

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

Williams-Thomas Engagement of Interest Here

Of local interest is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Robin Thomas of New York City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon Thomas of Raleigh, and Forrest Nelson Williams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Kenilworth, Ill.

Miss Thomas, a 1951 honor graduate of N. C. State College, has worked for Liberty Mutual Insurance Co., in New York for the past three years.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Northwestern University, a Navy veteran, and is now employed as a pilot for American Air Lines.

The couple will live in Kenilworth following their wedding, which is planned for October.

The bride-elect's father is a native of Vass and has many relatives in Southern Pines and throughout this section.

LOOKING AHEAD . . .

CHURCH CIRCLES

Two circles of the Woman's Society of the Church of Wide Fellowship have scheduled meetings for next week. As these will be the first meetings of the season and much planning for the year's work is to be done, it is hoped that there will be good attendance.

The Margaret White Circle will meet at 3 p. m. Thursday, September 8, in the church parlor. Mrs. Marshall Palmer is chairman; Mrs. Walter Daek, secretary; and Mrs. Wade Stevick, treasurer.

The Lena Sweezy Group will meet at 2:30 p. m. Thursday, the 8th, at the home of Mrs. Louis Scheipers, 340 East New Hampshire Avenue. Mrs. L. W. Fitch is chairman; Mrs. E. V. Walker, secretary; and Mrs. H. L. Brown, treasurer.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES

Circles of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church have announced the following schedule of monthly meetings:

Circle 1 will meet at 3 p. m. Wednesday, September 7, at the home of Mrs. T. A. Jones.

Circle No. 2 will meet at 3 p. m. Tuesday, September 6, with Mrs. M. B. Kellis.

Circle 3 will meet at 3 p. m. Tuesday, September 6, with Mrs. Charles Loup.

Circle 4 will meet at 7 p. m. Monday, September 12, with Mrs. Mel Johnson.

Circle 5 will meet at 10 a. m. Tuesday, September 13, at the church with Mrs. Ward Hill as hostess.

Circle 6 will meet at 8:15 o'clock tonight (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. Ray McDonald. Mrs. Charles Wicker will be cohostess.

Circle 7 will meet at 8 o'clock tonight (Thursday) with Mrs. Morrison Howie.

Circle 8 will meet at 8 p. m. Monday, September 5, with Mrs. Chester Van Benschoten.

Circle 9 will meet at 7 o'clock tonight (Thursday) at the church with Mrs. Jewell Webb and Mrs. Raymond Cameron as hostesses.

Circle 10 will meet at 10 a. m. Tuesday, September 13, at the home of Mrs. Paul Butler.

FRIED CHICKEN SUPPER

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Southern Pines Methodist Church will serve a fried chicken supper—complete with home cooked vegetables, salad and homemade cake—at the outdoor picnic area of the Southern Pines Country Club from 5:30 to 7 p. m. next Wednesday. Tickets are now on sale and may be obtained from any member of the society, or purchased at the supper.

VFW AUXILIARY

The VFW Ladies Auxiliary will meet at the Post Home at 8 p. m. Wednesday, September 7. President Gertrude Stephenson urges all members to attend.

METHODIST CIRCLE

Circle 2 of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet with Mrs. Henry Jones, at 347 West Delaware Avenue, at 3 p. m., Tuesday, September 6.

EASTERN STAR

Magnolia Chapter 26, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet in regular session at the Masonic Hall at 8 p. m. Friday, September 2.

MRS. IRIE LEONARD AND MRS. CHARLES COLE ARE JOINT HOSTESSES AT PARTY

One of the most enjoyable of the late summer social events was a bridge-dessert party given jointly by Mrs. Irie Leonard and Mrs. Charles Cole, next-door neighbors on Crestview Road, in which players progressed from one home to the other.

Guests assembled on the front lawn and drew tallies, which directed them to the home in which they were to play first.

Summer flowers, including zinnias and marigolds, were used as decorations.

High score prizes in bridge were won by Mrs. Graves Vann and Mrs. Larry Johnson of Aberdeen; second high, by Mrs. Tom Cunningham and Mrs. Harrell Johnson.

Four games of bingo were enjoyed, also. Winners were Mrs. Newland Phillips, Mrs. Victor Sheppard, Mrs. Larry Johnson and Mrs. John Ponzer.

