Mr. Thompson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thompson of Southern Pines and Miss Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Clark of Markesan.

Miss Frances Schwartz Will Attend Wedding Of Niece In Virginia

Miss Frances Schwartz will leave Thursday of next week for Alexandria, Va., to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Mary Ann Swan. Miss Swan is to be married August 27 to Owen Lester Cornwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell of Alexandria. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Everett Swan, Jr., of Alexandria and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Hill Schwartz of Southern Pines. Following their marriage, the young couple will make their home in Alexandria.

Card Party Planned To Help Civic Club Out of Termite Trouble

Wednesday night of next week has been set as the date for a card party to benefit the Civic Club, which at present is having termite trouble. One of the members, who has long been active in all phases of the club's work, including the "open house" events through which hospitality is extended to all winter visitors who wish to accept it, has issued the following announcement:

"The Civic Club is not accustomed to putting on drives as other organizations do, but we would like your help. We have been able to have the club building painted on the outside this year, but we still have a mortgage, and now the termites want to take over. Won't you show your interest in the Club by coming to the card party Wednesday night, August 25, or sending a donation? For reservation phone 2-8224, or come anyway. Dessert served at 7:30."

MEETING AT PARSONAGE, METHODIST WOMEN MAKE PLANS TO ORGANIZE WSCS

In response to an invitation from the Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Whitley, a group of women met at the Methodist Parsonage on North Ashe Street Monday night to discuss the organization of a Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The Rev. Mr. Whitley presided over the meeting and introduced Mrs. H. W. Doub of Aberdeen, president of the Fayetteville District WSCS, who explained fully the workings of the organization and answered questions during a discussion period which followed her talk.

The women were enthusiastic and showed much interest in the plans for officially organizing on September 13. Mrs. J. S. Hiatt, Jr., was elected chairman of a nominating committee which is to present a slate of officers to be voted on at the next meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Ada Boaz on Maples Road.

Hors d'oeuvres and iced drinks were served by the hostess after the business session.

Present at the meeting were: Mrs. Doub, Mrs. Ada Boaz, Mrs. J. S. Hiatt, Jr., Mrs. Earl Hubbard, Mrs. Charles Fry, Mrs. Carolou Johnston, Mrs. J. A. Lowdermilk, Mrs. P. J. Russell, Mrs. James Springer, Mrs. Lynn Ledden, Mrs. James Whitley, and the Rev. and Mrs. Whitley.

Gilmore, Hollister Are At Home After Jamaica Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Voit Gilmore and daughters Katy and Gerry and Dr. and Mrs. William F. Hollister and son, Freddy, returned the first of the week from a delightful two weeks' island vacation.

They went to Jamaica by Pan American Airways on August 1 and were at the Casa Blanca hotel except for the last few days, which were spent in Kingston, the capital city. They did a lot of sailing on Montego Bay and swimming, and took side trips to points of special interest. They visited Port Antonio, and on another occasion carried a picnic lunch along and made a day of sightseeing at Ocho Rios. Another feature which they enjoyed very much was the Calypso music. The weather there was much cooler than here, due to the trade winds.

Klingenschmidts Meet At Pinebluff

The convention will be held at the Roosevelt Hotel.

MRS. CARRIE HIGGINS IS HONORED AT PARTY ON 89th BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Carrie Higgins, sister of H. A. Lewis, was honored at a birthday party given from 3 to 5 Wednesday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis at The Homestead to celebrate her 89th birthday. Mrs. Pauline Parker and Mrs. Nettie Ayers assisted in the arrangements and entertaining and Mrs. Parker was in charge of the guest register.

Flowers in profusion, many of them sent as gifts, decorated the rooms, and the honoree wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Lewis, who has been ill but was able to be up for the party, was wearing a corsage of red rosebuds.

A pink and blue motif was featured in the dining room, in decorations and refreshments. Mrs. William Heller, a niece of the honoree, cut the three-tiered birthday cake, which was frosted in white with pink decorations and bore the inscription: "Happy Birthday, Carrie!" Mrs. Heller's daughter, Miss Barbara Harrington, a great-niece of Mrs. Higgins, presided at the crystal punch bowl which was at the opposite end of the table. Mints and nuts also were served. Gifts were arranged on a table in the dining room, and Mrs. Higgins received many cards also, conveying congratulations and good wishes.

Mr. Lewis came to Southern Pines in 1915, his wife joined him the following year, and his sister has resided here for several years. They have many friends in Southern Pines, around 50 of whom were invited to attend the celebration.
