

Pinebluff Library Meeting Is Held

Mrs. Lewis Marts was elected president of the Pinebluff Library association at the annual meeting held last Thursday evening at the library.

Also elected were two new directors, Mrs. Harvey Lathan and Mrs. Ehrman Pickler. Other directors are Mrs. Leon Wylie and

Mrs. Eutice Milles. Mrs. Timothy Cleary presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Leon Wylie gave the treasurer's report, read the minutes and also gave the annual librarian's report, which showed a total of 3,327 books loaned out during the year, to 1,571 patrons. The total of books loaned out included 1,550 juvenile works, 1,232 fiction and the remainder non-fiction.

Former Hotel Man Here Managing Michigan Inn

William E. Flynn, a former manager of The Highland Pines Inn here and a veteran in the hotel business, is manager of the newly opened Weathervane Inn at Charlevoix, Mich.

Opening of the establishment this month, with a photo of the attractive stone building, is described in an edition of the Charlevoix Courier which was shown to The Pilot by A. Montesanti, one of Mr. Flynn's old friends in Southern Pines.

Mr. Flynn is a former manager of the Inn Hotel and the Beach Hotel at Charlevoix. From the new Inn's dining room there is an unobstructed view of Lake Michigan which at this point flows through a channel into Round Lake and on into Lake Charlevoix.

Several clothing and gift shops adjoin the restaurant in the new building.

More and more shippers and sailing men are calling the North Carolina State Ports, "The Friendly Ports," because of the small but important services which are provided.