After the games, the entire group reassembled on the lawn for an hour of fellowship and the awarding of prizes.

Guests attending were: Mrs.

Leonard's mother, Mrs. J. R. Copland, Sr., of Burlington; Mrs. Charlie Bullock and Mrs. Jesse White, stepmother and sister of Mrs. Cole, both from Jonesboro Heights, Sanford; also her house guest for the week, Mrs. Wilton Hollowell of Goldsboro; Mrs. Barney C. Avery, Mrs. Robert VanderVoort, Mrs. Ward Hill, Mrs. Harrell Johnson, Mrs. Don Traylor, Jr., Mrs. Graves Vann, Mrs. Tom Hayes, Mrs. Newland Phillips, Mrs. John Ponzer, and Mrs. Perry Frye.

Also, Mrs. James H. Pruitt, Mrs. Jim Suttles, Mrs. Wayne Harrison, Mrs. Victor Sheppard, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. Joe Marley, Mrs. J. S. Hiatt, Mrs. Howard Smith, Mrs. William Huntley, Mrs. Charles Phillips, Mrs. Larry Johnson, Mrs. David Whitehead, Mrs. C. A. McLaughlin, Mrs. Bill Benson, Mrs. Tom Cunningham, Mrs. Russell Mills, Mrs. A. C. Dawson, Mrs. Elliott M. Shearon, Mrs. L. T. Hall, Mrs. Charles S. Patch, Jr., and Mrs. Gary Henry.

Mrs. Cole presented a milk glass vase to her guest, Mrs. Hollowell.

Miss Jeanne Overton To Teach In Florida

Miss Jeanne Overton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Overton, has gone to Cocoa Beach, Fla., to be ready to begin work on September 5 as teacher of the second grade in the school at Merritt Island, Fla., about nine miles distant from Cocoa Beach, where she will live.

Four other girls, all alumnae of the University of South Carolina and Tri Delta Sorority sisters, will live with her, and two of them, Miss Sally Judy of Columbia, S. C., and Miss Janette Eaddy of Summerton, S. C., will teach in the same school. The others are Miss Ann Lumpkin of Columbia, S. C., and Miss Mary Wilmeth of Hartsville, S. C.

Mrs. A. Montesanti At St. Joseph's Hospital

Mrs. Angelo Montesanti suffered a heart attack last Thursday night and was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where she remains quite ill, having had another attack Sunday. Thursday's report was that she had had a comfortable night. She is not allowed to have visitors other than members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Montesanti and family of Reading, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Montesanti, Jr., and son of Jacksonville Beach, Fla., and Constantino Montesanti of New Jersey have come home because of their mother's illness.

Local Group Is Feted At Bridge Luncheon In Raleigh

Mrs. Arthur Morris of Raleigh, who recently visited her sister, Mrs. Howard Smith, for several days, entertained a group of Southern Pines friends at bridge and luncheon at her new home in the Budleigh section of Raleigh a day last week. In addition to the entertainment in the Morris home, the group toured Raleigh and window shopped in Cameron Village, having an outstandingly enjoyable day together.

Mrs. J. S. Hiatt, Mrs. Charles Cole, Mrs. Irie Leonard, Mrs. Norman Caudle, Mrs. Victor Sheppard and Mrs. Howard Smith went from Southern Pines, and Mrs. Robert Simms of Raleigh was an additional guest.

Methodist Class Has Family Picnic At Pinebluff Lake

Members of the Adult Class of the Southern Pines Methodist Church School with their families—a total of around 40—gathered at the Pinebluff lake Friday evening for a wiener roast and evening of fellowship.

Earl Hubbard, Mrs. R. L. Bame and Ed Ruddell comprised the refreshment committee. Wieners with all the trimmings, potato chips and homemade cupcakes were served.

J. A. Lowdermilk, James A. Springer, Jr., and Sumner Craven were appointed to serve as a committee for the next meeting, to be held September 23. The time and place will be announced later.

Mrs. Mark J. King, Jr., and Mrs. R. C. Johnson spent last week vacationing at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Birthday Party And Christening Take Place In Phillips Family

Last weekend was an eventful one for the Dr. Charles Phillips family, with the celebration of the eighth birthday of the eldest of the four children and the christening of the youngest, who was born July 25.

