Church Service

Attention is called to the change in time of the church service at the Vass Presbyterian Church Sunday. The service will be held at 9:30, before Sunday School, in order that the pastor, the Rev. Raymond Gau, may conduct an 11 o'clock service at Union Church.

Circle Meetings

Mrs. Hugh McLean, the chairman, presided when Presbyterian Circle 1 met last week at the home of Mrs. Herbert Caddell, and Mrs. R. A. Edwards led the Bible study. Mrs. Billy Jessup was in charge of the program. The meeting closed with a refreshment period.

The Jane McGill Circle of the Vass Presbyterian Women of the Church held its September meeting at the home of Mrs. Ben H. Wood, with Mrs. Delmas Kimball, vice-chairman, presiding. Mrs. C. G. Crockett led the Bible study and Mrs. N. N. McLean was program leader, with Mrs. Leon Keith and Mrs. D. F. Cameron taking part. The hostess served refreshments.

Move To Vanceboro

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Loftin and children, Barry, Grant, Sandra and Genia, left Monday to make their home in Vanceboro, where Mr. Loftin has accepted a position with a lumber company. The Loftins had resided in Vass for the past 12 years, during which time he was with Futrell Brothers Lumber Company. The children attended Vass-Lakeview School and members of the family were active in the Baptist Church.

Church Supper

The Building Committee of the Vass Baptist Church will sponsor a chicken stew and fish fry supper at the Vass Community House on Saturday, October 1, to benefit the building fund. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 8:30. The Baptists have a new educational building under way.
