Famous Golfers Guests At Pine Needles And Mid-Pines This Week

Wiffi Smith of St. Clair, Mich., the 1955 finalist in the North and South Invitation Golf Championship for Women in Pinehurst, is here to defend her title this week and is a guest at the Pine Needles clubhouse. Helen Sigel Wilson, another top amateur is also there, as is Floria Feeth, outstanding professional golfer, who will be a spectator at the matches.

Guests at the Mid-Pines Club and participating in the tournament are Barbara Romack of Sacramento, Cal., North and South champion in 1952 and former U. S. Champion; and Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore, Md.

Dr. Hollister On Examining Board At Duke This Week

Dr. William F. Hollister, surgeon at the Moore County Hospital, acted as one of the examiners at the oral examinations given at Duke Medical School this week for candidates for the American Board of Surgery. The examinations took place on Monday and Tuesday and there were 96 candidates, mostly from the southern states, who appeared before a board which included 12 examiners from throughout the United States and 12 men from Duke.

Julius Boros and Family Arrive For Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Boros have arrived from New York, bringing with them their new daughter, Joy Armen, just 12 days old. They have taken an apartment in The Cloverleaf at Pinehurst for a month or so. Mrs. Boros is the former Armen Boyle of Miami, Fla. They have a young son, Jay Nicholas, four and a half years old, who is Mr. Boros' son by his first marriage to the late Mrs. Ann Cosgrove Boros, who died when Jay was born.

Bird Club Has Indoor Meeting This Week

Tuesday's rain brought all the bird lovers to an indoor gathering, when the Southern Pines Bird Club held its weekly meeting. Mrs. Leslie Wotton gave a very interesting talk about the birds seen on a recent trip to Florida when she listed 73 species. A field trip, weather permitting, is planned for next week when members and their guests will go by car to Weymouth Heights. Everyone interested in birds is cordially invited to join the group at 9:30 a. m. at 160 South Bennett St.

The Thistle Club held its regular meeting last Wednesday afternoon with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Broadus Smith on Connecticut Avenue. High scorers were Mrs. Mel Johnson, Mrs. James Douglas, Mrs. J. D. Sitterson, Mrs. J. G. deBerry and Mrs. Arthur H. Eakins. The next meeting will be a white elephant party with a dessert bridge at 1:20 at Mrs. Smith's home.

St. Mary's Guild To Have Two Speakers For Meeting

St. Mary's Guild of Emmanuel Church will meet on Monday, March 19 at 3 o'clock in the Parish Hall. There will be two speakers, Miss Irene Peirson, president of the Raleigh Council of United Church Women and Miss Ruth Wilson, the president-elect. They will speak on work for migrants in North Carolina and how the offering of the World Day of Prayer is spent, and other phases of the work of United Church Women. Everyone is welcome to attend—any denomination. Following the meeting tea will be served.

RACES BRING MANY VISITORS HERE FOR WEEK-END OF FESTIVITIES AND GAIETY

Spring has arrived in the Sandhills and our village is full of visitors enjoying the wonderful warm days. This week-end will bring many racing enthusiasts to town to attend, not only the races on Saturday, but the round of festivities connected with them. There will be a large cocktail party at the Pine Needles clubhouse on Friday afternoon. Following the races at Stonebrook on Saturday, the racing crowd will gather again at the Pine Needles that evening for the annual dinner and dance. Both of these affairs will be highlights of the social season and will be attended by numerous visitors here this weekend. General and Mrs. A. V. Arnold and General and Mrs. Ira T. Wyche will be hosts at a large luncheon party at the Arnold home on Young's Road before the races. On Sunday afternoon, at the Winkelman farm, Lakelawn, an informal schooling show will be held and everyone is welcome, according to Mrs. Dwight W. Winkelman.

Mrs. Audrey Kennedy will have Mr. and Mrs. George N. Kaye of New York City as her guests for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Earle of Deerfield, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wall of Asheville will be with the John C. Ostrom's at their home, The Corral. Visiting Mrs. Marion Brawley on Morganton Road will be Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taylor of Asheville and Mr. and Mrs. Carter Henry of Greenville, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Page, Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Frech and Michael Page of Charlotte will be guests for the day on Saturday of the George Leonards. Mrs. Page is the former Laura Butterfield of Pinehurst, sister of Mrs. Leonard and Jesse is a brother of Chan Page of Southern Pines.

Mr. and Mrs. George Staff of Shrub Oak, N. Y., will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hines, Jr., at their home on Highland Road and Miss Myrna Selvey of Richmond, Va., will be here for the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John C. Goodwin, Jr., on Midland Road. Miss Selvey is a student at Converse College in Spartanburg. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Winkelman will have house guests also, among them Miss Caroline Coates of Skaneateles, N. Y., and their son, Cappy, both students at Syracuse University.

