Robinson-Crabtree Wedding Vows Said

Miss Myrtle Crabtree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Calvin Crabtree of Vass, and Pfc. Andrew Robinson of Fort Bragg, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robinson of Concord, were married in Chesterfield, S. C., last Saturday afternoon, October 17, by a probate judge.

The couple had planned to be married later in the fall, but changed their plans, due to the fact that Private Robinson is to go to Georgia on maneuvers.

The bride is a graduate of Vass-Lakeview High school.

Junior Women's Club Holds Busy Session

The Southern Pines Junior Women's club met Tuesday night of last week at the community center, with Mrs. Joe Marley and Mrs. C. K. Ligon as hostesses.

Mrs. L. Harris Coley, Jr., club president, presided over a business session during which much planning was done. The group voted to give a $100 scholarship to a deserving senior, also to send a $25 donation to the Children's Home Society in Greensboro.

In lieu of a regular program, Mr. Coley showed color slides of a fashion show held by the club at its September meeting. The show, staged on Patch's second floor with the cooperation of Manager Earle Owen, featured various types of new fall apparel, with several club members and friends serving as models. Seeing it over again on the screen was found to be almost as interesting as the original show.

The hostesses served cake and coffee.

Presbyterian Women Elect Officers

Brown Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church met in monthly session at the church Monday night, with a program and the election of officers highlighting the meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. Harold McNeill.

Mrs. A. H. Grant presented the program "My Church And the South Today." Mrs. Joe Steed sang Dvorak's "Down de Road," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Joe Thomas.

Mrs. Howard N. Butler, chairman of the Nominating committee, presented the following slate of officers which was duly elected: president-elect (to take office January 1955), Mrs. George Heintz; vice-president, Mrs. Melvin Johnson; treasurer, Mrs. L. L. Woolley; secretary, Mrs. Clifford M. Storey; chairmen—Annuitants and Relief, Mrs. Hal Adams; Church Extension, Mrs. Howard N. Butler; Stewardship, Mrs. Dan R. McNeill; Social Activities, Mrs. A. L. Burney.

New officers will be installed at the December meeting, for the new church year beginning in January.

Continuing their second year in office are: president, Mrs. Howard McNeill; historian, Mrs. A. W. McNeill; chairmen—Spiritual Growth, Mrs. A. H. Grant; Education, Mrs. Walter F. Harper; Assembly's Causes, Mrs. James Pleasants; World Missions, Mrs. George Heintz; Pastor's Aid, Mrs. Joe Marley.

Attend Church Meeting

Thomas C. Darst, Jr., Elmer Davis, Edwin Schneider, Miss Louise Haynes and the Rev. C. V. Covell, of Emmanuel Episcopal church, were in Sanford Wednesday to attend a meeting at St. Thomas church under sponsorship of the Department of Promotion of the Episcopal diocese of which the Rev. Tom Fraser is chairman. Speakers in addition to Mr. Fraser, were Bishops Penick and Baker.

Honored On Golden Wedding

THE REV. AND MRS. W. H. BROWN of Jackson Springs were honored on their Golden Wedding anniversary at a reception in the recreation building of the West End Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, October 11. Sponsored by the women of the church, the event was attended by scores of friends of the popular couple. Mr. Brown is 79 and his wife, 77. On hand for the occasion were W. A. Bivens, associate editor of the High Point Enterprise, who was best man at the wedding 50 years ago, and the couple's son and daughter, W. H. Brown of Shelby and Mrs. J. R. Warren of High Point.

The room was decorated attractively for the occasion. One table was centered with a lavishly decorated wedding cake and another held many gifts for the couple.

The Browns were married when he was on his first charge as a Methodist minister, at Plymouth. He is a native of Louisiana, and she is from Elizabeth City, the former Miss Mary Elizabeth Hinton.

The Rev. Mr. Brown organized the West End Methodist church and has served as its pastor on three separate occasions. He was serving as pastor of the Methodist church in Aberdeen when the West End church was organized in 1914. He was the last minister to preach in the old church at Aberdeen and the first to serve the present Page Memorial, also the first to live in the parsonage at Aberdeen.
