

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-8512

Miss Marie Baker And Clyde Cox, Jr., Wed; To Live In Washington

Miss Marie Annette Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Baker of Tramway, and W. Clyde Cox, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clyde Cox of Raeford, were married in Bennettsville, S. C., on May 4.

The bride attended the Jonesboro Heights School. Mr. Cox, a native of Vass, has been serving in the Navy for almost four years. He has been stationed in California, but at the expiration of his present leave will be in Washington, D. C., for the next year. He is going there this week to find living quarters and his wife will join him soon.

Korean Girl Speaks At Birthday Meeting Of Church Women

A program of unusual interest was heard by the large number of Presbyterian Women of the Church who attended the annual Birthday meeting of the organization at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church Monday night.

Mrs. Howard Butler, president, conducted the business session and Mrs. Walter Harper, chairman of stewardship, had charge of the program.

Mrs. Harper presented Miss Hazel McLean of Raeford, a Flora Macdonald College student, who introduced her Korean roommate, who was guest speaker.

The speaker, daughter of a minister in Korea, told of her life there and of conditions in her native land. Medical work in Korea and student work in Mexico are the birthday objectives for this year, and the speaker told of what the offering would do to help the people in her country.

A film strip, "Opportunity Knocks Twice," gave additional information regarding the objectives, for which an offering was made.

A birthday party in fellowship hall followed, with Mrs. Henry Graves in charge. From an attractively appointed table Mrs. Dan S. Ray and Mrs. Harvey Horne served punch and the members helped themselves to sandwiches, nuts and mints. Mrs. Howard Butler cut the first slice of the birthday cake, after which Mrs. L. L. Woolley served. Assisting in serving were Mrs. J. F. Williams and Mrs. W. O. Spence.

MISS JANET ANNE HAMOR
ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hamor of Pinehurst announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Anne, to Claude Mankin Rhule, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude M. Rhule of Charleston, W. Va. The wedding is planned for August 3 in the Pinehurst Community Church.

Miss Hamor will be graduated from Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro this spring with an A.B. degree in primary education.

Mr. Rhule attended the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill and is now in the Army, stationed at Fort Riley, Kan.

Mrs. DePuy, On Visit To The Bodines, Is Shown Social Courtesies

Mrs. Raymond F. DePuy has returned to her home in Portuguese Bend, Calif., after a 10-day Mother's Day visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bodine of 330 Country Club Drive.

While here she was showered with social courtesies including luncheons, dinners and various parties. Those who entertained were Mrs. Lynn McKinney, Mrs. Dante Montesanti, Mrs. Sherwood Brockwell, Jr., Mrs. Donald Case, Mrs. Thomas Hobson, and Miss Polly Dix.

Dogwood Grove 253 Celebrates Birthday With Picnic Tuesday

Dogwood Grove No. 253 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle celebrated its fourth birthday Tuesday evening with a family picnic to which members of Pine Camp and their families were invited, also.

The Woodmen hall was elaborately decorated in a combination May Day-Grove theme. Yellow and white streamers from a tall maypole were attached to the back side of the table in fan shape, and the opposite side was draped in scallops with a green and violet paper chain. A bowl of pansies and a birthday cake adorned the food-laden table. Elsewhere in the room, greenery and the Grove flower, dogwood, were used. The blessing was asked by D. E. Bailey.

After supper, attention was turned to a white elephant table, from which Consul Commander Alvin Adcox of Pine Camp auctioned articles. In another sale Miss Louise Crain became the owner of a mystery package, found to contain a beach towel. Mrs. Betty Bohlander won the door prize.

Junior members of the Grove and Camp were entertained with games and presented balloons as favors. Nonie Mattocks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mattocks, won a prize offered to the person most recently celebrating a birthday, and Mrs. Mary Capps won a jar of candy for making the most nearly correct guess as to the number of pieces in the jar.

Special guests at the celebration were: Mrs. Capps, Mrs. Amelia Schmidt, Mrs. Daisy Kelly, Mrs. Barbara Balboni, Mrs. Mildred Speer, and Clyde G. Council.

Mrs. Inman And Mrs. Murphy Buy Chandler Home Here

Mrs. Margaret Inman of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. Mary Murphy of Pittsburgh, Pa., both registered nurses, have purchased the R. L. Chandler, Sr., home on East Indiana Avenue extension and plan to occupy it in the near future. The sale was made through J. D. Sitterson.

Mrs. Inman is no stranger to Southern Pines. As Margaret Atlee she resided here from 1936 to 1942, living with Mrs. H. E. Thrower, nursing at Moore County Hospital, and doing some private duty in homes.

It was while here that she met her husband-to-be, Herbert A. Inman, at a medical association meeting in Pinehurst. He was a representative of Powers and Anderson Surgical Instrument Co., of Norfolk, Va. They were married at Christmas, 1941, at the home of Miss Ruth Sanborn by the Rev. Rexford C. Raymond. Mr. Inman died last October.

Mrs. Inman, who was in town last weekend and closed the business deal Monday, will remain in Norfolk until her 12-year-old daughter, Mary Leigh, completes this school year. They expect to come to occupy their new home in about three weeks.

Mrs. Murphy will remain in Pittsburgh until she can sell her home there.

Mrs. Inman, who is eagerly looking forward to returning to the Sandhills says "Southern Pines is the only place I've ever wanted to come back to."

Cancer Fund Donation Is Memorial To Late Mattie McD. Joyner

The Mattie McDuffie Joyner Memorial Cancer Fund was established by the local VFW Auxiliary soon after Mrs. Joyner's death several years ago, and annually the Auxiliary contributes to cancer research as a memorial to her. Of the amount paid to the 1957 drive, a part was donated by Macks 5 & 10c Store and the rest was from funds raised by the auxiliary and contributions from members.

