MISS SHIRLEY ELIZABETH JOHNSON'S engagement to Lyle Daniel McDonald, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald of Southern Pines, is announced by her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Mathewson of Durham. A June wedding is planned. Her father was the late Mr. Johnson of Miami, Fla. Miss Johnson is a graduate of Miami High School and a member of Alpha Iota Sorority and Business Girls' Group. Mr. McDonald, a graduate of Southern Pines High School, is an operating room technician at Duke Hospital in Durham, where he holds membership in the Moose Lodge, Durham Life Saving Corps, and Knights of Columbus.

Adelaide King Class Holds Meeting

The Adelaide King Bible Class of the Baptist Church held its monthly business and social meeting Tuesday evening, March 21, at the home of Miss Ann Huntington, with 17 members present. The devotions were led by Mrs. C. B. Gale. After the business part of the program, Miss Mary Richardson gave a reading on "Herodias". Mrs. George Colton had charge of the entertainment. Mrs. W. E. Kivette, co-hostess with Miss Huntington, served refreshments.

Altar Guild To Give Silver Tea At Winkelman Home

The Altar Guild of the Church of Wide Fellowship will give a Silver Tea from 3 to 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, March 30, at the home of Mrs. Dwight W. Winkelman, 565 East Massachusetts Avenue, who is graciously opening her home and garden for this event. In its springtime beauty the Winkelman home is one of the showplaces of the Sandhills. The Guild is looking forward to a large attendance.

Woodmen Circle Plans Activities

Dogwood Grove No. 253 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen circle met Wednesday night in the W. O. W. hall with 14 members present. Members voted to make a cash donation to the Marie Hurst fund, also to make a second cash contribution to the Talley Infirmary Memorial fund. This fund is being raised to build a hospital in connection with the Woodmen Circle Home for the aged members, in Sherman, Tex.

Miss Alice Baxter was elected to replace Mrs. Margaret Mattocks as treasurer. Plans were made for a practice meeting on Friday, April 15, for benefit of the three officers from this Grove who will be participating in the Southeastern District convention in Fairmont April 20.

Refreshments of whipped jello, brownies, coffee, and Coca-Colas were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Shirley Yearby and Mary Scott Newton.

Musical And Tea At Jamison Home Delightful Affair

Mrs. Luther H. Hodges, wife of North Carolina's Governor, and Mrs. William Rodman, Jr., wife of State Senator Rodman and president of the Sir Walter Cabinet of legislators' wives were distinguished guests at a musicale and tea, held Wednesday afternoon at the Knollwood home of Dr. and Mrs. Andrew M. Jamison, Jr., sponsored by the Moore County Historical Association. The tea, one of the loveliest social events of the Spring, attracted a large attendance from the Sandhills and beyond.

Mrs. Dennison K. Bullens of Knollwood and Mrs. J. Talbot Johnson of Aberdeen arranged the floral decorations for the tea table and elsewhere. Mrs. Charles T. Grier and Miss Frances McKeithen, of Carthage, Mrs. Albert Tufts of Pinehurst, Mrs. Edwin McKeithen of Aberdeen, and Mrs. Wallace Irwin of Southern Pines poured.

Delightful music was presented by Miss Betty Vaden Williams of Raleigh, who played her own accompaniments on a harp. Attracting special interest was her rendition of "Vandy, Vandy," an old English ballad which Mrs. Ernest Ives and Manly Wade Wellman brought to light in upper Moore County through information received from Mrs. Jacques Busbee.

Many Attend Tea At Shaw House

The League of Women Voters welcomed old and new members at a lovely Spring tea at the Shaw House Thursday afternoon. A sizable group turned out to enjoy the delicious cookies and cakes made by the members.

The group included many from Southern Pines, also from Carthage, where a study unit is in the process of being formed.

MISS BETTY ELLEN RITTER, PINEHURST, IS BRIDE OF MICHAEL NICHOLAS BABYAK

Rex Hospital graduate nurse, Miss Betty Ellen Ritter, and professional baseball player, Michael Nicholas Babyak, were married Saturday at 4:30 p. m. in the Beulah Hill Baptist Church, Pinehurst, with the Rev. W. F. Hancock officiating in a double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ritter of Pinehurst and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Babyak of Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. W. F. Hancock of Robbins, pianist, and Mrs. D. H. Whitesell, Jr., of Pinehurst, vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and had as matron of honor her sister, Mrs. L. L. Bradley of Siler City. Bridesmaids were Miss Margie Garner of Pinehurst and Mrs. Joe Bradley of Raleigh.

Miss Ann Babyak of Niagara Falls, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Cathy Bradley of Siler City, niece of the bride, were flower girls.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Nicholas Babyak of Niagara Falls as best man. Ushers were L. L. Bradley of Siler City, brother-in-law of the bride, and Joe Brantley of Raleigh.

The bride wore a gown of bridal satin with French Chantilly lace. The bodice was fashioned with a yoke outlined with seed pearls and the full skirt extended into a short train. The fingertip veil of nylon tulle was attached to a tiara of French Chantilly lace showered with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and streamers of satin showered with white baby orchids.

The matron of honor wore a full length dress of open blue nylon net over taffeta with matching bandeau and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

The flower girls wore short dresses of white nylon with full skirts and carried baskets covered in white satin.

The mother of the bride wore smoke blue silk taffeta and the mother of the bridegroom wore powder blue lace. Each wore an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at their home.

The bride was graduated from Rex Hospital, School of Nursing in Raleigh, and at present is employed in the operating room of Moore County Hospital in Pinehurst.

The bridegroom attended State College for two years and at the conclusion of his second year signed a professional baseball contract, with the Philadelphia Phillies. He will be assigned to their farm organization this month.
