WELCOME

WELCOME SERGEANT BRADFORD

VOL. 34-NO. 43

SIXTEEN PAGES

SOUTHERN PINES, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1953

SIXTEEN PAGES

PRICE-TEN CENTS

Lennon Thinks Party Will Win In '54, '56

Young Democrats of the 8th sent his greetings through Mr. tor Alton A. Lennon who, in turn, 8th District YDC, presided. said he had never observed a Predicting Democratic victories finer demonstration of party loy- in 1954 and 1956, Senator Lennon dent at the rally here.

deen. Lennon's speech was pre- presidential candidate. ceded by lively remarks from John Lang of Carthage, secretary again," the senator predicted. He to Congressman C. B. Deane who (Continued on Page 8)

Congressional District, gathered Lang. Many Democratic notables 215-strong at the Southern Pines from Moore and other counties of Country club Saturday night gave the district were introduced. Al a rousing reception to U.S. Sena- Cruce of Aberdeen, chairman of alty or solidarity than was evi-, drew prolonged applause when he lauded the "political honesty and The senator was introduced by great moral leadership" of Adlai Rep. H. Clifton Blue, of Aber- E. Stevenson, 1952 Democratic

"I believe he will be our leader

HAPPY SMILES were registered by Senator Alton A. Lennon, right, and Al Cruce of Aberdeen, 8th district Young Democrats chairman, at the YDC rally held here Saturday night. It was the senator's first visit to Southern Pines since his appoint-(Pilot Staff Photo)

Southern Pines Beats Ellerbe, 40-6, In Opening Game of 1953

Fans Pleased With Performance of Blue

By JIM HATCH

In the tradition of the familiar blue and white team, the local boys chalked up their first victory of the season as Ellerbe bowed in defeat 40-6 at Memorial field the score rose to 16-0. Wednesday. Hopes for more viccories ride high with every specred and gold of the visitors. 1st Quarter

Southern Pines, won the toss and elected to receive. Ellerbe kicked off and Southern Pines returned to the 34 yard line. From the 34 the Blue and White team rolled to the 16 yard line and from here Bill Cox, a sophomore, carried the ball over for the first local tally. The score then stood at 6-0. Tommy Ruggles was called on to kick and did so in gridiron fashion as the point was good and the score came to 8-0 in favor of Southern Pines.

On the kick off from Southern Pines, Ellerbe returned the pigskin to the Southern Pines 16, but was forced to punt. The blue and white then took over, but fumbled the ball. Ellerbe then started a passing attack that was good for

Ground Observer Corps Unit Being Organized Here

With L. V. O'Callaghan, Jr., as post supervisor, a unit of the Ground Observer Corps, is being set up in Southern Pines. Harry Chatfield is head observer of the group which is now seeking 25 or more volunteers to take part in periodic practice in spotting planes to be reported to the Charlotte Filter Center of the Air Force warning system. made to obtain a suitable obser- bomber pilot, is home after near- sions in F-80 and F-86 fighter mitted for the approval or rejecvation post near Southern Pines. ly a year of combat operations in bombers last month. For his tion of the group. At a meeting Tuesday night, Ser- Korea. geant Allen of the Charlotte Filter Center, explained the program. slipped into Southern Pines, Flying Cross and the Air Medal of Dr. Robert Lee House last Jan-Plans are to get an active organization here ready to take part in an operation September 20. part in the program are asked to finished his journey to Southern bons, the Korean Service Medal days to resume his studies at the get in touch with Mr. O'Calla- Pines by train from Raleigh. ghan. At least 20 additional volunteers are needed, he said.

two downs. On their third pass try, James Humphrey a rising about August 1. ophomore, came from his quar ter-back position and intercepted tournament were: the pass and raced from his 10 the length of the field for another ed Perry Frye, 5 and 4. Blue and White tally. The score then stood at 14-0 in favor of the defeated Joe Montesanti, Jr., locals. Ruggles' kick was good and and 1.

