THE REV. AND MRS. LEWIS HODGKINS

MISS SHERMAN AND MR. HODGKINS ARE WED IN OREGON; WILL RESIDE IN ALASKA

All Saints Episcopal Church in Hillsboro, Ore., was the scene at 4 o'clock last Friday afternoon, June 24, of the wedding of Miss Barbee Faye Sherman of Forest Grove, Ore., and the Rev. Lewis Hodgkins of Ketchikan, Alaska. The Right Reverend William J. Gordon, Bishop of Alaska, and the Reverend Steen Whitesides of Hillsboro, Ore., officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sherman of Ketchikan, Alaska, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins of Southern Pines.

Bouquets of stocks and candles were altar decorations.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Ellis Poullette, organist, and Mrs. Arleigh Berget, soloist, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of white lace and tulle, the fitted lace bodice featuring a scalloped neck and long sleeves. The full skirt had an apron of lace and tulle over-skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a pearl-trimmed lace cap, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and bachelor buttons.

Two sisters of the bride were her attendants, Mrs. Kenneth Servas as matron of honor, and Miss Mary Michael Sherman. They were attired in waltz-length dresses of white organdy over blue taffeta, with which they wore blue sashes and caps. They carried bouquets of white Esther Reed daisies and bachelor buttons.

The bridegroom had his father as best man, and ushers were Kenneth Servas, Bill Sherman and Jack Sherman.

A reception was held in the church parlors.

For a honeymoon trip to Victoria, British Columbia, the bride wore a navy blue suit dress with white and navy accessories.

After July 1, the couple will be at home at 1151 Woodland Avenue, Ketchikan, Alaska.

The bride is a graduate of Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, Ore., and has been teaching in Forest Grove, Ore.

The Rev. Mr. Hodgkins is a graduate of Duke University, Durham, and St. Luke's Theological Seminary, University of the South, in Seawee, Tenn. He is priest-in-charge of St. Elizabeth's Episcopal Church in Ketchikan.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hodgkins left Southern Pines on Monday of last week to attend the wedding, going by plane from the Raleigh-Durham airport to Portland, Ore. They plan to do some sightseeing down the Pacific coast on the way back and to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Hodgkins, in Los Angeles, Calif.

Charles Covell, Jr., has gone to New London, N. H., where he is working as a bellhop at Twin Lake Village. His parents, the Rev. and Mrs. C. V. Covell, will go to New London in August and will bring him back in time to enter the University of North Carolina this fall for his sophomore year.

Atkins-Johnson Wedding Vows Are Spoken In Greenville

Miss Jo Anne Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Johnson of Cameron, and A. B. Atkins, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Atkins, also of Cameron, were married at high noon Saturday in Greenville, S. C.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Albert Crissman of Vass while Mr. Crissman attended the bridegroom as best man. Also attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Atkins and son, Mike of Greenville.

For her nuptials the bride wore a frock of white embroidered eyelet organdy with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a purple throated orchid.

Mrs. Atkins is a graduate of Cameron high school and for the past 18 months has been employed by the Carolina Bank of Pinehurst.

Mr. Atkins is a graduate of Cameron high school and holds a job with Roberts Company, Sanford.

The young couple will make their home in Cameron.

Miss Suzanne Burns Entertains At Shower For Bride-Elect

Honoring Miss Betty Jane Worsham, bride-elect of Saturday, Miss Suzanne Burns entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home last Friday evening. Summer flowers were used as decorations in the living room, where bingo was enjoyed.

Gifts were presented in the form of a treasure hunt. Attached to threads and hidden in various places, they were located by Miss Worsham as she followed the threads, which she rewound on spools as she went upstairs and throughout the living room.

Sandwiches, cake, mints, nuts and punch were arranged buffet style on the dining table, which held a centerpiece of garden flowers and miniature Japanese parasols. The bride-elect was presented a Japanese fan of silk, upon which each guest present wrote her name as a future reminder of their pleasant evening together.

Local People Attend Wade Mecum Conference

Mrs. A. R. McDaniel and Mrs. C. V. Covell returned home Friday from Wade Mecum, where they attended the Episcopal Woman's Auxiliary Conference for a week. They were in classes each morning conducted by Bishop Penick, and heard outstanding speakers from many places.

