MOORE COUNTY CLASSROOM TEACHERS HOLD BANQUET MEETING AT CARTHAGE

The Moore County Classroom Teacher's Association held its annual banquet in the school cafeteria at Carthage Wednesday evening of last week in connection with the final business meeting of the school year, which included the formal installation of 1956-57 officers.

Miss Meade Seawell gave the invocation, and Mrs. Shields Cameron, the retiring president, welcomed the members and guests and reviewed briefly the work of the past year and the planned objectives of the association for the coming year. Mrs. Barbara Blake, secretary, and Mrs. Margaret Shields, treasurer, gave reports.

Mrs. Francis M. Dwight as program chairman presented Mrs. M. C. McDonald, Jr., of West End and Mrs. M. J. McPhail of Carthage in a delightful program of music.

Featured speaker was Bert Ishee, principal of Fayetteville High School and past president of the North Carolina Education Association. Introduced by County Superintendent H. Lee Thomas,

Mr. Ishee reviewed the work of the association which he formerly headed and commented on the cooperation it had received from the Classroom Teacher's Association. He outlined a program for future work of the two associations which he hopes will carry on educational progress in North Carolina despite the uncertainty as to the future that has been aroused by the consolidation program.

The following officers were installed: president, Mrs. Robert Tomlinson; vice-president, Mrs. Ruth Ferguson; recording secretary, Miss Blanche Monroe; treasurer, Mrs. Katherine McDonald; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Florence Kennedy.

A springtime theme was used for the banquet, with decorations of spring flowers and attractive program booklets decorated with parasols suggestive of April showers. A fried chicken dinner was served.

Closing feature of the evening was the group singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

BUFFET SUPPER AT GORDON-MANN HOME FETES MISS MESSERVY, ROBERT MCLEOD

Honoring Robert McLeod of Carthage, S. C., son of Dr. Vida McLeod of Southern Pines, and his fiancée, Miss Jean Messervy of John's Island, S. C., Mrs. Edward Gordon-Mann and her son, Jordan Frassinetti, entertained 32 guests at a buffet supper Saturday night at their home in Knollwood.

Sharing honors with the couple-elect were the Rev. and Mrs. Lewis Hodgkins of Ketchikan, Alaska, who are here on their first visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hodgkins, since their wedding in Oregon last June.

The buffet table was covered with an embroidered cloth and centered with a large arrangement of pastel snapdragons, delphinium and baby's breath. Roses were used on smaller tables at which guests were seated and elsewhere in the rooms.

Luncheon sets were presented to Miss Messervy and Mrs. Hodgkins by the hostess at the close of the delightful evening.

Baptist Circles Hold Meetings

Circle 2 of the First Baptist Church met with Mrs. H. H. Thompson Tuesday night with 10 members present. Mrs. R. L. Chandler, Sr., conducted the devotions, Mrs. Thompson led a prayer, and Mrs. C. B. Gale and Mrs. William Dale presented the program, entitled "Mission Volunteers from My Church."

Mrs. Henry Clayton was hostess to Circle 3 Tuesday night. Fourteen members attended, and Mrs. Fouts of Birmingham, Ala., mother of the circle chairman, Mrs. Duke Bradford, was a guest. It was reported that a 100-pound box of clothing had been sent to a missionary for distribution to Indians. Mrs. W. C. Darden gave the program which dealt with mission volunteers and the topic "We Help to Answer Our Own Prayers."

Fifteen members were present for the meeting of Circle 4, held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Irene Hussey, with Mrs. Lester Greer presenting the regular program on mission volunteers.

Postponing Trip To Lake, Bird Club Looks For Warblers

As the weather was not pleasant Tuesday morning, the Bird Club postponed its trip to Thaggard's Lake for a week, hoping for a better day. The members took a short walk to the former bird sanctuary where warblers were likely to be found, and find them they did, making a list of 25 species of birds including the black-throated blue warbler, the parula warbler, redstart and orchard oriole.

All who are interested in birds are invited to join the group at 9:30 next Tuesday morning at headquarters, 160 South Bennett Street.

Two Hostesses Give Shower For Mrs. Lewis, Bride-Elect of Sunday

Honoring Mrs. Harriet Lewis, whose marriage to Cecil D. Grubb will take place at 3 p.m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church, Mrs. D. E. McDonald and Mrs. Ralph Mills, fellow members of the staff of Patch's, entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the McDonald home recently.

Upon arrival the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Lela Lawrence, were presented corsages. Games were played prior to the presentation of the shower. A white parasol was over the shower gifts, which were arranged on a white-covered table. Included were many beautiful items, which the honoree opened and acknowledged.

Guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink dogwood flanked by green candles. These colors with white were repeated in the decorations of the cake, which had lily of the valley trim. Punch, cake, nuts and mints were served, with Mrs. Ralph Mills pouring punch and Mrs. Eugene Lee slicing the cake.