(Continued on page 8)

Proclamation

WHEREAS Henry Bradford has served our country patriotically, faithfully, and courageously,

WHEREAS Henry Bradford has proven himself to be a credit

WHEREAS Henry Bradford has been a prisoner by an enemy of this country away from his family and friends of Southern

WHEREAS as Mayor of Southern Pines, I want to express for all the citizens of Southern Pines our sincere appreciation for his contribution to the cause of liberty and to the greatness of South-

I HEREBY DECLARE Monday, September 14, 1953, to be Henry Bradford Day in Southern Pines.

LLOYD T. CLARK, Mayor Town of Southern Pines.

Vass Textron Plant Closes, 90 Workers Lose Their Jobs

Company Says Plant 'Too Remote'; Offers Everything For Sale

Rumors that the shut-down late ast week of the Textron plant in of the Vass plant from others area. owned by the company.

full, is as follows:

be discontinued promptly. The plant is being closed because of Town's Oldest Industry

Harold Collins New Club Champ

champion when he defeated James Besley 3 and 2.

Play in the championship tournament ended Labor Day, after having been under way since

Results in other flights of the First flight-Joe Carter defeat-

Second flight — Tom Shockley

Third flight—James Townshend defeated Bob Strouse, 3 and 2.

tator who saw the manner in which the local team defeated the Lt. Wyndham Clarke, Fighter-Bomber Pilot, Home After Combat In Korea

LIEUTENANT CLARKE IN KOREA

Negotiations are now being Clarke, 23-year-old jet fighter- ted his "tour" of 100 combat mis- pastor for the church will be sub-

Persons interested in taking at Raleigh-Durham airport and Presidential Unit Citation rib- be leaving after two more Sun-

Louise Bowman and the late Lee

First Lieutenant Wyndham Clarke who died in 1940, comple- recommendation concerning a achievements in the air he has The ruddy, solid young officer been awarded the Distinguished a regular pastor since the death where he graduated from high with four clusters—the equiva- uary. The Rev. Royall Davis, who school in 1948, almost unnoticed lent of five air medal awards. He has been serving as interim pas-Monday. He had arrived by air also wears the U. S. and Korean tor since the middle of June, will its remoteness from other company plants.

(Continued on page 8)

by other existing plants of the tions. company, which will assure improvement in quality as well as Vass might be permanent were operating economies. This is one confirmed by a formal statement step in a program involving a massued from Anderson, S. C., jor revamping and modernization Tuesday by R. M. Cushman, vice- operations. This program calls for of the company's spun synthetic ty. president of Textron, Inc., who installation of new equipment in gave as the reason the remoteness plants in the Anderson, S. C.,

"The Vass plant is a spinning Mr. Cushman's statement, in mill suitable for manufacturing synthetic or cotton yarns. It is be-"R. M. Cushman, vice president ing offered for sale either with of Textron, Inc., announces that or without the machinery. It is operation of the Vass mill at hoped that an early sale can be Vass, employing 90 people, will arranged so that operations there can be resumed at an early date."

> This plant was the Vass Cotton Mill before its sale in February 1952 to Textron Southern, Inc., and was the town's oldest industry and largest employer.

Harold Collins became the new on, the company was incorporated on the result of the first one of the first o Founded by the late A. Cameroperation in 1910, for the manufacture of cotton yarns.

Originally owned by a large number of stockholders, at the time of the sale the entire proprty, consisting of factory units, was owned by the founder's son and daughters, A. M. Cameron, Mrs. W. C. Leslie, Mrs. W. B. Graham, Mrs. C. J. Temple, Mrs. H. A. Borst and Mrs. C. L. Tyson, all of Vass, and Mrs. W. D. Matthews of Southern Pines.