Janet's birthday was Sunday, but the celebration began with a party Saturday afternoon, at which the children played indoor and outdoor games and enjoyed refreshments of birthday cake and popsicles. They had fun drawing favors from a grab bag.

Guests were Babs Arey, Colin Osborne III, Jerry Phillips, Susan Huntley, Karen Wright, Kathy Whitlock, Perry Davis, Patricia Keel, and Janet's brother Charles and sister Nancy.

Baby Elizabeth was christened Sunday morning at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church by the pastor, the Rev. C. K. Ligon, with her grandparents and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Phillips of Chapel Hill and 2nd Lt. Lewis Phillips of Greenville, Miss., present.

These relatives were at the Phillips home for Janet's birthday dinner on Sunday, together with the Rev. and Mrs. James Cansler and children, Linda, David and Martha.

Dogwood Grove Has Team Floor-Work Practice Session

Dogwood Grove No. 253 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle met in regular session Wednesday night in the Woodmen hall with 11 members present. After a brief business discussion, the evening was spent in practicing team floorwork.

President Mary Scott Newton appointed the following members to serve on the nominating committee: Mrs. T. Bailey, chairman; Miss Louise Crain and Mrs. Jo Bettini.

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostesses, Mrs. Jo Bettini and Mrs. Stella Hornaday, served cake, nuts and cold drinks.

Group Gets Together For Picnic Supper

Miss Pauline Miller and Miss Flora Chapman were hostesses to a group of friends Saturday night at a picnic dinner in their backyard. The contents of picnic baskets were spread on a table, and good feasting and good fellowship followed.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Steed, Mr. and Mrs. Mark J. King, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Green, and Bob Jellison, who was down from New Hampshire for a brief stay on business.

New Hair-rivals

LINDA ANN MAURO
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Mauro, Jr., of Providence, R. I., are the parents of a daughter, Linda Ann, born August 23, weighing seven pounds, 10 ounces. Mrs. Mauro is the former Janet Menzel.

The maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Menzel of Southern Pines, were in Providence to welcome their first grandchild. They left the following day, stopping in New Jersey to visit Mrs. Menzel's relatives, and returned to Southern Pines Tuesday.

MRS. JOHN ROWLAND MASON before her marriage in Bensenville, S. C., on August 20 was Miss Carolyn Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Smith of Pinehurst. She is a graduate of Pinehurst High School and completed the one-year commercial course at Woman's College in Greensboro. She was employed by the Shearwood Travel Service in Pinehurst last winter, and is now working with the Amerotron Corporation in Aberdeen.

Mr. Mason is the son of Rowland E. Mason and the late Mrs. Mason of San Francisco, Calif. He attended the University of California for two years and is now stationed with the Army at Fort Bragg. After his discharge from the Army in January he plans to complete his studies at the University of California. Mrs. Mason will stay with her family while her husband is at Fort Bragg.

In and Out of Town

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Horner and daughter, Clara, Mrs. T. C. Vann, Ann and Thomas Vann, Jr., and Mrs. R. A. Hamel have returned from a week's vacation at Cherry Grove Beach, S. C.

Miss Margaret Bishop will leave tomorrow to spend a month at her cottage in Banner Elk.

Mrs. Dorothy Avery, county librarian, will leave on her vacation Friday. She will spend some time with her son, Isaac T. Avery, Jr., and family in Statesville, and will visit in Morganton, Lenoir, and Banner Elk.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Caudle and young son, Don, are spending a week vacationing in Florida, seeing many interesting places.

Recent guests of Mrs. Estelle Cameron were Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Cameron and daughter, Mollie, of Chapel Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Crowson Cameron and daughters, Ann and Susan of Asheville.

Elizabeth and Katherine Harris returned Friday from Stuart, Fla., where they visited their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Knepp. They spent a few days in Miami, also.

Ann Richardson of Manly returned to the State School for the Blind in Raleigh Monday, after spending the summer vacation at home. Her mother, Mrs. Eveleth Richardson, Tommy Richardson and Mrs. J. B. Cameron motored to Raleigh with her.

