

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

Lt. Ruggles and Family, After Visiting Here, Leave For Oklahoma

First Lt. John S. Ruggles, Jr., left last Sunday with his wife and three-year-old daughter en route to Fort Sill, Okla., where he has been assigned to the Army's first Surface to Surface Guided Missiles School for a period of nine months.

For the past four weeks, Lt. Ruggles and his family were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ruggles, at their home here. Their trip to Oklahoma started with a visit to his mother, who was a patient at Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill, and to relatives in Durham, Raleigh, and Kingsport, Tenn.

Col. And Mrs. Cupello Entertain Large Group At Highland Pines

Col. Albert Cupello, director of Military Training (Army), who recently received his promotion to full Colonel, and Mrs. Cupello entertained approximately 65 friends at cocktails at the Officers' Club, Highland Pines Inn, from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday. The beautifully decorated table held an attractive array of hors d'oeuvres and sandwiches in wide variety. The Colonel received congratulations and many good wishes from his friends.

Katherine Harriss Gives Dinner Party To Celebrate Birthday

In celebration of her 16th birthday, Miss Katherine Harriss entertained several friends at a buffet dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barrett Harriss, Wednesday of last week. A pink and white color scheme was effectively carried out by the use of a centerpiece of gladioli in these colors, candelabra holding pink and white candles, and a decorated birthday cake.

Katherine's guests were Misses Nancy Jo Traylor, Janice Holliday, Grace Dupree, Dolores Marready, Glenda Caviness of Aberdeen, Marilyn Mills of Pinebluff, and Tina Smith and Becky Ballard of Pinehurst.

Local Families Attend Family Gathering To Honor Grandmother

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. M. G. McRae and daughter, Carolyn Jean, attended a family reunion at Broadway Sunday in celebration of the 89th birthday of Mrs. Joanna Rosser, maternal grandmother of Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. McRae. Their mother, Mrs. T. C. McFarland, was unable to go. A picnic dinner was enjoyed at the noon hour.

Mrs. Julie Devine Of Hartford Feted At Wiener Roast

Honoring Mrs. Julie Devine of Hartford, Conn., who was visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Wylie of Pinebluff, a wiener roast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maze with the following additional guests attending: Mrs. Mattie Rice, Bennie and Buddy Thomas, Mrs. Gussie Gibson and Miss Lidia Hutchin, all of Pinebluff, and Mr. and Mrs. David McCallum, David McCallum, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard McNeill, of Southern Pines.

This was Mrs. Devine's first return to this section in 25 years and she noted many changes.

Church Women Hear Program On Use Of Leisure Time

The use of leisure time was the subject discussed by Mrs. J. W. Causey, chairman of Church Extension, when Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church held their monthly general meeting Monday night at the church. Mrs. Causey, who was leader of the program, also showed a film by Dr. Elliott entitled "Put God First In Our Leisure Time."

Mrs. George Heinitz, president, presided.

Looking Ahead

EXECUTIVE BOARD
The executive board of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church will meet in the church parlor at 8 p.m., Monday.

LEARN MORE CLASS
The Learn More Bible Class will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. M. B. Arnold.

MRS. NOEL SOKOLOFF

WEDDING SERVICE SATURDAY IN MAINE UNITES NANCY BOYD AND MR. SOKOLOFF

Miss Nancy Boyd and Noel Sokoloff were married at 4 p.m. Saturday, August 18, in Sorrento, Maine, summer home of her parents, Mrs. James Boyd and the late Mr. Boyd.

The wedding service was performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry Pitney Van Dusen, president of Union Theological Seminary, and held in the large log cabin by the sea built by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Daniel S. Lamont, for chamber music recitals.

The bride was given in marriage by her older brother, James Boyd, Jr. Mr. Sokoloff had his brother, Martin Sokoloff, as his best man. Daniel L. Boyd, who flew from California for the event, lit the candles on the high stone mantel banked with greens, before which the ceremony was performed.

Decorated with fir and balsam from the woods, field flowers and daisies, the large high room was lit by the late afternoon sun, reflected again from the sea beyond the many windows.

The bride, wearing a gown of soft satin of simple design and a short tulle veil, descended the long stairs on the arm of her brother, being preceded by a few moments by her four closest friends, Mrs. Walter Paine of Seal Cove, Maine, Mrs. John Quincy Adams of Dover, Mass., Mrs. Michael Lanin of New York, and Mrs. Donald Morris of Washington, D. C., who guided two little girls, Alison Montgomery, the bride's second cousin, and Alexandra Sokoloff, the groom's niece, as they made an aisle with white ribbon through the assembled gathering.

Dr. Van Dusen, clad in the scarlet vestments conferred on him by the Divinity School of Edinburgh, Scotland, read the Episcopal service.

MRS. CARRIE HIGGINS IS HONORED ON 91st BIRTHDAY BY TWO BAPTIST GROUPS

The Adelaide King Bible Class and the Dorothy Wonderly Circle of the Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church honored Mrs. Carrie Higgins Saturday afternoon on her 91st birthday at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lewis, with whom she resides.

