

Rotary To Stage Kids' Carnival Saturday Night

Annual Halloween Party To Be Held At Memorial Field

Halloween in Southern Pines again this year will be highlighted by the traditional carnival sponsored by the Rotary Club—a "safe and sane" observance that has proved popular for the past several years. Saturday night is the time for the event.

Place of the carnival this year is moved from downtown Southern Pines to the newly lighted Memorial Field on South Bennett St., affording more room and a safer and more suitable location for festivities.

Children will gather at the field about 7 p.m. and will take part in varied events, entertainment and costume judging, with prizes to be awarded by the club. A free movie for young folks will be given at the Carolina Theatre about 10 p.m.—after the regular evening show is over.

Johnnie Hall, Rotary president, is general chairman for the carnival, with most members of the club assigned to various committees. A. C. Dawson, Jr., school superintendent, will be master of ceremonies.

Rotary-Anns, wives of club members, will assist with numbers which are pinned on each child in costume to help in the judging.

A parade, sideshows and refreshments will again be featured on the program.

Aberdeen Girl Wins Miss Moore County's Crown

Georgia Anne Blue of Aberdeen was crowned "Miss Moore County High School of 1954" at the beauty contest held Wednesday night at the Moore County Fair at Carthage. Jane Carter of Carthage was runner-up.

A large crowd was present to witness the ceremony, in which the crown was placed on the new queen's head by Miss Betty Jo Ring of Lexington—"Miss North Carolina" of 1954.

The Carthage Jaycees, sponsors of the fair and the annual contest, gave a prize of $50 to the winner's high school, and $25 to the winning beauty herself. She was selected from a field of 22 contestants representing all the high schools of the county. Paul Blackman of Carthage was chairman of the contest, largest in the history of the event.

The fair will continue through Saturday. On Friday, Negro school children will be admitted free. There is a fire works display each night at 10:30.

The full list of entries in the contest follows:

Aberdeen High school, Georgia Ann Blue, Dovie Ann Pigg; Farm Life High school, Dixie Danley Joyce Miller; Cameron High school, Mary Ruth Comer, Joy Pridgen; Elise High school (Robbins), Annabel Ray, Barbara Lewis, Jimmie Ann Garner; West End High school, Margaret Monroe, Evelyn Seawell; Pinehurst (Continued on page 8)

PINEHURST GAME

Southern Pines High School Blue Knights face Pinehurst High's six-man football team at Memorial Field tonight (Friday), in a contest that will give them, if they win, both the county championship and a chance in the state Class A playoffs. Kickoff is 8 p.m.

The local boys went through stiff workouts this week and appeared in good condition for the crucial game. Pinehurst has been defeated once this year. Southern Pines played to a scoreless tie in one game but has not been defeated.

The Blue Knights outclassed Whitakers - Battleboro school for a 44-12 victory last Friday night here. Cox accounted for three of the local touchdowns, and Humphrey, Cline and Watkins each scored one. Humphrey kicked the four extra points.

PLANNING CAROUSEL—Several members of Southern Pines Golf Carousels get together at Mid Pines Club to make tournament plans and look over the grass on one of the greens to be used in the three-course tournament November 4-7. Kneeling are Julius Borm, Mid Pines pro and a member of the tournament advisory committee, with his little son, Nicky, at his side, and Chester Williams, tournament director. Standing, left to right, are Jack Younts, general chairman for the unique event, first of its kind to be held in this area; Miss Jean Cosgrove, a member of the tournament committee; and Robert E. Harlow of Pinehurst, member of the advisory committee and editor of "Golf World." (Photo by Humphrey)

'Carousel' Is Drawing Response From Golfers

Entries Include Group From Cuba; Starts Thursday

An excellent field is shaping up for the Southern Pines Golf Carousels, four-ball match play amateur tournament sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, to be held on the three local courses Thursday through Sunday, November 4-7.

All local golfers, both men and women, are cordially invited to play, said Chester I. Williams, tournament director. The package deal includes also several social events.

Among entries so far are Dillard Traynham, of Greenville, S. C., former South Carolina junior champion, and his partner Tom W. Kitchen, former champion of the Salisbury Country Club and a resident of Southern Pines about eight years ago. Two teams have entered from Havana, Cuba, and other entries have come in from a number of states.