Mrs. Louis Honeycutt and children of Niagara and Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron and family of Asheboro spent last weekend at Myrtle Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Alwyn Folley left this week by air for a west coast trip to Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, and Vancouver, B. C. They plan to be away for about three weeks.

Mayor and Mrs. Voit Gilmore and daughters Kathy and Gerry are expected home tonight (Thursday) from a two weeks' vacation in the Virgin Islands, St. Croix and St. Thomas.

Mrs. Lee Page and Miss Page Blackmore have returned to Southern Pines after visiting Mrs. Henry Page in Gunnison, Colo.

Mrs. William Dodson and children, Roy, Elaine and Cindy, have returned to their home at 120 Vermont Avenue after an absence of four years, to stay until such time as they can join Captain Dodson, who for the past month has been stationed at Nausseur AFB, French Morocco, with the 736th AC&W Squadron. Since leaving Southern Pines the Dodsons were on Cape Cod for two years, in New Mexico for a year, and for the past year at Keesler AFB, Biloxi, Miss.

Mrs. Katherine McCall of Southern Pines, who is vacationing in Switzerland, and Miss Betty Baucum, a local girl who is with the American Embassy in Berlin, Germany, will spend this weekend together in Geneva, according to information received by the latter's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Beasley, with whom she lives while in Southern Pines. Miss Baucum is scheduled to join Mrs. McCall tomorrow (Friday) for three days.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Ray have returned from their wedding trip to the mountains of Kentucky, and are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan S. Ray, until time for the opening of the school in Greensboro of which Mr. Ray is to be a faculty member. On Tuesday they accompanied Miss Elizabeth Ray of Winston-Salem, who was a Monday overnight guest in the Ray home, to Chapel Hill, returning Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Dan S. Ray III and children, Mike, Julia Sue, and twins David and Donald, of Charlotte were at home Sunday, making the family reunion complete.

Mrs. Bert Thomas returned Friday from a month's stay with her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Woolley, Jr., and family in Lenoir.

Mr. and Mrs. David Woolley of Gould, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Neiman and son, Larry, of Oklahoma City, and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Woolley, Sr., of Centerville, Ala., left last week after spending several days visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Woolley, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Faris, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chevalier. Lloyd Woolley, Jr., of Lenoir flew here to join the family for the day Sunday. He was accompanied by Dick Matlocks, who visited his people.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patch, their son Richard and grandson Ricky Kobleur returned Sunday after a week's vacation at their cottage at Kure Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Hodul of Hillsboro were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. DuPre.

Dr. William C. Holland of Bessemer, Ala., who is attending a conference at Ridgecrest in Western North Carolina, attended the funeral of R. S. Parker this week and called on Mrs. Parker. He was formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church here.

Miss Lee Powers returned last week from a visit to her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Winkelman, in Skaneateles, N. Y. She spent a few days at Saratoga and while there saw a number of Southern Pines winter residents, including the Walsh, Tompkins, Adams and Tate families. Mrs. Winkelman and her son Peter will come to Southern Pines next week for Peter to enter the local high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Speer, Mr. and Mrs. Merle D. Speer and Donald Speer, of Wichita, Kan., visited Airman 1-c and Mrs. Merrill Bupp from Sunday to Friday of last week. They are Mrs. Bupp's parents, brothers and sister-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Irie Leonard had as their house guests several days last week her mother and cousin, Mrs. J. R. Copland, Sr., of Burlington and Miss Sylvia Andrews of Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Henry have moved from Burlington to 240 Crestview Road. Mr. Henry is with the Addressograph-Multi-graph Company, with headquarters at Greensboro. Mrs. Henry is a native of Stuttgart, Germany.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN OF CHURCH FETE YOUNG PEOPLE AT BANQUET SUNDAY

Honoring the Presbyterian young people who will be going away to various schools and colleges, Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church held a banquet in the fellowship hall at 6:30 Sunday evening, with around 23 young people in attendance. Circle 8, served the dinner.

Tables, arranged banquet style, were decorated in the school colors, and place cards marked the seating arrangement.

John Ray, president of the Youth Fellowship, presided, and Mrs. Avery Evans welcomed the group. Miss Saradee Davis, director of religious education, in behalf of the church, presented to each student a testament with his name engraved in gold letters. The pastor, the Rev. C. K. Ligon spoke earnestly on "Taking Christ to the Campus."