The Winkelmans have had as their guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harper of Devon, Pa., who flew here in their plane from Palm Beach. They will leave on Monday for their home in Devon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stark S. Dillard and daughter, Dorothy of Greensboro will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Reams to attend the races.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Flory on Highland Road will be Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Dunsford of Old Greenwich, Conn., Mr. Philip Schwartz and Mr. Morgan Aldrich of Suffield, Conn. They, with Mr. Flory's mother and sister, Mrs. C. Flory and Alexandra of England, who are also house guests, will witness the races at Stonebrook.

DINNER DANCE AT DUNES CLUB GAY AND LIVELY AND FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Over $1600 was realized from the benefit dinner-dance at the Dunes Club on Monday evening, when the Woman's Auxiliary of the Moore County Hospital entertained over 100 members and friends at a brilliant social gathering. Mrs. Gordon Clark of Southern Pines was winner of one of the door prizes—a handsome sweater, skirt and blouse ensemble donated by Amerotron. Capt. Alex Roberts of Pinehurst won the electric clock which the Carolina Power and Light company had given, and Miss Marjorie Robinson of Pinehurst was the happy girl who held the lucky ticket for the $100 bill. Miss Robinson is employed by Ray's Sport Shop in Pinehurst.

A fine dinner, followed by the regular floor show, was the program for the evening which was given—free of all expense—by James Warman of the Dunes Club. This is an annual custom of the club to give to each of the two hospitals in this section, one evening to raise funds for their auxiliaries.

Mrs. William F. Hollister was chairman of the committee in charge of ticket sales and other phases connected with the affair. She was assisted by Mrs. Robert M. McMillan, Mrs. Gordon Clark, Mrs. Harold Peck and Mrs. Hoke Pollock of Southern Pines; Mrs. John S. Zelle and Mrs. Michael Pishko of Pinehurst and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson of Aberdeen. Mrs. Johnson is president of the auxiliary.

New Heir-rivals

CHARLES BURTON MARTIN
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Martin of Manly announce the birth of a son, Charles Burton on Sunday, March 4 at the Moore County Hospital. His weight was seven pounds, six ounces. The Martins have two other children, Becky age 6 and Larry who is 3.

FRANKLIN SUTTON WELDON
Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Weldon are the proud parents of a second son, Franklin Sutton, born on Wednesday, March 7 at St. Joseph in the Pines. Mrs. Weldon is the former Louise Cosgrove, daughter of the Frank Cosgroves. The Weldons live on Midland Road and they have an older son, Dana who is four years old and a little girl, Ellen, two.

Junior Woman's Club To Conduct Weekly Tours

The Junior Woman's Club voted to conduct weekly tours for new students at the Air Ground School, showing them many of the places of interest in the Sandhills. This was decided upon at the monthly meeting held on Tuesday evening at the Jefferson Inn. Mrs. Cheves Ligon, president, presided. Dr. W. C. Timmons, pastor of the Church of Wide Fellowship, gave an excellent talk about "The Religious Factor of the Family." Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Ligon, Mrs. Charles Cole and Mrs. Joseph Marley.

Organ Meditations At Church On Sunday

The last of the organ meditations, which have been held at the Church of Wide Fellowship, will take place this Sunday evening from 7:15 to 7:45. Mrs. Harry Chatfield and Roger Gibbs will be the soloists. On Palm Sunday, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the choir will sing the "Seven Last Words" by Dubois.

Duplicate Bridge Club Lists Winners This Week

The Sandhills Duplicate Bridge Club met on Tuesday evening at the Southern Pines Country Club, with six and one-half tables in play. North and South winners were: first, Mrs. Lamont Brown and Mrs. Jean Edson; second, Mrs. Roy Grinnell and Mr. E. A. Christian; third, Mr. and Mrs. William Appel. East and West: first, Mrs. I. F. Horton and Mrs. James Pleasants; second, Miss Katherine Wiley and Mrs. Neill McKeithen; third, Mrs. John Neal and Mrs. Harwood Bowman.

Next Tuesday evening the group will meet again for the monthly master point game.

Tommy Richardson Has Birthday Celebration

Tommy Richardson was six years old last Thursday and celebrated the big event with a birthday party, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eveleth Richardson in Manly. There was a beautifully decorated cake—with ice cream and candy—for the little folks, after they had spent the afternoon playing games. Tommy's guests were Jane and Kay Honeycutt, Tommy Wilson, Jerry Monroe, Mike, Eileen and Gerald Allen, Donnie Smith, Lynn Kelly, Becky Martin, John Chisholm and Susie West.

