Page EIGHT

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1956

Blue Knights And

A JOINT MEETING of Wildlife Clubs of Moore, Chatham and Lee counties attracted one of the season's biggest turnouts at Vass earlier this week. Highlight of the meeting was a talk by Turner Battle of Rocky Mount, president of the State Wildlife Federation. Pictured here, left to right, are Sgt. Kirk Flanigan, chief ranger of the Fort Bragg Military Reservation; Blake Stewart of Siler City, president of the Chatham County club; E. B. Keith of Sanford, president of the Lee County club; Battle; and T. Clyde Auman of West End, president of the Moore County club. (Emerson Humphrey photo)

Wildlife Club Has Enthusiastic Meeting As Federation Head Speaks

Meeting As Federation Head Speaks In one of the most interesting at the January meeting. Members wear, members of the Moore County Wildlife Club heard first-County Wildlife Club heard fi meetings held during the current of the committee are Ralph Mills, burg. year, members of the Moore Chairman, Ed Starnes, Eugene McDonald, M. M. Poole and W. ORCHIDS County Wildlife Club heard first- O. Spence. hand and detailed reports Tues-Auman advised the legislative do, they insist) in accordance to cheer the weary hours when he two girls are a 12-year old and their way."

day night on what the North Carolina Wildlife Federation is doing this year. Auman advised the legislative do, they histor in accordance investigate any with simple instructions. The greenhouses, located just off Midland Road, were started Turner Battle of Rocky Mount, state and report back at the next back in the 1920's by Judge and president of the state group, ad- meeting. That committee is com- Mrs. W. A. Way as a hobby. The At Vass Planned dresed 52 members of the com- posed of Dr. George Heinitsh, hobby soon got bigger than their bined wildlife clubs of Moore, Ralph Mills and W. C. Ruffin. Lee and Chatham counties at a He also asked Gen. R. B. Hill built greenhouses adjoining their For Coming Year supper meeting at the Dixie Inn to act as chairman of a commit- residence. Later, because of the supper meeting at the Dixie inn to act as chairman of a commit-in Vass. He also conducted an in- tee to make a special study of continuing growth of the hobby, farmers in Moore and adjoining pre-holiday compensation this formal question and answer peri- the federal license laws that are which of necessity became a od and explained many of the now in effect and to determine business, more greenhouses_ federation's policies and long any possible bearings they had there are at present a total of 18 ing and weighing station in Vass range plans.

Clyde Auman, president of the the completion of such a study, tion. Moore County club, presided. Re- Auman pointed out, the results ports from the various members should be handed over to the leg- in the greenhouses today. indicated the club is now in good islative committee for their recfinancial shape and has a mem- ommendations as to further dis- 1948 Mrs. Way carried on until bership of 78, of which 37 are position.

A wood duck nest box commit- E. B. Keith, president of the Lee tee, which has ben working on a County club, and three of his project to provide nest boxes on members; Blake Stewart, presi-Bridges of Charlotte, who had been successful in getting lined the county ponds with the even- dent of the Chatham County tual hope that more ducks would club; and Col. C. C. Turner, Ma- chid growers for many years. be attracted to the area, was in- jor L. G. Matthews and Sgt. Kirk After the purchase they added structed to report its progress Flanigan, all of Fort Bragg. tion with the Way's commercial and botanical stock. stall curbing and guttering on East They have continued adding, by COUNCIL purchasing and intensive propa- Observing 10th New Jersey Avenue between May (Continued from page 1) and Ridge Street. state, and quite probably other In one other item of business, any possible bearings they had there are at present a total of 18 ing and weighing station in Vass the food chain.

(Continued from Page 1)

After Judge Way's death in her health prevented her devo- who managed the station in past uled for December 17. Guests at the meeting included ting the necessary time and at-years, is promoting the project down.

been enthusiastic amateur or-

Help A Needy Family Christmas

At Christmas-time, The Pilot must be alone at home.

publishes the stories of some of the families, listed on the rolls of his wife's and his deepest hone. This is a good staunch family In Non-Loop Games the Handlies, listed on the rolls of the Moore County Department of Public Welfare, who are in dire need of help. Many of those on the rolls have been already spok-The wife, although suffering en for by various organizations from gall bladder trouble, has paid for the hospitalization, but ketball season tomorrow (Friday) here and throughout the county, done sewing and baking and has that uses all available funds. night when they play Robbins on but there are, it seems, generally a few left over.

