Thagards Club
The Thagards H. D. Club held its March meeting in the home of Mrs. O. L. Darnell with thirteen present. Mrs. Glenn Horne, the Family Life Leader, led the club meeting in a discussion on "Discipline—Wise and Otherwise." All club members took part in the discussion, each expressing her views on discipline. We all enjoyed this meeting very much. Mrs. Horne had attended the Family Life Leaders' training school held in Carthage.

Mrs. Ruby Matthews and Mrs. Ernest Horne had attended an Arts and Crafts School in Carthage and taught the club members how to make tufted bedspreads. After the business, games were played and refreshments were enjoyed. We are looking forward to our April meeting in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Horne.—Mrs. Richard Matthews, publicity chairman.

We have always thought of Mrs. R. L. Black as our club's outstanding turkey and poultry grower. But now she has started to do over her kitchen, dining room and living room with the aid of a neighbor boy. She was on a step ladder putting up Celotex over her head when we called one afternoon. She plans to do all the work herself except putting the sheet rock on the walls. She will have a carpenter do this.

Mrs. Black also has a very attractive yard in which she enjoys working. She always has a good garden and has a home freezer full of fruits and vegetables. She gives freely of her time to church work and is chairman of her circle.—Mrs. W. B. Sellars, publicity chairman.

Services Held At Bethesda For Lee R. Page, 64

Lee Robadeau Page, 64, a life-long resident of the Sandhills, died suddenly at his home here Wednesday afternoon of last week. He was the sole surviving son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Page of Aberdeen, and a nephew of the late Ambassador Walter Hines Page.

A graveside service was held in Old Bethesda Cemetery, Aberdeen, Sunday afternoon, with the Rev. Dr. Adam Weir Craig of the Pinehurst Village Chapel officiating.

Mr. Page, president of Page and Shamburger of Aberdeen, Gulf Oil Products distributors for this area, leaves his wife, the former Gayle Johnston of Washington, D. C., and two sisters, Mrs. Beverly Royster of Oxford, and Mrs. Fred Bynum of Rockingham.

Draft Files Of World War 2 Vets To Be Destroyed

Col. Thomas H. Upton, State Director of Selective Service, said today that he has received notice from the Director of Selective Service to proceed with the disposal of the individual files of registrants of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended. He pointed out that any World War II registrant needing information from his World War II selective service file should request it now before the loss of such information by destruction of the records. The information must be requested either in person or by letter signed by the registrant.

W. W. Dalrymple of Carthage, chairman of Moore County Local Board 84, brings Colonel Upton's announcement to the attention of World War II veterans in this county. Further information may be obtained from the board's office in Carthage.

Colonel Upton also stated that the Director of Selective Service advises that the great majority of the World War 2 files have served all discernible administrative purposes in the operation of the Universal Military Training and Service Act, as amended, and that the Joint Committee of Congress on the disposition of Executive Papers has approved of the disposal of individual files of registrants of the Selective Training and Service

Act of 1940. The only World War 2 files to be retained are those of registrants classified at any time in Class IV-C (Alien), which have been requested by the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Files obtained under the current draft act will continue to be maintained by each registrant's local board.

Hay acreage is likely to increase this year with farmers planning to add 1.6 million acres. Most of the gain is in the South, Plains states and West.
