Scouts Praised

Hats off to the West Southern Pines Scouts for the very fine job they did in directing the traffic and parking the cars during the Annual Conference at Trinity A. M. E. Zion Church. Much praise was given them by the various delegates and church officials for the very fine service they rendered to the Conference.

The Scouts on duty were: G. S. Cameron, Jr., Asst. Scoutmaster; Jesse Graham, Horace Lewis, Melvin McCall, Raymond McCall, James Stroman, Ralph White, James Reeves, William Person, Charles Brower, Ronald Little and Cicero Carpenter.

The Scouts were very pleased with the donation of $5 by St. Mary's Guild Emmanuel Church—their share of the $15 donated by the guild to the West Southern Pines Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts. This donation swelled the Boy Scout treasury to $31.

Another highly appreciated donation was contributed by the Everready Women's Federation to Scout Ronald Little in the form of a uniform.

Football Team Honored

Last Tuesday night the West Southern Pines football players were feted at the home of Mrs. E. Stubbs, with Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Jordan playing host with Mrs. Stubbs, the team's "mother."

The players enjoyed bingo, checkers and other games. Delicious cake, lime frappe and sandwiches were served to high light the occasion.

Cecil Goins, former West Southern Pines standout player, spoke briefly on the contributions young athletes can make to help build a stronger and healthier America. Fred Lutz, coach at Pinckney High School, Carthage terminated the talks by comparing the game of football with the game of life.

Basketball Opener

West Southern Pines School was to unveil her 1954-55 basketball squads here Thursday night against a strong aggregation of Lillington. Game time was set at 7:30. There is speculation that the outcome of the boys' game is somewhat of a toss up, since both squads are on almost equal basis. A capacity crowd is expected to witness the performance of plenty of new players on both the boys and girls squads.

West Southern Pines has scheduled games against Ellerbe, Pinehurst, Lillington, Aberdeen, Raeford, Carthage, Palmer Memorial Institute, Sanford, Albemarle and Hamlet.

League Issues Warning

The Young Boys League of West Southern Pines states that no one will be admitted to the gymnasium on recreation nights unless he is a certified member.

"It adds up to Confidence"—

SAYS A VIRGINIA BANK

When a neighbor refers to your product or service as a symbol of "confidence," you naturally feel pretty good about it. At the risk of tooting our own horn, that's the way we feel about the definition recently published by a Virginia Bank. Here it is:—

"... you flick an electric switch several times a day—many times a year, and take it for granted that electricity will respond and light will be produced immediately. That's dependability through proven use. It adds up to confidence."

We want to thank our neighbor for those kind words. They serve to spur us on to even better service... service which will continue to merit the confidence those words express.