Below are listed three families has kept the three children, a boy comes from kind friends of those girls or boys have been defeated and some of their troubles. These, 13, and girls 10 and 11, in public in need. to date, have not been "taken" by school; they attend church and (C) Will Santa Come? any group and The Pilot tenders a live as normal a life as possible. special plea that they may not be She has a big heart and has even overlooked this Christmas. Dona- been a foster mother for children children only a short time ago. say the boys' squad is the most tions may be sent to the Moore temporarily without a home. The family receives a small known by the neighbors who County Department of Public Welfare, Carthage. A choice of grant from the welfare depart-family may be indicated by one of the three letters. (A, B, C) and the department can only meet the three letters. (A, B, C) 75 per cent of it. These children

ship and of courage. (A) Courage That Deserves Help

The father of this family is com- set good examples. The children that is why the mother moved 70-49 rout of Laurinburg. paratively young, in his late thir- are studious and interested in herself and the children here: ies. He has always been a self- their school work and helping in she was afraid that he would kill almost at will and probably could supporting citizen, well-accepted jobs after school and during vaca-her. Understandably, the children have made the score even larger in his community. Until illness tion. These five years of helping have been frightened and emo-came, he was a regular church this family stay together is buildworker, member of clubs and ac- ing strong, intelligent, industri- tionally upset: they attend for the duration of the game. worker, member of clubs and ac-tive in the community. Then, ous men and women of tomorrow. eight years ago, the dread disease But—no Christmas? Surely that time of it; two are under medical Laurinburg 62-45, although big would be a great pity. multiple sclerosis struck him

(B) Pretty Tough Going

Then the family struggle began. A mother of seven children, in institutions during the past year. The father, even though he had to her thirties, is ill with internal Honor guests at the meeting drag himself to work, kept on for cancer. Hospitalized for treatincluded M. E. Gambrell of Hen- two more years at the job his em- ment, she is now home again and members bought a television set are: Boys: 16, 13, 11 and 8; the hoping Santa Claus will come by

Cucumber Station

erated for three years prior to money crop.

Faison, who handled the cucumbers the other three years the

H. M. Smith Firm

H. M. Smith Opticians Company

of Southern Pines is celebrating

Started in 1946 as the first op-its 10th anniversary this week.

H. D. Jackson of Vass Route 2,

plant was operated.

Laurinburg Divide the baby, ten months.

For the home remains. During This is a good staunch family The wife, although suffering viding for 'a housekeeper and stiffest competition of the bas-gotten some money from this, as There will be no Christmas for the local court. well as doing the housework. She this little group unless help To date, neither the Robbins > in four games. The girls, defending county champions for the This mother moved to her past two years, have been particpresent home with her seven ularly impressive and observers So her sad plight is hardly powerful in recent years.

Coach W. A. Leonard said this The situation is this: the hus- cellent chance of winning their Here are the three tales of hard- have parents of whom they are band has been, for the second half of the games, basing his preproud, as they are truly parents, time, sent to the State Hospital diction on the excellent showing although not wealthy, and have for mental derangement. In fact, they made Tuesday night in a In that game the girls scored treatment. They range from 15 to Roger Verhoeff was top scorer four years of age: the boys 14, 10, for the night with 20 points. 8 and 4 and the three girls, aged A tip-off supper has been scheduled at the high school This family is living on the cafeteria prior to the games un-$100 a month received from the Club. Tickets may still be securder sponsorship of the Boosters game and were never overcome. In addition to Verhoeff's 20 points, Tony Parker and Bobby Parker scored six each, Everett Cushman got five and Billy Hamel got four.

Lytch had 17 and Schwartz had 4 for Laurinburg.

In the girls' game Southern Pines took an early lead, building it up to 36-24 at halftime, and coasted in for the victory.

Anike Verhoeff was high scorer with 26 points, closely followed by Patti Britt with 20 and

PILOT ADVERTISING PAYS

(Continued from page 1) and Miss Elizabeth Thompson, decorator of note, who will ad-Employees of The Great Atlan- vise on that phase of the work. tic & Pacific Tea Company Miss Thompson spent last night throughout the country will at the Maurice home in Eagle share more than $2,500,000 in Springs. counties is that plans have been year it was announced today by lunch, on the grounds.

Some of the original plants are 1954, and many farmers planted cucumbers as an early season ceive a part of the annual fund payment. Nothing due until Feb. lowed by C. Jones with 18. voted by the company's board of and then only $1.00 per week. directors. Distribution is sched- Dixie Printing Company, Phone

The group partook of a picnic

Mother! Get Dad to do his Every employee with as much homework at home! Get him a Lillian Bullock with 16. Jane s six months' service will re-15, 12 and 7.

WI 4-1414, Aberdeen.

HISTORICAL A&P Employees Will

states, have parking meters. The Council approved a resolution to olina Orchids now has the largest Year This Week property tax," he said.

said they had been approached at man several months ago for future and includes some 10,000 varie- tical service in the Sandhills, the various times since citizens had development. learned a study was being made and that sentiments were divided. CHRISTMAS One councilman, W. E. Blue, said he had talked to a number of people and that "maybe 60 per cent are for, the others against." He and elementary school. In West suggested that the Council give Southern Pines, the children will TAYLOR the matter more study the matter more study.

The other members voiced similar suggestions. Town Charter the new charter was ready to be pear in The Pilot next week. presented for approval. (A sum-mary of the charter will be print-strung over the streets in South-that it was indeed serious here ed in the Pilot next week).

had been made from the old charter and that it had been tightened up in a number of places. One such change, he noted, would + an increase in the present school board of from five to seven members.