The tournament is unique in

Local Men Hurt, One Seriously, In Truck Wreck

Two men were injured, one seriously, and a truck belonging to the Southern Pines Warehouses was practically demolished in an accident occurring Monday morning on a paved rural road, one mile east of Cameron.

The investigating patrolman reported that the truck, traveling west while en route to Gulf to pick up some poles, went off the road on a curve and overturned. Hubert Stanback, 30, the driver, was bruised and scratched, while a companion, John Terry, 22, was more seriously hurt.

Terry was taken to Lee County hospital in an unconscious condition. Further details of his condition have not been learned.

Both men are Negroes, residents of West Southern Pines. Damage to the 1953 Chevrolet truck, which was rated a total loss, was between $2,500 and $3,500. Stanback was arrested for careless and reckless driving and was cited to the November 8 term of recorders court.

that it offers three days of play over three separate courses—Mid Pines, Pine Needles and Southern Pines Country Club. Local members of these clubs may qualify over their home course, by teams, Saturday, Sunday or Wednesday, if they desire, after having first formally entered the tournament, then turning in their attested score card to their pro or club manager. Otherwise, they may start Thursday with the rest of the field, checking in at the club of their choice for the qualifying round. The flights will be rotated over the courses for the three days of match play.

A cocktail party for all players Thursday, a golf clinic Friday and a dance Saturday night will be held at the Pine Needles Country Club. Prizes will be awarded Sunday at the close of play, at the (Continued on Page 8)

Dr. Medlin Heads Newly Organized Dental Society

A Moore County Dental Society was organized at a meeting held Tuesday night at Dante's Restaurant.

Officers were elected as follows: Dr. E. M. Medlin, Aberdeen, president; Dr. R. B. Warlick, Southern Pines, vice-president; Dr. C. R. VanderVoort, Southern Pines and Aberdeen, secretary-treasurer.

The new society has nine charter members, including all of the dentists now living and practicing in the county. Plans were made for affiliation with the district and state organizations and for opening the membership to dentists of neighboring counties which do not have dental societies of their own.

Meetings will be held on the fourth Tuesday night of each

New Start For Burned-Out Family

Eugene Turman of West Southern Pines, his wife and four little children were given a new start in life this week, after their home was destroyed by fire last Saturday morning, through the kindness of a number of local organizations and individuals.

The photo shows the Turman home as Southern Pines volunteers fought the fire. While the charred shell of the building was saved, the inside was gutted and the family lost nearly all their personal belongings. The Turman children are boys aged one, three, and four and a girl, two. Bryan Poe, Turman's employer, sought County Welfare Department aid for the family. The Department does not give direct aid in such cases, if the family can be helped otherwise, but Department personnel brought the situation to the attention of organizations that could help and a radio appeal over (Continued on Page 8)

Voters Will Go To Polls Tuesday To Elect County, State Officials

Democrats Close To People, Rally Speakers Assert

Stevenson Telegram Brings Greetings To Moore County Event

Republican failure to understand the needs and aspirations of the average man, and the need for unwavering loyalty to the Democratic party were stressed during the Democratic rally at Carthage Tuesday night by speakers who included Lt. Gov. Luther Hodges, Rep. C. B. Deane of Rockingham and a number of members of the Council of State. The lieutenant governor, making the main address at the courthouse assembly that followed a dinner at the Carthage hotel, sees the nation in a "trend caused by deep disappointment at what's happened in the last 20 months. For the good of the state, for the good of the nation and in relation to other peoples of the world, we need a change," he said. "The entire program of the Democratic party has tried to think in terms of what is best for the people. The Republican party has never been close enough to the people to know what they felt or what they want. Only in times of crisis have they slipped back into power."

"The Republican party has no monopoly on integrity and patriotism," he continued. "We've learned our lesson in voting for personalities."

Lt. Gov. Hodges pointed out that in 1932 there were over 100,000 registered and voting Communists in the United States—a number that had dwindled to less than 25,000 in 1952—"and all the top leaders of the Communists had been convicted."