They presented the honoree a two tiered cake, beautifully decorated and complete with candles, and many useful gifts, along with hearty good wishes. Cake and ice cream were served.

Mrs. Higgins, who attended the Baptist Church until recently, has been spending the winters in Southern Pines for the past 10 years. She lived in Littleton, N.H. for over 40 years—in the same house. It has been her custom to go back in the summers, first to her own home and later, after selling it, to visit relatives and friends, but this year she did not feel equal to taking the trip, having had a lot of trouble with her eyes.

But the friends and kinspeople back home did not forget her birthday. She received cards and gifts from them, and these, along with the flowers and other remembrances showered upon her by her local friends and relatives, made her birthday a most happy occasion for her.

BREAKS ARM

Jeanie Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Butler of Midland Road, fell while with her mother in Aberdeen Monday afternoon and fractured her left arm in two places near the wrist. In Jeanie's case the fact that it is her left arm does not help, as she is left handed. However, with her arm in a cast, she is doing fine and expects to be in her place when school opens.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Collins have returned from a vacation spent in the mountains and at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Mrs. Raymond Evans Honors Husband At Birthday Dinner

As a birthday surprise for her husband, Mrs. Raymond Evans invited his brothers and sisters, several other relatives, and friends to their home on Lobelia Road, Vass, last Sunday, where an outdoor dinner was enjoyed.

Mr. Evans was presented a number of gifts. His birthday and their fifth wedding anniversary were only two days apart, so the occasion was one of added meaning.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bailey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Blue, Mrs. Herman Thomas and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Blue and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Evans and son, Ernest, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Evans, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Autry, and the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Wolfe and children, all from Vass and nearby communities; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Evans and Miss Bess McCaskill of Carthage, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. White of Hamlet, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Roberson and Mr. and Mrs. Sony Roberson, of Pageland, S. C.

MISS CARLOTTA FRANCES MAPLES is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Patterson of Carthage, who announce her engagement to William J. David B. Maples, U.S. Air Force. The wedding will take place in the First Baptist Church in Carthage at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, September 8. All friends of the couple are invited.

New Heir-rivals

ROBIN COLE CORLEY

The family of Capt. and Mrs. John G. Corley II was made foursome by the arrival of a daughter at Moore County Hospital on Sunday, July 29. The baby has been named Robin Cole. The other member of the family is a four-and-a-half-year-old son, who is known as Rebel. The Corleys reside at 470 East Massachusetts Avenue.

FRANCIS MATTHEW SHEA

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shea announce the birth of a son at St. Joseph Hospital on Thursday, August 16, weight, seven pounds, three ounces. They have named him Francis Matthew. Mrs. Shea is the former Shirley Newhart of Pocomo Manor, Pa. She and the new son are now at their home, 360 East Delaware Avenue.

Misses Pat And Alice Farrior Entertain At Dinner And Dance

The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Farrior at 365 South Ridge Street was the gathering place for a jolly group Tuesday night when their daughters, Pat and Alice, entertained about 20 of their friends at a back-to-school or farewell vacation dinner party and dance.

Duplicate Bridge Club Winners Named

Winners at Tuesday night's meeting of the Sandhills Duplicate Bridge Club at the Southern Pines Country Club, which attracted four and one-half tables of players, were: 1st, Mrs. J. J. Spring and Dr. R. M. McMillan; 2nd, Mrs. William Poole and Miss Louise Blue, of Raeford; 3rd, Mrs. John Howarth and Miss Katherine Wiley.

James Collins Gives Dinner Party Honoring House Guests

James Collins entertained 18 friends at an informal dinner party Monday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Collins, honoring his house guests, Miss Wray Davis of Aiken, S. C., and his cousin Jim McLeod of Florence, S. C. Other out-of-town guests were Miss Susan McIntyre and Gilbert Johnson of Lumberton and Miss Ann Stutz of Virginia Beach. James went to Lumberton the following day, where he will be employed at Collins Department Store until time to go back to school.

MRS. RICHARD McATEE PATCH

WEDDING RITES IN WALSTONBURG UNITE MISS JANIE F. HINSON AND MR. PATCH

Miss Janie Fields Hinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clarence Hinson of Walstonburg, and Richard McAtee Patch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sumner Patch of Southern Pines, were married in a 5 o'clock ceremony on August 18 in the Walstonburg Methodist Church. The vows were pledged before the Rev. E. C. Maness, minister of the church.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Emily Walston, organist, and Mrs. Alton Shirley, soloist. Shirley sang "At Dawning," "Through the Years," and "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original wedding gown of imported Chantilly lace and frothy white tulle over satin. Lace fashioned the long-sleeved pointed bodice and scalloped picturesque neckline enhanced with an inset of tulle and iridescent paillettes. Cascading tiers of scalloped lace and tulle fashioned the floor-length skirt. Her two-tier fingertip veil of pure silk bridal illusion was attached to a half hat sprinkled with pearls and sequined medallions. She carried a prayer book with a white orchid showered with staphanotis.

