Marine Takes 2nd Golf Tourney Here In Space Of Month

Don Albert, All-Service golf champion, won his second Carolinas Golf Association tournament in as many appearances in the Sandhills when he fired a 35-35-70 over the Pine Needles course Sunday. He had won a similar tourney at Southern Pines CC a month ago.

Albert, a former Purdue University golf star and now a Marine stationed at Camp Lejeune, had never played the course before but literally tore it up as he hit nine greens in regulation figures and took just 26 putts on his sub-par round.

He plans to play in the last CGA tournament of the year, scheduled for December 9 at Pinehurst.

George Pottle, owner-manager of the Hollywood Hotel here and a recent runner-up in the annual Golf Carousell, had a 37-36-73 for second place in the tournament. Some 94 players entered.