Rep. Deane, who paid tribute to the faithful service of his assistant, John A. Lang, Jr., of Carthage, said he has had a ringside seat in watching the current Republican administration.

He pointed out that four states, New York, Pennsylvania, Michigan and Illinois now have the chairmanships of the major committees of House and Senate, but that a Democratic Congress would turn over three-quarters of these chairmanships to the South and West. He stressed the Democratic support given to President Eisenhower on important legislation and pointed out the hardship that the administration's "hard money" policy has imposed on home buyers and small businessmen.

Presiding at the rally were W. Lamont Brown, chairman of the Moore County Democratic Executive Committee, and Voit Gilmore, president of the county's Young Democrats. Introduced and speaking briefly were members of the Council of State—whom the chairmen lauded for attending a rally at the county level—including Edwin Gill, state treasurer; Frank Crane, commissioner of labor; Charles Gold, insurance commissioner; Henry Bridges, state auditor; and John Larkins, N. C. Democratic Executive Committee chairman.

County candidates and distinguished Moore County residents and visitors were introduced. At the preceding dinner a telegram from Adlai Stevenson was read, bringing his good wishes and pointing out that North Carolina gave to him and the Democratic party the largest number of electoral votes of any state in the nation in 1952 when Stevenson was Democratic candidate for President. (Continued on Page 8)

PTA MEETING

The Southern Pines Parent-Teacher Association was to have a program on the school cafeteria Thursday night of this week, with Mrs. L. T. Hall, manager and dietician, explaining its operation. The business meeting in the school auditorium was to be followed by an adjournment to the cafeteria for the program. See cafeteria photos on another page today.

Voting Places, Registrars In Moore Listed

Seventeen precinct registrars and polling places for the general election Tuesday of next week were listed as follows this week by Sam C. Riddle of Carthage, chairman of the Moore County board of elections:

Aberdeen, Mrs. Maude Thompson, American Legion Hut; Bensalem, Fuller Monroe, Bensalem School; Cameron, W. V. Fisher, Cameron Community House; East Carthage, Mrs. Ruth S. Harrington, Carthage Community House; West Carthage, Mrs. J. M. Lane, Carthage Fire House; Deep River, James Campbell, Glendon; Eureka, Mrs. D. J. Blue, Farm Life School; Highfalls, G. L. Wilson, Highfalls School.

Also Pinehurst, H. F. Kelly, American Legion Hut; Pinebluff, Mrs. Madge P. David, Home Club Bldg.; Ritters, L. B. Ritter, McConnell; Robbins, W. A. McLeod, City Hall; Spencerville, Ollie Bean, West Moore School; Spies, E. F. Sheffield, Sheffield's Store; Southern Pines, Mrs. Grace Kaylor, Southern Pines Fire House; Vass, Mrs. B. F. Griffin, McNeill's Store; West End, Harold Markham, West End School.

Superior Court For Civil Suits Slated Next Week

A one-week term of Moore County Superior Court, with trials of civil cases calendared for Monday, Wednesday and Thursday, is scheduled for next week at Carthage. Judge W. H. S. Burgwyn is to preside.

Cases listed on the Monday calendar are: Rosa Virginia Hickson vs. James Thomas Hickson; John C. Riley vs. Sarah Cox Riley; Marie Wall Asbill, al. vs. James Roy Asbill; H. W. Dorn vs. Elliott F. Dorn; J. A. Blue, al. vs. H. B. Meiselman, al.

The Wednesday calendar: Charles G. Stewart vs. Mack Samuel Oakley; J. W. Bass, al. vs. Mack Samuel Oakley; Anna Triola Salino vs. Christ Kaloudis, al.; Donald Burns vs. H. L. Wolfe; Lucas K. Williams vs. Armettie Cockman Burns, al.; Mrs. Bethel C. Short, al. vs. George Butler.

Thursday's calendar: Garland McPherson vs. Wachovia Bank & Trust Co. and Katherine Way, Exec. of Edith M. Way; Southern Pines Warehouses vs. Burney Garner, al.; J. Ellis Fields, al. vs. Arthur De Bevoise; Ellen S. Bushby vs. W. S. Bushby; A. C. Burns vs. Southern Fire Insurance Co.; A. C. Burns vs. Aetna Insurance Co.; A. C. Burns vs. Globe & Republic Insurance Co.; Margaret Hill vs. W. L. Cameron; Nannie Fox Toomer vs. Roy Fox; O. W. Holtzclaw vs. Daniel B. Holder, Jr., al.

