Silver Tea

The Vass Womens Club entertained at a Silver Tea Saturday from 3 to 5 p. m. at the Community House, to add to its fund for equipping the kitchen, and to give friends an opportunity to see the building.

Mrs. A. D. McLaughlin, Mrs. A. V. Autry and Mrs. Paul Jones comprised the committee in charge of the tea, and they featured yellow and green in decorations. At one end of the tea table, which was covered with a outwork cloth, was a large arrangement of yellow gladioli, snapdragons and daffodils, and similar arrangements were on the piano and elsewhere. The mantel was banked with greenery, and a log fire glowed in the fireplace.

Mrs. Autry greeted the guests and Mrs. C. L. Tyson presided at the register. Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Jones alternated at the punch bowl. Party sandwiches in green and yellow, cookies, nuts and mints were served.

Music throughout the reception hours was furnished by Mrs. J. D. Matthews of Carthage Road, Mrs. W. E. Gladstone, and Mrs. Joe Walters, Jr., of Florence, S. C.

Others assisting in receiving and serving were Mrs. Jack Morgan, Mrs. Leon Keith, Mrs. C. P. McMillan, Mrs. Charles Cameron, Mrs. J. A. Hudson, Mrs. W. A. Muse, Mrs. E. L. Finch, Mrs. H. A. Borst, Mrs. W. H. Keith, Mrs. H. C. Callahan, Mrs. Charles Gschwind and Mrs. S. R. Smith.

Out-of-town guests included the Rev. and Mrs. Walter C. Smith of Durham, Miss Bert Kelly of Asheboro, Mrs. A. K. Perkins of Broadway, Miss Mary Logan and Dr. and Mrs. Dougherty, of Southern Pines, Mrs. H. C. McPherson, Mrs. Gladys Warren and Mr. Alex. McPherson, of Cameron, Mrs. J. T. Ellis of Bennett, Mrs. J. D. Matthews and Miss Minnie Lee Kelly, of Carthage Route 3, Mrs. G. W. Williams of Ruffin, S. C., Mrs. A. T. Lewis, Mrs. Jane Lewis Aycock and Miss Flora McDnald, of Carthage, and Mrs. T. F. Cameron and Miss Jennie Cameron of Cameron Route 1.

Methodist Men Meet

The Methodist Men's Club held its monthly meeting Thursday night at the church. Members were served a fried chicken dinner by two hostess groups of Methodist women headed by Mrs. H. A. Borst and Mrs. Redga Thomas, in the young peoples assembly room.

Curtis Thomas presided and W. H. Frye led the devotions. The following officers were elected: president, C. L. Tyson; vice-president, C. P. McMillan; secretary-treasurer, Redga Thomas; devotional leader, W. H. Frye; program chairman, J. M. Davis.

Quarterly Conference

The fourth quarterly conference of the Methodist Church will be held at the church at 7:30 p. m. Sunday. All officers are requested to attend and others desiring to do so will be welcome.

Lions Club Meets

The Lions Club held a dinner meeting at the Community House last week, with the members doing their own serving, except for some preliminary help. Mrs. A. D. McLaughlin had prepared a supply of chicken stew and Mrs. Jack Morgan had made slaw, and these, with barbecue and the accompaniments made a menu to suit the taste of all present.

Youth Meeting

The Methodist Youth Fellowship met Sunday from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. Charles Parker led the devotions, after which the crowd was divided into groups, each of which acted out a Bible story for the others to guess.

This was followed by a game of Bible baseball. Mrs. Louis Frye and Mrs. Charles Parker of the refreshment committee served Neapolitan ice cream and cup cakes.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wallace of Carthage visited Mr. and Mrs. C.

L. Tyson Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lynch and family of Carthage Route called on Miss Bessie Cameron Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Vick Keith and children of Sanford were Sunday visitors in the home of Mrs. W. H. Keith.

Mrs. A. M. Cameron spent the weekend at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. F. McKay, at Buies Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Borst attended the dedication of the new school auditorium in Cameron Sunday.

Guest Minister

The Rev. J. W. Ewart of Aberdeen will preach at the Vass Presbyterian Church at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

Celebrates Birthday

Mike Gschwind, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gschwind, celebrated his third birthday with a party at his home Saturday afternoon. The children played, and Mike opened the gifts which his friends brought. The train theme was effectively carried out in the party, from invitations through favors. The birthday cake consisted of a jelly-roll engine with marshmallow wheels, two flat cars and a cab, with candles on the cars. Ice cream was served with the cake.

Mike's guests were: Joe Parker, Robbie McGill, Carol Edmisten, Debbie and Gail Bullock, Harvey Lee Price, Bruce and David Morgan, Joe Jones, Mike and Gary Hudson, Debbie McGill, Carol Klingenschmidt, Connie Sue Hudson, Kent and Paul McGill, Ann Thomas, Genia Loftin, and Joyce Jessup.

Presbyterian Circles

The Jane McGill Circle of the Presbyterian Church held its March meeting at the church with Mrs. H. D. Jackson as hostess. Mrs. C. G. Crockett conducted the Bible study on "Faith As Adventure" and Mrs. Delmas Kimball led a discussion on "The Task." Mrs. Bob Harrison was a guest. The hostess served sandwiches and cocoa.

Mrs. Herbert Lee Price was hostess to Circle I, with the chairman, Mrs. Hugh McLean, presiding. Miss Annie Ruth Hudson was in charge of the program and Miss Polly Gilmore led the Bible study. The St. Patrick theme was carried out in the social period. Sandwiches, pickles, cake and Coca-Colas were served.

Schedule of Dog Vaccination Clinics For Moore County — 1955

Dog Owners—Please take your dogs to clinic nearest you listed below and have Dr. McLean vaccinate them. The charge will be $1.00 for each dog vaccinated. The N. C. law requires every dog to be vaccinated each year. The $1.00 charge is in effect only at the clinics. It will be more elsewhere. When you have your dog vaccinated be sure to get a receipt and a dog tag. Securely fasten the tag to his collar and have him wear it all the time.

Beginning May 1 all dogs not vaccinated and listed for taxes will be picked up and impounded. Owners can retrieve their impounded dogs within 5 days by paying the cost, taxes, and by having him vaccinated. This law will be enforced. Save yourself extra cost by cooperating with the rabies control law.