Public Parks

Council also discussed the pos-

The parks would be in addition and to Ponzer. Jobs to the one already in use (the so-called Town Park where the new "wouldn't be fit municipal building will be con-party of this structed). Curb and Gutter log had developed in the number sible to of petitions for curb and guttering said. projects in the town. W from here out and file them as received. Firm prices that individual property owners must pay will not be quoted in the future either, Council decided, since it would be impractical to guess what construction costs would be six months in the future.

A resolution was adopted to ingation, with the result that Carprobable reason for this is that re-re-zone a portion of the property collection of top quality plants sort towns are shooting for a low on South West Broad Street and in this section of the country. Bennett Street. The land was The collection now numbers Several members of the Council purchased by a Raleigh business- from 70 to 75 thousand plants > company has grown until it now serves most of the surrounding The Bridges have won many counties.

Illustrative of its growth is the fact that in its first year the company had three pieces of equipment; today it has 15 pieces of the Students in both will be back rectors must take seriously and

A number of special church W. Lamont Brown, town attor- services have been planned, a spent much time outlining plans considered one of the largest in spent much time outlining plans considered one of the largest in the state H M Smith of ney, reported to the Council that complete listing of which will ap- spent much time outlining plans the state. The late H. M. Smith of ern Pines early last week, have and must be controlled. Brown said a number of changes been burning brightly every Appointments to Staff night. The 50-foot magnolia at Elected chairman of the Medi- tained its first quarters, on North the corner of Pennsylvania Ave. cal Staff for 1957 was Dr. Philip East Broad Street in the building and Broad Street, lighted by the P. Green, Southern Pines, to suc-Southern Pines Garden Club, has ceed Dr. R. M. McMillan, South- dios.

been drawing much comment.

STEVENS

(Continued from Page 1) sibility of establishing two parks as had originally been promised of a playground nature sometime by Thomas Howerton, who help-

(Continued from page 1)

at their desks January 2.

words from

the club ha

Council also heard from Cun- early days ningham that a six-months back- often the

It was decided to take petitions of a playground nature sometime in the near future and heard re-ports from Cunningham on two prospective locations. One would be in West Southern Pines; the other in East Southern Pines. by Thomas Howeron, the program. Silver trays were presented to J. Talbot Johnson of Aberdeen, the third president of the club. Named to the active staff, in addition to the officers, were Dr. Aberdeen; Dr. R. L. Felton, Car-Members of the present Board of Directors, re-elected for anoth-the third president of the club. Members of M. T. Pishko er vear are Arch L. Barnes, Wil-roe, M. T. Pishko er year are Arch L. Barnes, Wil-Pinehurst; Drs. bur H. Currie and H. G. Poole, Vida McLeod, H. Carthage; Mrs. James Boyd, Ralph C. A. S. Phillips, L. Chandler, Jr., Mrs. Alwin L. Folley, Voit Gilmore, Norris L.

embers: Dr. D. Hodgkins and Harry H. Pethick t. and Dr. A. A. Southern Pines; John M. Currie Consulting staff: Highfalls; Paul Dana, Mrs. Dixon, itsh, W. Harrell H. Arnold Jackson, John F. Tay-Warlick and lor and Richard Tufts, Pinehurst; Southern Pines; J. B. Edwards, Dr. E. M. Medlin, Hewitt, McCain; Mrs. H. A. Page, Jr., J. E. Parker, Kemp and Fred and Jack Taylor, Aberdeen; E. H. uff; Drs. E. M. Mills, Pinebluff; Alan A. McDon-R. VanderVoort, ald, A. McDonald, West End; E. Marvin Ritter, Robbins, and C. L.

aff comprises Dr. Tyson, Vass. William McDuf- The members of the directorate rs. P. J. Chester, dined in the staff dining room of en, Southern Pines; the hospital before the annual r and J. W. Willcox, meeting in the Nurses' Home.

OLD CROV

THE OLD CROW DISTILLERY COMPANY, FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY

awards at international, national and regional orchid shows.

for children in the high school

most advanced known to the op-(Continued from page 1) tical field. Johnnie Hall and Joe Carter, who manage the business, said remedy as soon as possible.' In the administrator's report which followed, Mr. Howerton that it had grown until it is now ors, one, which he said, "plagues Fayetteville founded the company. Since its opening in 1946 the company has moved three times Ironically, the last move was back to the place where the firm main-ern Pines. Dr. Green is the hospital's pathologist, a former Colonel Carthage; Drs. Hilton Haines and in the Army Medical Corps. Dr. T. B. Henry, Rockingham; Drs. W. J. P. Bowen, Aberdeen, was elect- L. Howell and W. H. Parsons, El-ed vice chairman, and Dr. William lerbe; Drs. Robert S. Jones, Riley F. Hollister, Southern Pines, sec- M. Jordan, R. A. Matheson, R. L. Named to the active staff, in ford; Dr. F. L. Owens, Pinehurst. etary-treasurer.