Motion Docket: Lizzie Marks, al. vs. Tom McRae, al.; Barbara Jean Combs Queen, al. vs. Thomas Pope Queen, al.; W. Q. White vs. Roberto Scognomillo; Herbert H. Carter vs. Carol Lee Smith Carter; In the matter of nullifying the marriage of Ann Gibson Kimball to James Franklin Kimball, Jr.; O. W. Holtzclaw vs. Daniel B. Holder, Jr., al.; C. C. Lewis, al. vs. Dr. Archie A. McDuffie.

FARM BUREAU EVENT

The annual Moore County Farm Bureau barbecue will be held at Carthage November 12, it was announced this week. Details as to place and time will be announced.

Deane Visits Air-Ground School

Prior to his appearance at a Democratic rally at Carthage Tuesday night, Rep. C. B. Deane of Rockingham, 8th District Congressman, spent most of Tuesday in Moore County, visiting the USAF Air-Ground Operations School at the Highland Pines Inn Tuesday morning. Brig. Gen. Daniel W. Jenkins, commandant of the school, received the Congressman with military

Opinion On Amendments To Be Asked

Voters of Moore County will go to the polls Tuesday of next week to elect county officials and help elect state officers and judges, 8th District Congressman and U. S. Senators. Voters will also vote for or against five amendments to the State Constitution.

Polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. in the 17 precincts of the county. A complete list of registrars and polling places appears in another story today.

Only a portion of the Democratic candidates for county offices have Republican opposition. C. J. McDonald of Carthage, incumbent and Democrat, is opposed for sheriff by Floyd T. Cole of West End, Republican.

All the Democratic county commissioners, who were renominated in last May's primary, are opposed. The candidates, listed Democratic and Republican in that order, are:

District 1—John M. Currie and C. A. Kennedy.

District 2—T. R. Monroe and C. H. Garner.

District 3—L. R. Reynolds and J. W. Childress.

District 4—James M. Pleasants and A. Raymond Thomas.

District 5—Gordon M. Cameron and M. Hobson Tucker.

Candidates for county commissioner file for nomination from districts, but are voted on by the county as a whole.

For State House

H. Clifton Blue of Aberdeen, Democrat and incumbent member of the State House of Representatives from Moore, is opposed by J. W. Rogers of Cameron, Republican.

J. Hawley Poole is Moore County's Democratic candidate for State Senate from the 12th district and Robert Morgan is the other Democratic State Senate candidate from Harnett County. Lucy S. Lewis, Jr., is the single Republican candidate.

The 12th Senatorial District is composed of Moore, Hoke, Harnett and Randolph Counties. Moore and Harnett are furnishing the Democratic candidates this year, according to a rotation agreement. At the next term of the General Assembly, Hoke and Randolph will provide candidates.

Unopposed Democratic candidates for county offices are: Judge J. Vance Rowe, for judge of recorders court; W. Lamont Brown, for prosecuting attorney (solicitor) of recorders court; Carlton C. Kennedy for clerk of Superior Court; Mrs. Bessie J. Griffin for register of deeds and Ralph G. Steed for coroner.

Neither party has a candidate for county surveyor.

For Congress

Democrat C. B. Deane of Rockingham, 8th District representative, is opposed by Harold W. Gavin of Sanford, Republican.

For U. S. Senator

For the long senate term, ending January 3, 1961, W. Kerr Scott, Democrat, is opposed by Paul C. West, Republican, but has no opposition for the short term ending January 3, 1957.

Sam J. Ervin, Jr., Democrat, has no opposition for the U. S. Senate term ending January 3, 1957.

Edwin Gill, Democratic state treasurer seeking reelection, is opposed by Rex Morton, Republican. Charles F. Gold, commissioner of insurance, Democrat, is opposed by Fred G. Frick.

M. V. Barnhill, Democratic candidate for chief justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, has opposition in Buford T. Henne (Continued on Page 8)