Junior-Senior Banquet
 "April Showers" was the theme when the Junior Class of Vass-Lakeview School entertained the seniors last Friday night at the annual class banquet.

Mr. Vann's 10th grade room, where the festivities took place, was effectively decorated for the occasion. Senior colors of lavender and white were featured on the table at which Senior Class officers and special guests were seated, and spring blossoms out in her profusion of blooms and colors elsewhere. Candles and nut baskets with parasols added to the attractiveness of the tables.

Supt. John McCrummen spoke the invocation, and Danny Cameron, president of the host class, extended a welcome to which

Easter Program
 The Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service held its April meeting in the fellowship hall of the church Tuesday night, with a special Easter program prepared by Miss Louise Leslie and led by Mrs. W. A. Muse in Miss Leslie's absence.

The room was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, and on the piano was a large poster

The president, Mrs. R. R. Thomas, conducted the business session and gave a report of the district meeting which she and four others from this society attended at Roberdel last week.
