Mr. and Mrs. Stevens Of The Arlington Observe 52d Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stevens of The Arlington, 440 North May Street, quietly observed their 52nd wedding anniversary on Wednesday, May 10. Both were living in Schenectady, N. Y., at the time of their marriage, which took place in Albany.

In their early married life they operated a rooming house in Schenectady and later entered the hotel business. They came to Southern Pines in 1945 for the winter and liked it here. After disposing of their business in the North, they came back in 1947 to The Arlington, and have made this their home ever since.

Wednesday of this week was Mr. Stevens' 83rd birthday, most people will be surprised to learn, for he looks much younger and is quite active. Mrs. Stevens will have her 74th birthday in September.

Church of Wide Fellowship Notes

The four circles of the Church of Wide Fellowship that met last Thursday report a most satisfactory year and much enthusiasm for next season's activities, which will start with the September meetings.

The Executive Board of the Women's Society will meet in the church parlor at 8 p. m. Monday, May 20.

The Woman's Society will hold its annual meeting and election of officers at 3 p. m. Thursday, May 23, in the R. L. House chapel. Mrs. Paul Ward will conduct devotions.

The Board earnestly urges all members who possibly can be present to do so as there is much to be attended to before the summer vacation.

The Lena Sweazy Circle will be hostess for the social hour which will follow the meeting.

Cameron Woman's Club To Hold Plant Sale Friday Afternoon

The Cameron Woman's Club will hold a plant sale at the club house in Cameron this Friday from 3 to 5 p. m., according to official announcement. The ladies will donate bulbs, shrubs, seedlings, and plants for indoor and outdoor planting from their gardens and offer them for sale to add funds to their treasury.

SEVENTH GRADE DEPICTS PAINTERS AND ART PERIODS WITH LIVING PICTURES

"Living pictures" depicting typical painters of various periods in art history were displayed at the Wednesday morning chapel program at Southern Pines School by students in Miss Martha Pat Archbell's seventh grade. The program was one of the most unusual ever presented in the school.

The program was devoted to a discussion of a recent trip made to the North Carolina Art Museum by the class, together with a brief history of the museum.

Taking part in the discussion were Ronald Benton, Bob Madison, Janice Norton, Diana Bridges, Dana Koshak, Eddie McKenzie, Ricky Williams, Frank Staples, Sheila Maness, Jimmy Ritenous, Billy Kemp, Robert Cavanaugh, Marvin Cornell, and Harold Willford.

The following paintings and the "living" examples were represented:

Andrew Jackson, Ronald McCrimmon, Mademoiselle Hilligberg, Fay Reid; The Oddie Children, Lamont Brown, Susie Chandler, Rosie Chandler and Jane Wicker; Portrait of a Woman, Donna Dawson; Joan of Arc, Suzanne Miller; and Cavaliers and Ladies, Peggy Worth, Rebecca Shaw, Tommy Reams, and Skippy Honeycutt.

Also on the program was a panel discussion featuring local artists. Suzanne Miller and Diana Bridges presided and were moderators. Taking part were Mrs. Marian DeCosta, Mrs. Emily Forrest, Beth Turner, Thomas Vann, Don Moore, Mrs. Alwyn Foley, and Mrs. Madeline Coleman.

At the conclusion of the program members of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, together with visitors, were urged to view paintings in the lobby of the auditorium which had been loaned by members of the panel.

Devotional for the program was given by Sheila Maness and Janice Norton. Clyde Phipps assisted in the staging and announcing, and Mrs. Jane McPhaul provided musical accompaniment.

GIRL SCOUT LEADERS HOLD BUSINESS MEETING AT HOME OF MRS. VOIT GILMORE

Leaders of all Girl Scout and Brownie troops in Southern Pines and Vass held a neighborhood meeting Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Voit Gilmore, neighborhood chairman.

Miss Sophie White, field director, was introduced and she spoke briefly on the financial set-up of the council.

Mrs. Ward Hill was present as the new secretary of the Southern Pines neighborhood, replacing Mrs. Fred Langner, who is moving away.

