Lions' Officers Installed Friday At Dinner Meeting

New Member With Fine Record Is Welcomed Into Club

New officers of the Southern Pines Lions club, who were elected June 12, were installed last Friday evening at a dinner meeting held at the Southern Pines Country club.

Installing officer, and a special guest at the meeting, was District Governor-Elect J. D. Peacock, of Lumberton, who spoke to each officer individually in the course of the induction, explaining his duties and obligations and securing his pledge to be worthy of the trust.

Installed were: Dr. David W. Whitehead, president; David Gamble, Bill Benson, Don Traylor, vice-president; Bob Arey, secretary-treasurer; Jas. Clayton, lion tamer; Henry Clayton, tail twister; W. L. Baker, Russell Mills, directors for two-year terms; Elliott Shearon, H. M. Patterson, directors for one-year terms.

Following the installation Lion President Whitehead announced the appointment of the following chairmen of standing committees:

Don Traylor, attendance; Fred Chappell, constitution and by-laws; Willis B. Rush, finance; Charles Cole, Lions information; Elliott Shearon, publicity; W. L. Baker, membership; David W. Gamble, convention; Russell Mills, program; B. F. Godwin, citizenship and patriotism; Douglas F. Rowe, agricultural; Bill Benson, boys' and girls' work; H. M. Patterson, civic improvement; Henry Clayton, community betterment; S. B. Richardson, education; W. B. Gouger, health and welfare; John N. Stringfellow, safety; D. W. Whitehead, sight conservation and work among the blind; James Clayton, United Nations; Walter F. Harper, greeter.

J. Walter Mills, Jr., was welcomed as a transfer from the Carrboro club, where he had continued his Lion membership while living at Chapel Hill. Mr. Mills was previously a member of the Oak Ridge (Tenn.) Lions club, where he served in a succession of offices—assistant tail twister, tail twister, vice-president and president. He has a record of more than six years of perfect attendance. He is living in Southern Pines while supervising a large construction project at Fort Bragg.
