

Rain Hampers Local Tennis Matches; Play Will Continue Saturday, Sunday

Men's tennis matches held Sunday afternoon on the town courts were interrupted by rain shortly after they began, with all four courts in play, and a good turnout of players waiting to take part.

Rain cut off the women's contest Saturday afternoon also, but not until four singles matches had been reeled off. Two doubles matches were interrupted by weather, both with tied scores. One ended after the first set with score tied at 7 to 7 for Kim MacKim and Pat Van Camp playing against Cathy Gilmore and Sarah Garrison. In the other, Martha Underwood and Danny Devins, Lillian Bullock and Margaret Hobbs, had each copped a set, for a 6-4, 4-6 tie.

The matches will continue this weekend and next, with the women playing Saturday afternoon, men Sunday, and everyone invited to participate. Teams are headed by Martha Underwood and Margaret Hobbs for the women, Wayne Harrison and Charles Phillips for the men. Play starts about 1:30 p.m. Women's singles played Saturday were as follows: Lillian Bullock beat Martha Underwood, 6-4, 6-0; Danny Devins beat Margaret Hobbs, 6-2, 6-2; Eloise Whitesell beat Kim MacKim, 6-1, 6-4; Pat Van Camp beat Sarah Garrison, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3.

Raleigh Music Group Memberships Available

The Raleigh Civic Music Association will present seven concerts by soloists, symphonic, and choral organizations on its 1955-56 concert series, and will also include a performance by the famous Ballet Theatre, according to Charles Stephenson, Jr., president of the association. A number of persons in this area are members of the Association.

Anyone wanting to hear the series of programs may join Civic Music. Memberships are open to all, but are available only until the membership deadline, Saturday, October 1. No single tickets will be sold for the concerts, and admission to the programs will be by membership card only.

Plans Made For F.H.A. Fall Rally Here October 11

The executive council of the Future Homemakers of America of Moore County met in the Carthage High School Homemaking department Monday to make plans for the year's work.

Plans were made for the fall rally to be held in the Southern Pines School October 11. This is to be a recreational rally with all chapters in the county present.

The Moore County F. H. A. will have an officer's workshop in Robbins October 17. Officers from the local chapters will attend this workshop and their duties will be discussed.

A booth at the Moore County Fair is being planned with the theme, "The Pure Food and Drug Act". Each chapter in the county will contribute to the booth.

Carthage F. H. A. served refreshments to the group. Chapters represented were: Robbins, Carthage, Cameron, Vass-Lakeview, Farm Life, Pinehurst, Southern Pines, West End, and Aberdeen. Chapter advisors also attended.

CAP Cadets From Sandhills Visit Greensboro Group

The Southern Pines-Pinehurst squadron of Civil Air Patrol Cadets went to a meeting of the Greensboro squadron on Tuesday night. The boys boarded a big Air Force Bus at the Railroad Station in Southern Pines and in front of the post office in Pinehurst. With one stop to eat, they arrived at Greensboro in time to observe the Greensboro unit in their drill practice and then accompanied the boys from Greensboro to their formal meeting quarters and were on hand to observe the manner in which this squadron of cadets held their meetings.

They were met and escorted to the meeting place by Lt. Col. Linton Upshur, Group 2 CAP Commander. As they left the bus, they were greeted by Col. Upshur, Capt. Bunting, head of all cadets in the state, and Cadet Capt. Thomas of the Greensboro squadron.

Driver of the bus was Sgt. Cecil Van Hoy of the USAF Air Ground Operations School. The Cadets' executive officer, Charles F. Baker of Southern Pines, accompanied them on the trip, in the absence of the commander and was in charge of the group.

BUILDING LAWN

In most of North Carolina the fall months are the best time of the year to build permanent lawns because the young grasses get a chance to become well established before next summer's heat and dry weather. If you are interested in building a new lawn this fall you should write to the N. C. Agricultural Extension Service for John Harris's bulletin on "Carolina Lawns".