Mrs. Covell conducted an Altar Guild Workshop each afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30, in which she taught flower arranging and the care of altar linens and vessels. A field trip on which the women gathered wild flowers to be used in an arrangement lesson was a special feature.

This group of women assumed responsibility for tending the altar for the daily morning Communion and evening prayer services.

The Rev. Mr. Covell attended the clergy conference there from Monday until Wednesday, and Mrs. Arthur Eakins, church organist, and Mr. Eakins plan to attend the music conference from today until Saturday.

Savage-Worsham Wedding Will Take Place Saturday

Miss Betty Jane Worsham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Worsham, has announced plans for her wedding to Richard Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Savage of Concord.

The ceremony will be performed at the Church of Wide Fellowship at 8 p.m. Saturday by the pastor, Dr. Wofford C. Timmons. Mrs. L. D. McDonald will play the wedding music.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will have her sister, Mrs. Jackie Cummings, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Barbara Guin, Miss Peggy Jones, Miss Annie Mae Morgan, Mrs. Virginia Payne, Miss Suzanne Burns and Mrs. Laverne Worsham. Janice Savage will be flower girl and Rhea Cummings, ring bearer.

Jerry Savage will attend the bridegroom as best man. Ushers will be Hank Cummings, Davis Worsham, C. L. Worsham, Jr., Wally Ford, Bill Cochran, and Mac Long.

A reception will follow.

MRS. WYNNDHAM LEE CLARKE

MISS MACFARLANE BECOMES BRIDE OF LT. CLARKE IN UNION COLLEGE CHAPEL

A ceremony in Union College Memorial Chapel, Schenectady, N. Y., performed by Union College President Carter Davidson at 8 p.m. Friday, June 24, united in marriage Miss Allison Macfarlane and Lt. Wynndham Lee Clarke of the United States Air Force.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kilgore Macfarlane, Jr., of Schenectady, and Lieutenant Clarke is the son of Mrs. William F. Bowman of Southern Pines and the late Lee Clarke.

The church was decorated with white rhododendron, gladioli and snapdragons.

Wedding music was presented by Anthony R. Stefan, violinist, and Miss Edith Stephens, organist, both of Schenectady.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, scalloped neckline edged with lace, short sleeves with matching scallop, and slightly flared skirt. Her fingertip veil of french illusion was attached to a Chantilly lace cap edged with pearls. She carried a cascade of stephanotis and butterfly orchids.

Mrs. Barclay Martin of Madison, Wis., sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. John L. Feininger, sister of the bride, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Miss Janet Newman of New York City, and Miss Marjorie Liss of Schenectady. They were identically gowned in princess style dresses of yellow pique trimmed with white lace, with headbands of yellow with small clusters of delphinium blossoms. A touch of dark blue delphinium distinguished the honor attendant's cascade from the others, which were entirely of light blue delphinium.

The bridegroom had as his best man Lt. James S. Murphy of Westover Air Force Base, Mass. Ushers, all from the same base, were Capt. Paul A. Carlsen, Capt. Edward J. Campbell, and Lt. David A. E. Cady.

The bride's mother wore a blue cotton and lace dress, hat of velvet leaves and veil of matching color. Mrs. Bowman, the bridegroom's mother, wore blue organdy with matching stole, and flowers in her hair.

A reception, held at the Mohawk Club, was attended by approximately 400 guests. Pouring punch were: Mrs. H. H. Vornig, Mrs. Peter Paul Miller, Mrs. Louis E. Newman, Mrs. Carl Liss, Mrs. J. Weir McHugh, Mrs. Gilbert Wolfe, Mrs. J. Milton Lang, Mrs. W. L. Webster, Mrs. E. L. Feininger, Mrs. Carter Davidson, Mrs. Henry de Forest Wright, and Mrs. Robert L. Yowell.

For travel the bride wore a blue tissue wool suit with white accessories. She is a cum laude graduate of Radcliffe College, class of 1955, and is a provisional member of Junior League of Schenectady.

Lieutenant Clarke attended N. C. State College in Raleigh, and is a Korean veteran, serving as a jet pilot.

The couple will be at home at Westover Air Force Base, Mass.

Mrs. Bowman was away for a week attending her son's wedding and social events connected with it.