Miss Helen Hinson of Snow Hill, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. Her street length dress of pink lace over taffeta featured a high neckline and princess lines. She wore matching head band and mitts, and carried a nosegay of pink asters, outlined with blue nylon lace, tied with blue satin.

Charles Sumner Patch, Jr., of Southern Pines, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Carl Hinson, brother of the bride, Thomas Mixon of Greenville, and Gary Mattocks and Gene Bowen, of Southern Pines.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hinson chose a rose-beige lace dress with beige accessories and wore a corsage of green cymbidiums. The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of aqua lace over taffeta with white accessories. Her corsage was of white cymbidiums.

Mrs. Andrew Heath of Snow Hill, director of the wedding, wore a dress of light blue starched nylon, matching accessories and a corsage of white cymbidiums.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Patch received their guests in the vestibule of the church.

The bride is a graduate of East Carolina College and has been employed in the office of the superintendent of New Bern City Schools since January 1. Mr. Patch served for four years in the Navy and is now a student at East Carolina College.

For travel the bride changed to a costume dress of brown cotton tweed with brown and beige accessories and the orchid from her prayerbook. Upon their return, the couple will be at home in Greenville, and the bridegroom will continue his studies at East Carolina College.

REHEARSAL PARTY
Following the rehearsal on Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. Hinson entertained the wedding party, out-of-town guests and friends at their home in Walstonburg. The house was decorated

IT WORKED!

Lt. Colonel Matthew Toia of the USAF Air-Ground Operations School took his son Tommy out to a nearby pond Saturday to give him a chance to try out a new fishing rod which he had won as a prize.

The two returned, a happy pair. Tommy had landed a 2-pound large mouth bass measuring 15½ inches in length, and his dad had caught a six and three-quarter pounder of the same kind, 23½ inches long.

Just try to buy Tommy's fishing rod, if you think you can!

INS and OUTS

Miss Mary Logan, former primary supervisor in Moore County Schools who is to be on the Southern Pines faculty as supervisor and teacher of music and instruction this term, returned Tuesday from Boone, where she attended a music workshop last week. Miss Logan and Miss Mary Currie of Carthage landed in New York on August 7 after about two months' travel abroad during which they visited France, Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Germany, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, England, Scotland and Ireland. Miss Logan is living in the home of Mrs. P. P. McCain.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. DuPre and daughter, Libby Sue, returned last Thursday from Myrtle Beach, where they vacationed for about a week. Mrs. DuPre's niece, Miss Arnold Richardson of High Point, spent the weekend here with the Dupres.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Stevens and Jimmy, of Dallas, Tex., left this morning for Williamsburg, Va., after visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Traylor, Sr. From Williamsburg they will go to Virginia Beach to attend an insurance convention. Visiting the Trayers last weekend were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Buxton Traylor, and Butch and Linda, of Petersburg, Va. Linda remained for a longer stay.

Mrs. Hilda E. Ruggles, wife of John S. Ruggles and a member of the Barnum Realty & Insurance firm, returned Wednesday from N. C. Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill where she recently underwent major surgery. She is recuperating at her home here, and plans to return to work in the office by the first of September.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCormack and daughter, Dianne, and Mrs. Nellie Mann returned last Thursday from a two weeks' vacation. They spent some time in Morehead City with Mrs. Mann's mother, Mrs. R. A. Ormond, then went to Kitty Hawk, from where they made a side trip to Hatteras on the Outer Banks. Mrs. Mann left Sunday for Baltimore, Md., to visit her son, Drennan Mann, and her brother, Basil B. Wells.

Mrs. Lou Martin Toman of Aberdeen has joined the staff of Franjean's, ladies' apparel shop.

Mary T. Bailey is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Scott Poole, and family in Raeford.

where nuts, mints, bridal cakes and lime ice punch were served. The table was covered with a cutwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of white asters, gladioli and fern, flanked by crystal candelabra holding white tapers. Mrs. W. C. Hinson, mother of the bride-elect, poured punch and Miss Helen Hinson served bridal cakes.

The bride-elect received many beautiful and useful gifts from the guests present.

Whether you're a pupil or a teacher you'll be sure to—

Make the Grade

with a flattering easy-to-manage fall coiffure designed just for you by our experts.

Make Your Appointments Today

VOGUE BEAUTY SHOP

L117 W. Penna. Ave.—Tel. 2-8711 SOUTHERN PINES

PHARMACISTS TO THE MEDICAL PROFESSION

ASK YOUR DOCTOR
ABOUT OUR STORE

Let us fill your next Prescription

OPEN SUNDAY

BROAD STREET PHARMACY

Prescription Headquarters
Southern Pines, N. C.
PHARMACISTS ON DUTY

Jerry Rhoades

Joe Montesanti, Jr., Prop.