Aberdeen Child Killed By Auto Driven By Father

Curtis Dale Nelson, three-year-old Aberdeen child, died at Moore County Hospital Sunday afternoon not long after he ran or fell under the wheel of an automobile driven by his father Dewitt Nelson, as the car was entering the yard of their home in Colonial Heights.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Aberdeen, conducted by the Rev. Eugene Deese, pastor. Interment was in the family plot at Bethesda Cemetery near Aberdeen.

Surviving are the parents; a three-month old brother, Rickie; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Nelson of Carthage; and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Murphy of Winnsboro, S. C.

Mr. Nelson was quoted as saying that the little boy was accustomed to run out of the house to greet him when the father drove into the yard. He said he heard the child call and looked toward the front door of the home. While he was looking that way, the child approached from another direction and somehow ran or fell in front of the car, one wheel passing over his body.

The family has lived in Aberdeen about four years. The accident took place about 2:15 p. m. Sunday and the child died within half an hour.