Honorees present, with the schools in which they will study, include: Joe Marley, Jr., and James Collins, University of North Carolina; Donald Van Benschoten, Guilford College; Dorothy Newton, Peace; Kathryn Ann Dwight, Woman's College; and Joe Steed, The Citadel.

Absentee honorees were: Donald Burney, Guilford College; Alex McLeod, Princeton University; George Morrison, University of North Carolina; John McMillan, Hill Preparatory School in Pennsylvania; Elmer Renegar, University of North Carolina; Roy Newton and David Bailey, N. C. State College; and Tony Leonard, Woodberry Forest.

INS and OUTS

Mrs. W. A. Moore entered Moore County Hospital on Wednesday of last week and underwent surgery Thursday. She is getting along satisfactorily and expects to get home in another week. Her daughter Mrs. John E. Daniel of Union City, N. J., came last Thursday to be with her.

L. L. Woolley was a patient at Moore County Hospital the first of the week, and came home Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Dirk Verhooff and family have moved from McCain to the Woods house at the Southern Pines Cottages on Hy. 1 south in order that the daughter and son, Anike and Roger, may continue their studies in the Southern Pines High School, which they attended last year. Dr. Verhooff, formerly on the State Sanatorium staff at McCain has gone to the Mecklenburg Sanatorium at Charlotte.

W. B. (Chick) Holliday entered Moore County Hospital Sunday for treatment. He is getting along well and expects to return home the latter part of the week.

The Rev. and Mrs. Covell returned Wednesday night from a vacation trip to New Hampshire and other places, as told in detail elsewhere in today's Pilot.

The rector has been in Southern Pines since November, 1949. He submitted his resignation to the vestry of the local church in June. At Christ Church Parish in Virginia, he will serve as chaplain at Christchurch School for Boys, in addition to his regular duties with the parish.

Charles V. Covell, Jr., who will soon begin his sophomore year at the University of North Carolina, will not be present at the Sunday event because he is still working at a summer job in New London, N. H.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

Charles V. Covell, Jr., who will soon begin his sophomore year at the University of North Carolina, will not be present at the Sunday event because he is still working at a summer job in New London, N. H.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

There will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

Covells Return After Vacation

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles V. Covell and daughter, Alice, returned Wednesday night from a three weeks' vacation. They went first to Nags Head for a week, but stayed only six days, as Hurricane Connie moved in, then went to New England for 11 days, staying at Loch Haven, Meredith, N. H. There Mr. Covell was in charge of a conference program. They made trips to New London, N. H., to see their son, Charles, who is employed there for the summer. Returning, they visited Mr. Covell's father, W. S. Covell, in Washington, D. C.

Charles Covell will come home next week and will return to the University of North Carolina for his sophomore year.

Reception Sunday To Honor Rector Leaving Sept. 9

The Rev. Charles V. Covell, who is leaving Southern Pines Friday of next week to become rector of Christ Church, Middlesex County, Va., will conduct his last service as rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church at 10 a. m. Sunday, with Holy Communion and sermon.

Immediately after the service, there will be an informal reception for the rector, Mrs. Covell and their 15-year-old daughter, Alice, in the Parish Hall. Friends of the Covells, whether or not they are members of Emmanuel Church, are invited to attend the service and reception.

Charles V. Covell, Jr., who will soon begin his sophomore year at the University of North Carolina, will not be present at the Sunday event because he is still working at a summer job in New London, N. H.

The Rev. and Mrs. Covell returned Wednesday night from a vacation trip to New Hampshire and other places, as told in detail elsewhere in today's Pilot.

The rector has been in Southern Pines since November, 1949. He submitted his resignation to the vestry of the local church in June. At Christ Church Parish in Virginia, he will serve as chaplain at Christchurch School for Boys, in addition to his regular duties with the parish.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE PILOT MOORE COUNTY'S LEADING NEWS WEEKLY.

HAYES BOOK SHOP

1904 1955

PHARMACISTS to the Medical Profession

Ask Your Doctor About Our Store

OPEN SUNDAY

24-Hour Prescription Service

Broad Street Pharmacy

PHARMACISTS ON DUTY

Jerry Rhodes Joe Montesanti, Jr., Prop.

Day Phone 2-5411