

Two Dozen Books Added To Library Shelves In October

A total of 24 new books were added to the shelves of the Southern Pines Library during October, according to Mrs. Stanley Lambourne, librarian. The books, and their authors, include: The Great Centuries of Painting, XVI-Leonardo to El Greco, Skira; A History of Turkey, M. Phillips Price; Diamonds Are Forever, Ian Fleming; Angel's Ransom, David Dodge; The Wreck of the Mary Deare, Hammond Innes; State of Siege, Eric Ambler; King of Paris, Guy Endore; A Call For Doctor Barton, Elizabeth Seifert. Fall Over Cliff, Josephine Bell; O Beulah Land, Mary Lee Settle; Never Too Late, Angela Thirkell; Othneil Jones, John Adams Leland; The Heart Has Its Reasons, The Duchess of Windsor; Gallipoli, Alan Moorehead; Day of the Ram, William Campbell Gault; Russia Leaves the War; USA, James Morris; Inspector Queen's Own Case, Ellery Queen; The Nun's Story, Kathryn Hulme.

Captain Rebel, Frank Yerby; Roll Shenandoah, Bruce Lancaster; Three Saints and A Sinner, Louise Hall Tharp; Treasury of American Gardens, James M. Fitch and F. Rockwell.

A new selection is added to the shelves each month. Residents and visitors alike are encouraged to make use of the library, Mrs. Lambourne said.

The first independent nursery in the New World was established by William Prince of Flushing, New York, although much earlier John Endicott, Governor of Massachusetts Colony, grew many trees and traded them as early as 1644, according to the American Association of Nurserymen.

With The Armed Forces

Pfc Robert L. Faircloth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin C. Faircloth, Route 2, Vass, recently completed the track vehicle mechanic's course at the Seventh Army Tank Training Center in Germany.

The seven-week course included classroom and practical training in engine repair, track and body maintenance and parts supply.

Faircloth entered the Army in June, 1955, and is a mechanic in Company C of the 3rd Armored Division's 7th Tank Battalion.

Sergeant First Class George R. Bowers, son of Mrs. Flora O. Bowers, Manly, recently received a letter of commendation while serving on Okinawa with the 663rd Field Artillery Battalion.

He was commended for outstanding service as first sergeant of the Battalion's Battery B.

Sergeant Bowers entered the Army in August, 1950, and arrived on Okinawa in July, 1955. He has also served in the European theatre.

The sergeant was graduated from Southern Pines High School in 1950 and was formerly employed by the Southern Pines Police Department.

Winferd A. Cox, son of Mrs. Reba E. Cox of Southern Pines, has been appointed squad leader of his recruit company at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center.

As a recruit petty officer he will wear a miniature rating insignia as a badge of authority during the remainder of his nine weeks of "Boot Camp."

He was chosen for the position in recognition of leadership qualities displayed while undergoing recruit training.

Deadline Set For Mailing Packages To Foreign Points

Army 2nd Lt. Robert C. Stewart, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Stewart, Carthage, recently was graduated from the field artillery officers basic course at The Artillery and Guided Missile Center, Fort Sill, Okla.

The 12-week course trained him in the duties of a field artillery battery officer.

Lieutenant Stewart, a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, was graduated from Davidson College just prior to entering the Army last July.

Planning to mail any Christmas packages out of the country? If you are Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has established deadlines on mail going either to Alaska, Hawaii, or Puerto Rico. For Alaska and Hawaii, he said, packages should be mailed not later than December 1 to avoid delays; packages going to Puerto Rico should be mailed not later than December

3. Even earlier mailings will be an aid to the postal service, he said, as well as provide an additional measure of insurance of delivery by Christmas.