Mrs. Don Traylor, Jr., was introduced as Day Camp chairman. She announced the dates of the Day Camp as June 17-21, at Pinebluff lake, also that pre-camp training would be given for the camp staff on May 24 at Pinebluff lake.

Mrs. Harry Fullenwider, Troop Organization chairman for Southern Pines, spoke of the need for new leaders for some of the troops in Southern Pines beginning in the fall, and urged that all interested people contact her so that scouting for these girls would not be interrupted.

Mrs. William P. Davis saluted the leaders for their unselfish work and urged them to continue stressing the importance of training for good troop programs.

Mrs. Gilmore served refreshments at the close of the business session.

Leaders attending the meeting were: Mrs. Donald Wellman and Mrs. O. H. Rawlinson, committee members of Troop 48; Mrs. Jack Reid, Troop 50; Mrs. James Ratliff, Troop 66; Mrs. Marvin Wicker, Troop 64; Mrs. O. T. ALFRED MOORE CHAPTER CLOSES YEAR WITH MEETING AND TEA AT CARTHAGE

The last meeting of the year for the Alfred Moore Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Miss Meade Seawell, in Carthage, with Mrs. W. G. Brown and Mrs. Charles T. Grier as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Harold A. Collins of Southern Pines, who was the Chapter's delegate to Continental Congress, made a report on the highlights of the Congress, which was held in Washington, D. C., on April 15-19. She showed a number of interesting pictures taken during the meeting, and reminded the Daughters that they were the largest patriotic organization in the world, whose potential influence as a body of women 180,000 strong was truly awe inspiring. The accent should be placed on recruiting more young people into the organization, she declared.

The Chapter's Good Citizen for the year, Miss Hilda Cagle, was present at the meeting and, together with Miss Ellie Ann Purvis, presented a program of American Music, with Mrs. Ina L. Bullock as accompanist. Miss Cagle, alto, and Miss Purvis, soprano, are voice pupils of Roger Gibbs of Southern Pines.

Their program was as follows: Columbus, by Curtis; Come Ye Thankful People, Come, Elvey; The Quaker's Wooing, traditional; Old American song by Noddi; To George Washington, Holman; Freedom, Groos; Variations on Melodies by Stephen Foster, Mrs. Bullock; Shortnin' Bread, American Negro song; America, Carey.

A tea followed the musicale. The dining table was laid with an imported lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink roses from Miss Seawell's garden. A color scheme of pink and green was carried out in the refreshments. The Regent, Mrs. Lucian P. Tyson, presided over the coffee service.

Special guests of the chapter were Mrs. Robert Cagle of Carthage and Mrs. J. R. Felts of Mooresville, sister of Mrs. Ralph Jordan of Gulf, and Mrs. Margaret Penn of Fort Bragg.

Daughters attending from Southern Pines were Mrs. Collins, Mrs. W. D. Stevick, Mrs. R. S. DuRant, and Mrs. L. A. DesPland.

Hospital Auxiliary Is Reactivating Memorial Fund

The Moore Memorial Auxiliary is reactivating its Memorial Fund which was discontinued in 1953, it was announced this week. The fund was discontinued temporarily in order to get the treasury in shape to pay a pledge the Auxiliary had made, and now that this obligation has been met the Memorial Fund will be started again.

Circle 6 met with Mrs. Fred Chappell with 12 members attending. Mrs. Frank E. Hale conducted the devotions and Mrs. David Gamble presented the program.

Bird Club Ends Season With Picnic At Dorman Home

The rain on Saturday cancelled the Bird Club picnic at Thigard's. Instead, a delightful time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Dorman on East Massachusetts Ave.

After a business meeting, a yearly list of birds was brought up to date. It numbered 105 species seen so far this season in this locality. Mr. Dorman entertained the club with bird songs on his record player, and the picnic lunches were enjoyed indoors by the ten members of the club who braved the rain.

A rising vote of thanks was given Mr. and Mrs. Dorman for their hospitality which was enjoyed by all. This meeting ended the season for the Bird Club.
