn's mother, Mrs. James Warman, Mrs. Lewis Shields, Mrs. Charles Carson and Mrs. Franier.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Johnson and daughters, Wendy and Sally B., of Westport, Conn., arrived Tuesday to spend two weeks with Mr. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Ralph K. Trix, and Mr. Trix at their home on Highland road.

Currie Smith and son Donnie of Florence, S. C., spent Wednesday in town.

Miss Amelia Wilcox of Washington, D. C., was the weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter Harper, and family. Her roommate was with her.

Miss Jeanne Overton has returned to the University of South Carolina at Columbia after an Easter holiday visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Overton.

GARDEN TOUR

and cupboards that turned the sunny home into a housekeeper's dream.

Hostesses at the Marshes' were Mrs. A. R. McDaniel, Mrs. Donald G. Case, Mrs. Charles Covell, Mrs. J. W. Allen, Mrs. J. W. Neal, Mrs. Sherwood Brockwell and Mrs. F. E. Wurzbacher, Jr.

Walking through neighboring driveways, the way led through the ivy-draped gate of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McBride. Here coolness and quiet reigned in the spacious house, wit hits lawn stretching into the woodlands, dotted with flowering azaleas and dogwoods. The terrace proved a favorite spot. Mrs. Charles E. Crowell, Mrs. Voit Gilmore, Mrs. Thomas Darst and Mrs. Claude Reams helped the hostess receive the guests.

Extensive View
Up on the ridge, the fine view from the terrace of Mr. and Mrs. George Jenks evoked much admiration. The eye traveled from the flowering shrubs and flowerbeds of the foreground out over the countryside for an unobstructed view to the horizon. Mrs. Katherine McColl, Mrs. A. H. Grant, Mrs. Fred Howland, Miss Ellen Maurice, and Mrs. William Wright received with the hostess. Several of these ladies escorted the guests, on leaving, along the neighboring terraces of the Grant, Howland and B. F. Kraffert homes, not actually included in the tour, with lovely near and far views.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Campbell, Mrs. Campbell had, receiving with her, Mrs. E. C. Stevens and Mrs. R. M. McMillan. The house was full of spring flowers arranged informally. Brightening the dining-room table were the jewel-like colors of a great bunch of Japanese anemones, their beauty reflected in a similar arrangement on the mantel.

At Mrs. Audrey Kennedy's, the plantings of azaleas in thick profusion along the garden side of the house and stretching down into the pines, were the chief attractions. The thick plantings of pansies, lilies, iberis and tulips brought the garden onto the terrace and, it seemed, right into the house through the great picture window. Guests who went through the formally decorated interior, furnished with French and Chinese period furniture, were escorted by the hostess, Mrs. Kennedy, or one of her helpers, Mrs. John Ostrom, Mrs. George Leonard, Mrs. John Ponzer, and Miss Laura Kelsey.

At Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ives' cabin on Paint Hill, Mrs. Thomas Pearsall of Rocky Mount and Mrs. William G. McBryde, Jr., of Gibson, helped to receive the guests. The old log cabin, moved to its present location from near Mt. Gilead, opened its batten doors to the host of visitors, admiring the authentic pine and walnut furniture, rush mats on the porch, and the arrangements of native flowers and shrubs.

With modernity the note at the Midland Road home of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Hollister, the tour came to an end. Guests enjoyed the effect of the planting of dogwoods and blooming shrubs as seen through the big living-room window that opens on the patio. Mrs. Hollister's spic-and-span kitchen, with its latest gadgets, and the comfortable game-room came in for much comment. Here Mrs. Hoke Pollock, Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Lamont Brown, and Mrs. C. N. Von Tacky received with the hostess.

"Finer Carolina" Show At Pinebluff Tuesday Evening

Pinebluff, as a winner of a $100 honorable mention in the Finer Carolina contest, will be host to the Carolina Power & Light Co. sponsored "Finer Carolina" radio show Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the downstairs auditorium of the Pinebluff Methodist church.

Fred Fletcher will be master of ceremonies for the one-hour program which will feature Bob and Mary Bird, a singing team; David Witherspoon, tenor; and Bob Sawyer at the organ.

High spot of the program will be an interview with E. H. Mills, who was the 1952 chairman of the Pinebluff steering committee for the Finer Carolina contest. Mr. Mills will tell about several of the projects which helped the town win its prize last year and, as re-elected chairman for 1953, will give several hints as to how he plans to spark his community to even greater rewards in the 1953 phase of the contest. Pinebluff is in the less-than-1,000 population group of competing communities.

There will be no admission charge and the Carolina Power & Light company is inviting everyone interested in a Finer Carolina to attend the program.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fleming of Cynwyd, Pa., spent several days this week vacationing here, guests at Braeburn Hall.

General Marshall, Mrs. Ives Named On Flora Macdonald Convocation Program

The largest crowd ever to throng the campus of Flora Macdonald college at Red Springs is expected there next weekend for the Convocation celebrating the 60th anniversary of the founding of the college, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 17, 18 and 19.

The roster of distinguished speakers on the full program is headed by General George C. Marshall, who is now at his winter home at Pinehurst, and Mrs. Ernest L. Ives of Southern Pines.

General Marshall will speak at a dinner meeting for business and professional men, merchants and farmers, to be held Saturday evening. Preceding him on the program will be a talk by Dr. Marshall F. Woodson, president of the college, and music by the 200-voice Red Springs choir, also the college glee club.

Mrs. Ives will speak Sunday at 3:30 p. m. on "The Christian Woman in the World Today."

Others on the program include Congressman Walter H. Judd of Minnesota; Robert M. Hanes, president of the Wachovia Bank and Trust Co.; Dr. Clarence Edward Macartney, General Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the United States; and Norman Coridon, director of the North Carolina music program, University of North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Keith and family of Cameron, Rt. 1, visited Mrs. J. W. Atkinson Sunday.

Mrs. Graham Culbreth returned home from Moore County hospital Monday. She is getting along well, but is taking it easy at home, sitting up a little each day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Warman have as their guests at the Mayfair apartments Mrs. Warman's daughter, Mrs. James Dunn, with her son James, and Billy Walsh, Jr., all of Providence, R. I.

Mrs. H. W. Dorn, with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Braswell, went to Bailey for the Easter weekend to visit relatives. She attended Easter services and on Monday was present when her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Finch of Spring Hope, observed their silver wedding anniversary.

DRUG SERVICE

It Always Takes Two

Your physician and your pharmacist are a professional "team" with just one aim: the protection of your health. Your physician skillfully diagnoses and prescribes. Your pharmacist fills your prescription with the utmost precision.

WE WILL BE OPEN
SUNDAY, APRIL 12th
9:00 - 7:00

Sandhill Drug Company

PRESCRIPTION SPECIALISTS
Telephone 2-6663 Southern Pines, N. C.
Southern Pines

straight from smart Bermuda . . .

comfortable DENIM in new colorings and styles

DENIM DUDS by PURITAN

FIRST MATE Sailing Jacket with the patented one-piece action back for complete freedom. 495

CREW Striped Boxer Swim Trunk 295

You won't believe the unusual new things Puritan has done with denim till you see our new collection of distinctive Denim Duds. The styles are original, the colors are different, and the fabric is soft and comfortable. Choose from familiar solids or new stripes in a complete range of sizes, and remember . . . to wash, just drop sanforized Denim Duds into your "Wandix" . . . and take life easy!

Other Shirts $2.95 up
Slacks $4.95 up

Patch's Tog Shop

Sports Center of the Sandhills
Tel. 2-8111 Southern Pines, N. C.