

Mrs. Emmett French's Mother Dies In Ohio

Mrs. Charles Krauter of Youngstown, Ohio, mother of Mrs. Emmett French of Hill Road, died Monday, according to information reaching friends of Mrs. French in Southern Pines.

Youngstown last week because of her mother's critical illness, leaving Saturday from her home at Myrtle Beach, S. C., where she has been living recently. Details of funeral service and other information were lacking in information given to The Pilot. Mrs. Krauter had visited her daughter in Southern Pines and was known here.

Miss Brown Enters Tennis Tournaments In Three States

Audrey West Brown, who grew up on local courts to become the State's top-ranking woman tennis player, will spend the month of July playing in tournaments in three states, possibly four, with others on her schedule for later in the summer. She is fourth-ranked in women's singles, second in doubles, in the South. She will play next week in the South Carolina Open at Greenville, then in the National Clay Courts Championships at Atlanta July 11-17. Next comes the North Carolina Open at Asheville, in which she was runner-up last year, then probably the Tennessee Open at Chattanooga. She will defend her title in the Sandhill Invitational here August 17-20, but said today she hasn't decided whether she will go to Greensboro in September to defend the singles crown in the North Carolina Closed which she won last year, and in four previous years. A University of North Carolina graduate in accounting, she has given up the position she held for two years in the offices of the Western Electric Co. at Burlington, and plans to become associated next fall with her father, H. L. Brown, in his office furnishings and supplies business here.

Three nutrients contained in milk are needed in the human diet in larger quantities than many people consume—calcium, riboflavin, and protein. Milk contains all three.