R. B. Gunn has been manager of the plant since its purchase by Bragg, obtained through cooperatextron, Inc., and it is understood tion of USAF Air-Ground school that he is being transferred to Puerto Rico.

dence in Vass, have been active setts, west to Broad street, north in the life of the community. Mr. on the east side of Broad street Gunn was elected a town commistory to Vermont avenue, cross the railsioner in the last election, and he road, march south on the west is president of the Vass Lions side of Broad street to Massachu-

Mrs. Gunn is a member of the Vass Woman's club and was in- avenue opposite the post office strumental in organizing a Brownie troop, for which she served as leader, with the club as sponsoring organization. They attended the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Gunn and daughters, Carline and Barbara, left several days ago to visit relatives in St. Augustine, Fla. Mr. Gunn remained in Vass until Wednesday afternoon, when he left for Florida. The family is scheduled to go to Puerto Rico tomorrow (Saturday).

Pulpit Committee Will Make Report To Church Tonight

The Pulpit committee of the Church of Wide Fellowship, of which Amos C. Dawson and Tom Shockley are co-chairmen, has called a meeting of the congregation for 8 o'clock tonight (Friday) in the new educational building, at which time the committee's

The church has been without Pines by train from Raleigh.

Lieutenant Clarke, son of Mrs. United Nations service ribbon.

With three battle stars and the University of Chicago. He will receive his Ph. D. degree at the receive his Ph. D. degree at the end of another year.

Sgt. Henry Bradford, Released Korean War Prisoner, Arrives; 'Bradford Day' Set For Monday

Parade, Talks, Chicken Fry, Dance Slated

Sergeant Henry Bradford, forner Southern Pines police officer who spent more than three years as a prisoner of the Communists in Korea, was to arrive home Thursday afternoon.

His arrival precedes by three days a Henry Bradford Day celebration proclaimed by Mayor Lloyd T. Clark and sponsored by the John Boyd Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars with assistance of "Its products will be handled other individuals and organiza-

> It's going to be a great welcome for a man whose fate in far-off Korea has been followed with never-ceasing anxiety by his family and friends in this communi-

The sergeant's wife, Mrs. Cleecy Renegar Bradford,, his daughters, Gail, 14, and Idalou (Tinkie), 4, Mrs. Bradford's mother, Mrs. J. C. Renegar, and brother, Elmer Renegar, with other relatives and friends, went to Fayetteville Thursday morning to meet the sergeant. As The Pilot. went to press Thursday after-noon, it was learned that his arrival time by air from San Francisco had been moved 📪 to 3:50 p. m. from an expected 11:45 a. m., meaning that the party would probably arrive in Southern Pines late Thursday afternoon.

Bradford Day Program Here are highlights of the Bradford Day program Monday: 5 p. m.—The fire siren will sound a full minute's blast as signal that events of the celebration are beginning. Merchants and offices have ing, warehouses and 33 housing Commerce and the sponsoring been urged by the Chamber of committee to close their establishments at that time, allowing all employees to attend the late afternoon program events.

A parade will form at the corner of Ashe street and New York avenue, led by the 42-piece 18th Corps military band from Fort here.

The parade will march south on The Gunns, during their resi- New York avenue to Massachusetts and from there return to the

THE REV. DAVID HOKE COON, newly arrived pastor of the First Baptist church, came to Southern Pines from Salisbury where he had been associate pastor and then interim pastor of the First Baptist church there. A native of Bessemer City, he has degrees from Catawba college and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky. His wife is the former Cherry Cabell of Salisbury.

745 S. Bennett street, is shown here with one of his pastel paintings-a view of the old Shaw House-now on exhibit in the Southern Pines library. A total of 12 paintings and a number of sketches comprise the show. Pastel painting is Skipper's favorite medium and the Shaw House painting is the one in the exhibit he says he likes best. (Pilot Staff Photo)

BRADFORD TAGS

Tags for the Henry Bradford Day celebration will be sold, featuring the picture of the returned prisoner of the Communists.