Raeferd Visitors Attend Woodmen Circle Meeting

Dogwood Grove No. 253 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle met in regular session in the Woodmen Hall Wednesday night of last week, with 15 members present and nine visitors from the Raeferd Grove. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mary Scott Newton.

During the ritualistic ceremony, the Drill Team from Raeferd carried out the floor work.

Discussion of a joint picnic for all Woodmen members and families was held, and the president appointed Cornelia Vann as chairman of arrangements with Myrtle Goldsmith, Eliza McDonald and Theodora Bailey as assistants.

Punch, sandwiches and cookies were served by the hostess grove.

Hassell Reunion At Whiteville Sunday Is Well Attended

Mrs. E. M. Poate of Southern Pines and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Hassell, and their son, Tommy, of East Paterson, N. J., spent Sunday in Whiteville attending a reunion of the Hassell family. The nine surviving sons and daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hassell of Southern Pines were there with their families.

Including other relatives and guests there were 45 present for a delicious buffet dinner at the Hotel Whiteville. J. Howard Hassell, manager of the hotel, was host for the occasion, which brought some of the brothers and sisters together for the first time in seven years.

Miss Harriss Is Bridesmaid In Wilmington Wedding

Miss Jo Anne Harriss was in Wilmington from Friday to Sunday, where on Saturday she was a bridesmaid in the wedding of her former roommate at East Carolina College, Miss Sara Ann Coley, and William Richard Lewis in the Winter Park Baptist Church. While there she was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sumner.

MISS DORIS BOWLES AND MR. ANDREWS, WED SUNDAY, WILL LIVE IN DURHAM

Miss Doris Bowles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bowles of Niagara, and Elmer Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Andrews of Manly, were married in a double ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church, Southern Pines, at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 26. The bride's pastor, the Rev. Max A. Gilmore of Pinehurst, the minister of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church near Niagara, officiated.

Pine, magnolia and ivy formed a background for baskets of white gladioli and standards of burning tapers.

Mrs. C. R. Mills, church organist, presented the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a waltz-length dress of white nylon lace over organdy. Her veil of nylon net was attached to a tiara adorned with seed pearls and clusters of flowers, and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers.

Miss Norma Bowles was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Juanita Causey of Vass was bridesmaid. Miss Bowles wore blue organdy and lace with floral headdress of matching color, and carried pink daisies tied with pink ribbon. Miss Causey was similarly attired in pink with blue bouquet.

Bobby Culler of Manly was best man for Mr. Andrews, and Tommy Koonce and Herbert Wilton of Manly were ushers.

Mrs. Bowles chose for her daughter's wedding a blue dress and matching accessories, and Mrs. Andrews, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in pink. Each wore an orchid corsage.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony. The table was laid with a linen cloth and centerpiece of white flowers. After the couple had first cut the three-tiered wedding cake, the bride's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Hussey, served cake and punch.

The couple left on a motor trip to Florida, and after July 1 they will be at home in Durham.

The bride graduated from Southern Pines High School and attended Flora Macdonald College at Red Springs. For the past while she has held a secretarial position with Amertron, Inc., at Aberdeen.

Mr. Andrews, following graduation from Southern Pines High School, served in the Navy for four years. He is training as an X-ray technician at Duke Hospital in Durham.

Couple Recently Wed At McCain Are Now Residing On May St.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bryant Hunter, who were married on June 19 at the Nurses Home at McCain, have returned from a wedding trip to the N. C. Coast and are now at home at 780 North May Street, Southern Pines.

The bride is the former Mrs. Ruth Drane Fields, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Drane of Sanford, and the groom, of Sanford, is the son of E. B. Hunter and the late Mrs. Hunter of Clinton.

Ferns, magnolias, candles, and baskets of white gladioli were used as decorations for the wedding, at which the Rev. Eugene Bauer, chaplain, officiated. Prior to the ceremony wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Bauer, pianist, and the Rev. Mr. Bauer, who sang "I Love You Truly."

The couple entered together, the bride wearing a white suit trimmed with navy, and white and navy accessories. She carried a prayerbook topped with a white purple-throated orchid.

Mrs. Hunter is supervisor of Wards 1 and 2 at the State Sanatorium at McCain. Mr. Hunter is service manager for the Sanlee Chevrolet Co. in Sanford.