Methodist Circle Meets With Mrs. Hiatt

Mrs. Joseph S. Hiatt, Jr. was hostess to circle 1 of the Southern Pines Methodist Church on Tuesday morning at her home on Midland Road. Mrs. J. A. Loudermilk, chairman, presided over the meeting which was attended by 12 members. The program was presented by Mrs. Pollard who gave the last of the five Spiritual Classics.

Following the program, a baby shower was given for Mrs. John W. Langford, Jr. The hostess served a salad course and coffee.

GIRL SCOUT WEEK—Mrs. Audrey K. Kennedy, president of the four-county Central Carolina Girl Scout Council (seated) received from Connie Pierce, a Troop 53 patrol leader, a daisy symbolic of Juliette Lowe, founder of the Girl Scouts in the United States. At right is Mrs. Mildred Merrill, leader of Troop 53, one of the local troops that is joining others over the nation in observance of Girl Scout Week March 11-17. Funds raised from sales of daisies each year are used for restoration of the Juliette Lowe home at Savannah, Ga. In connection with the observance, there is a Girl Scout window at Welch's Gift Shop, displaying activities of local Troop No. 1, registered in 1920, of which Mrs. Garland A. Pierce, mother of Connie, was a member. Mrs. Merrill joined the troop as a Scout in 1921. The window display also depicts Troop 53 activities in recent years. A birthday cake in the display marks the 44th anniversary of Girl Scouting. Troop 53 was hostess to the two local intermediate troops, 64 and 50, and their leaders, and also Browne Troop 66, Wednesday afternoon at the Girl Scout meeting place at the W. D. Campbell home, for a special Girl Scout Week program. (Pilot Photo)

RAZOOK'S TO PRESENT SPRING FASHION SHOW MONDAY EVENING AT THE CAROLINA

"Spring Fashion Promenade" is the name of the colorful Spring Fashion Show to be staged by Razook's, Inc. in the ballroom of the Carolina hotel on Monday evening, March 19. This annual event is given by Razook's for the benefit of the Moore County Hospital in Pinehurst and St. Joseph of the Pines in Southern Pines. The show will begin at 8:45 and around the clock fashions from prominent designers—Trainsa Norrell, Ben Reig, Trigere, Balmain and others—will be shown by over a dozen models.

Besides the Pinehurst establishment, which has grown during the years to one of the state's most exclusive fashion salons, Razook's has shops in Lake Placid, Palm Beach and New York City.

From Charlotte will come Miss Anne Parrish, fashion editor of the Charlotte Observer, who will be the commentator. Miss Parrish is especially fitted for this, due to her outstanding features of fashion in the Charlotte paper every day.

Mrs. Dwight W. Winkelman of Southern Pines and Mrs. Proctor Winter of New York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thornton MacDonald of Pinehurst, will be among the models. Other models will include Mrs. A. Grant Whitney, Mrs. Kenneth Powell, Miss Mary Rachel Harris and Miss Suzanne Summerville, all of Charlotte; and Mrs. L. D. Buford, Mrs. W. E. Stemple, Mrs. L. A. Williams, Mrs. B. M. Thompson and Mrs. Henri Frederik Frank of Ft. Bragg. All these ladies will lend a distinctive air to the affair as they have modeled at various other fashion shows.

Brownie Scouts Enjoy Hike and Wiener Roast

A family of baby snakes found on the bank of the Davis lake provided enough excitement for the Brownie Scouts, Troop 82 on last Saturday morning when they were on a field trip and hike. With their leaders, Mrs. William T. Huntley and Mrs. Harold Tate, the girls had a fine outing which ended with a wiener roast at the home of Mrs. W. P. Davis. On Sunday morning, in observance of Girl Scout Week, 22 members of the troop attended the First Baptist Church with their leaders.

DAR To Hold Meeting Saturday At Lillington

The regular monthly meeting of the DAR, postponed a week because of the convention in Asheville, will take place this Saturday, March 17 at the new girls' dormitory at Campbell College near Lillington.

Preceding the meeting, at 12:45 there will be a special memorial service for Mrs. Watson at Haywood Cemetery, Moncure, to place a marker. A musical and tea will follow the regular business and special board meeting.

MISS AUDREY WEST BROWN is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Brown of Southern Pines, who announce her engagement to Harvey B. Johnson of Burlington, son of Mrs. Vera V. Johnson of Elizabethton, Tenn. The wedding is planned for June 16.