Guests were: Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Lawrence; Mrs. Florence Edwards; Mrs. A. E. Cheatham, Mrs. W. C. Haines, Mrs. Chester Maready, Mrs. A. L. Richey, Mrs. A. O. Monroe, Mrs. Mary Hendricks, Miss Elizabeth Ann Darby, Mrs. Raymond Wilson, Mrs. Fred Woodruff.

Ninth Grades With Their Teachers Feted At Outdoor Party

The combined ninth grades, with their homeroom teachers, W. A. Leonard and Lynn Ledden, were given a party Wednesday evening of last week at the Aberdeen lake by their grade mothers and several assistants. The young people, over 50 in all, were treated to a hamburger supper with all the trimmings—plus homemade cake for dessert.

They arrived full force about 5:30—some in the activities bus with Mr. Ledden at the wheel, others in cars and station wagons—and spent an hour or so playing soft ball and miniature golf. Golf was the best feature of the evening's entertainment, as Mrs. Dwight Winkelman had arranged beforehand for the entire grade to be her son Peter's guests for all the games they wished to play. Mr. Bowman, Aberdeen School athletic director, turned on the lights and opened the "juke box" on the lakeside, for dancing. So it was a very merry evening for all participating, with those engaged in helping having just as much fun as the boys and girls.

Mrs. Ledden and Mrs. Leonard came down to join the party. Joe Steed and David Gamble were the "grade fathers" enlisted for the heavy work, and, thanks to Mr. Steed's ingenuity in installing two electric grills, the hamburgers were cooked to a turn with very little effort on the cooks' part.

The hostesses were Mrs. J. B. Tollison, Mrs. Winkelman, Mrs. Cy Butler, Mrs. Andrew Jamison, Mrs. Joe Steed, Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. Charles Rowe, Mrs. Alton Scott, Mrs. David Gamble, Mrs. C. D. May, Mrs. Broadus Smith, Mrs. Earl Parker, Mrs. Marvin Wicker and Mrs. Paul Butler.

Drove 42, BPO Does, met Tuesday night at the Elks Home with the president, Mrs. Curtis Everette, presiding. The group elected Mrs. Hubert Cameron as alternate delegate to the Grand Lodge convention to be held in Cheyenne, Wyo., next month, and made plans for a Mother-Daughter banquet at the Country Club on May 9.

The Does were joined by the Elks for a social hour.

MISS SARAH ELIZABETH POOLE IS WED TO MR. DAVIS; WILL LIVE IN RICHMOND

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Poole of Richmond, Va., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hawley Poole of West End, became the bride of Paul H. Davis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Danville, Va., at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 28.

The vows were spoken in the Jackson Springs Presbyterian Church with the Rev. James Benjamin, pastor of Dogwood Acres Presbyterian Church in Ashboro, as the officiating minister.

The church was decorated with baskets of white and pink gladioli and spirea, interspersed with candelabra holding lighted candles.

Mrs. M. C. McDonald, Jr., of West End presented a program of organ music prior to the ceremony and played softly while the vows were being exchanged.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of lace and tulle. The fitted lace bodice had a scooped-effect neckline outlined with a bertha, and long fitted sleeves. Lace motifs trimmed the tulle skirt. She wore an elbow length veil and carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Betty Burton of Norfolk, Va., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ann Booker of Smithfield, Miss Betty Booker of Selma, and Miss Carrie Ann Poole of Candor. All the attendants wore dresses of pale pink and carried bouquets of American Beauty roses.

Martin Choate of Danville, Va., was best man for Mr. Davis, and H. B. Abernathy and Bill Anderson of Richmond, Va., and Daniel O'Quinn of Eagle Springs were ushers.

Mrs. Poole chose for her daughter's wedding a turquoise lace dress with matching hat and the groom's mother was dressed in a pale blue nylon chiffon. Both wore corsages of orchids.

Following the wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Poole gave a reception at their home. Guests were received at the front door by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Poole of Carthage and presented to the receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, the bride and groom and their attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Poole of Mt. Airy directed the guests to the dining room where Mrs. Bob VonCanon received. Mrs. Henry Lee Boney of Selma presided over the punch bowl. The dining table was decorated with a lace cloth over pink, centered with an arrangement of pink roses, snapdragons, carnations and fern, flanked with pink candles.

Decorated bridal cakes, mints and nuts were served by Mrs. Everette Cole, Mrs. John Henry Hinson and Miss Peggy Booker. Mrs. Edward Booker directed the guests to the bride's register. Receiving in the gift room were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Poole, and Miss Mary Booker said the goodbyes.

For traveling the bride changed to a navy dress of imported silk shantung, with light blue accessories. After a two-week trip the couple will be at home in Richmond.