Priced at $1, a tag will admit the bearer to a chicken fry to be held outdoors at the Elks club Monday, starting at 6:30 p. m. A tag will also admit bearer to a dance there

Monday night. Children under school age will be admitted free to the chicken fry, where the Bradhonor, to encourage making it a family affair. Joe Garzik and Harry Chatfield, Rotary Club members working with the Bradford Day committee, are in charge of tag sales, assisted by Mrs. Valerie Nicholson.

No tag is required for the big public parade and gift presentation at the VFW Post Home Monday. All funds from tag sales not used in meeting expenses will be turned over to Sgt. Bradford.

for the official welcome by Mayor

Brig. Gen. W. M. Gross, commandant of the Air-Ground been carried on the Moore county VFW Post Home on New York school, will speak on behalf of prisoner list, because his home avenue opposite the post office the armed services as part of the town was listed as Yadkinville. official welcome.

Speeches will be made from the porch of the VFW Post Home. Frye Released New York avenue, in the block between Broad street and Ben- On Next-To-Last nett street, will be roped off.

Sgt. Bradford is expected to ride in the parade in a convert- Prisoner List

Colors and standards of the VFW post will be carried. All organizations such as Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and any other marching units are invited change of one of the trio, Master to take part.

tor of the First Baptist church of next to last day of the operation. which Sgt. Bradford was a faithful member while he lived in Southern Pines, will offer prayer during the program at the VFW

Presentation of gifts to Sgt. Bradford will be made at that Mrs. Theodore Frye of Carthage,

Music will be furnished by the 18th Corps band who will be seated on the lawn. The program will not last later than 6:30 p. m. At 6:30 there will be a chicken fry at the Elks club on the former Southern Pines Country club property. Morris Johnson, manager of the Elks club, is in charge of arrangements, Bradford Day tags will admit any one to the chicken fry and also to a dance to

W. Harry Fullenwider, chairman of the board of trustees, have offered full cooperation of the club (Continued on Page 8)

Sgt. Harrison, Former Resident, Freed In Korea

Among the last prisoners released in Korea, The Pilot learned this week, was Sgt. David Harrison who, with his wife, lived in Southern Pines at the home of Clyde Morrison, 415 W. Vermont avenue. while he was stationed at Fort Bragg before he went overseas.

Sgt. and Mrs. Harrison and their baby expected to return to Southern Pines to make their home. Mrs. Harrison has been living at Yadkinville, her native town.

While Sgt. Harrison will probably not be back in the United States in time to take part in the Bradford Day celebration here Monday, George Nanopoulos, post service officer of the VFW here, has extended an invitation to Mrs. Harrison and their young child to be guest of the post for Bradford Day. Mr. and Mrs. Nanopoulos have invited her to be their house guest while in Southern Pines.

Sgt. Harrison had previously been reported only as missing. His wife did not know he was a prisoner until she received word of his release. Sgt. Harrison has not

All three of Moore county's known prisoners of war were exchanged before "Operation Big Switch" ended Sunday-but ex-Sergeant Gentry T. Frye of near The Rev. David Hoke Coon, pas- Carthage, had to wait until the Frye's name was on Saturday's list, with the rank of master sergeant. The Pilot has been listing him as sergeant first class, according to previously received information. He is the son of Mr. and Route 1. The family lives out of Carthage toward West End.

Previously exchanged were Sgt. Henry Bradford of Southern Pines and Pfc. Arthur McDufffe of Biscoe, route 1, whose home is in Moore county near the Montgomery county line. Pfc. McDuffie landed in San Francisco Saturday and was expected home this week.

in planning the supper and dance. Music at the dance will be furnished by a local quartet dance follow at the Elks club at 9 p. m. combination composed of Buster (See story on front page of today's Pilot for details)

C. N. Page, chairman of the Elks Club house committee, and Elks Club house committee, and Spent Wakeful Night