

Mrs. Williamson Of Carthage Dies

Mrs. J. V. Williamson, 83, died at her home in Carthage Wednesday morning.

She was the daughter of the late Howard J. Muse and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Claude A. Kennedy of Carthage; three sisters, Mrs. R. L. Burns, Mrs. W. O. Dupree, both of Carthage, and Mrs. W. V. Carter of Aberdeen; one brother, J. E. Muse of Carthage; and one grandson.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 3:30 p. m. at the Carthage Methodist Church, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. M. C. Henderson. Burial was in Cross Hill Cemetery.

School Requests For Construction Funds Made To Moore Commissioners

S. Pines, Pinehurst Officials Present Capital Outlay Needs

School capital outlay requests totalling $177,000 were presented to the county commissioners last week by John Howarth chairman of the local board of school trustees, and Supt. A. C. Dawson.

Officials of the county's other city school administrative unit at Pinehurst also made their requests for the 1955-'56 fiscal year that begins July 1.

Requests by the two city school units and by the board of education, on behalf of the county school system, are taken under advisement by the commissioners when making up the budget that will determine how county funds for school construction and major alteration projects are distributed.

The six-point Southern Pines request included:

1. To equip and complete West Southern Pines classrooms (at the new elementary school building now under construction) and the "Phase B" portion of the new high school, on which work is also beginning—$25,000.
2. An additional seven-classroom unit for West Southern Pines elementary school, plus toilets, teachers' room and health room—$90,000 (following the plan of building needed new elementary school facilities in West Southern Pines in stages).
3. Equipment for this unit—$7,000.
4. Dressing room and band room addition to Southern Pines gym (architect's estimate)—$47,000 to $50,000.
5. Tile floors, partitions and lockers for West Southern Pines gym—$3,500.
6. Sodding and terracing sites—$1,500.

Pinehurst Requests

John F. Taylor, chairman, and Supt. Lewis Cannon represented the Pinehurst School Board. The total capital outlay budget was $83,500 and was recommended as follows:

Academy Heights School—$25,000 County Funds to supplement $19,380.01 State Funds for Cafeteria and Home Economics Building; $5,000 Equipment for Building; $1,500 Renovation Classroom and Furniture for Library, a total of $31,500.

Pinehurst School—$2,000 Additional Furniture and Equipment; $50,000 Part of the amount to be used for building gymnasium, additional requested next year a total of $52,000.

It was pointed out that Academy Heights School did not have a cafeteria and that a new building would mean much to the school. It was also suggested that a new Home Economics room be included in the Academy Heights Cafeteria building. The present Home Economics room in the main building would then be converted into a library room.

Supt. Cannon mentioned that the enrollment in the Pinehurst School had increased 25 per cent during the past five years and all indications were that the enrollment would continue to increase.