The auxiliary reports that the rummage sale held last week was very successful. Proceeds will be used for the VA district hospital party at the Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville.

Looking Ahead

RUMMAGE SALE
Magnolia Chapter 26, OES, will hold a rummage sale Friday and Saturday, May 24-25, at 135 West Pennsylvania Avenue. Sale hours will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

LEGION AUXILIARY
The American Legion Auxiliary will meet Friday, May 24, at 8 p.m., with Mrs. L. A. Des Pland, on Arbutus Road.

LEARN MORE CLASS
The Learn More Bible Class will meet at 8 p.m. Monday with Mrs. T. C. McFarland.

EXECUTIVE BOARD
The Executive Board of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church will meet at 8 p.m. Monday, May 27, in the church parlor.

Mrs. L. D. McDonald Accompanies Aunt On Ambulance Trip

Mrs. L. D. McDonald accompanied Troy Ger and David Salmon on an ambulance trip to Dubois, Pa., this week to take her aunt, Mrs. Warren Smith, home after a short stay in Southern Pines.

Mrs. Smith, about three weeks ago, was making the trip to Southern Pines by bus to visit her daughter, Mrs. James Bailey, and Mrs. McDonald. In Charleston, W. Va., where she changed buses, she fell and broke her hip. She was carried to Winston-Salem and hospitalized there for over a week before being brought to Southern Pines early last week. The ambulance party returned to Southern Pines Tuesday night.

Bridge Game Ends In Three-Way Tie

There was a three-way tie for top honors when results of Tuesday night's play by the Sandhills Duplicate Bridge Club were tallied. All tied up were: Mrs. I. F. Horton and Miss Katherine Wiley, Mrs. W. L. Poole and Mrs. Jean Edson, and Dr. E. W. Bush and Fred Brindley.

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton Rodgers of High Point announce the engagement of their daughter, Vira Anne, of 330 East Pennsylvania Avenue, Southern Pines, to Allen Edward Kivett of Greensboro College, Greensboro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sulon B. Kivett of Ashe- boro. The wedding will take place August 17 in the First Baptist Church, High Point.

Miss Rodgers graduated from Jamestown High School and attended High Point College before entering Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro, where she was graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in home economics. For the past two years she has been a member of the faculty of Southern Pines High School.

Mr. Kivett, after graduation from Asheboro High School, served two years in the U.S. Army, part of which time was in the Far East. He attended Greenbrier Military School and at present is studying at Greensboro College where he is president of Men's Student Government.

Peter Grinnell And Miss Irene Soto To Wed In Guatemala

Announcement is made this week of the approaching wedding of Miss Irene Soto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Soto of Guatemala City, Guatemala, Central America, and Peter F. Grinnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grinnell of Southern Pines. Both are students at Duke University, Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Grinnell and the couple-elect plan to leave here May 29 and drive to Miami, Fla., from where they will fly on the 31st to Guatemala City. A civil service will be held on June 6, and on June 11 religious rites will be held in the chapel of the papal nuncio, in Guatemala City.

Roy Temple Grinnell, brother of the bridegroom-elect, who is stationed with the Army in Chicago, Miss Alimae Temple of Lakeview, S. C., an aunt, and Mrs. Jean Edson of Southern Pines are planning to attend the June 11 ceremony.

The couple-elect will live in Orange, Texas this summer, where Mr. Grinnell will be with DuPont. They plan to return to Duke University in the fall for their senior year.

Methodist Young People Enjoy Outing At Carolina Beach

A large group of members of the local Methodist Youth Fellowship and guests spent last weekend at Carolina Beach, leaving here Friday afternoon with their chaperones, the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Bame, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard Ames, Mrs. Joseph Hiatt and Mrs. Cavanaugh.

Young people in the group were: Sandra Bridges, Becky Traylor, Sheila Maness, Anne Wicker, Joe and Bobby Hiatt, Geraldine Tollison, Diana Bridges, Cathy Pollard, Diana Pearson, Faye Reid, Elaine Dabbs, Kay Williams, Anne Morgan, Joan Parker, Bobbie Dutton, Frances Thomas, Bobby and Richard Cavanaugh, Billy Tew, Jimmy Caldwell, Dick Thomasson, Don Thompson, Don Walter, Jimmy Tew, Sammy Self, Jim Carter, Tommy Tew, Johnny Calcutt, Jerry and Jimmy Tollison and Andy Johnson.

Magnolia Chapter, OES, To Observe 50th Anniversary

Plans are underway for a gala observance of the 50th anniversary of Magnolia Chapter 26, Order of the Eastern Star, on Friday, June 7. Chapters from all over the district have been invited to attend.

This Chapter has one member who has held the office of Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina, Mrs. Agnes Hamlin, and she is expected to come from Washington, D. C., for the celebration.

Miss Helen Reed Is Doing Nicely Following Surgery

Miss Helen Reed is recuperating from an operation at Moore County Hospital. She is doing nicely, but still is not allowed visitors.

MISS SHIRLEY WHITAKER IS BRIDE OF LEO WALSH, JR., IN PRIVATE CEREMONY

In a double ring ceremony at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 19, in the First Baptist Church, Southern Pines, Miss Shirley Ann Whitaker became the bride of Leo Walsh, Jr.

The Rev. F. Eugene Deese of Aberdeen officiated at the double ring rites, and Mrs. Emory Brown of Cameron, organist, presented the wedding music.

The church was decorated with garden flowers.

Miss Sybil Kinlaw attended the bride as maid of honor and the bridegroom had his father as best man.

Given in marriage by her brother, Roy Whitaker, the bride carried a white Bible topped with a lavender orchid with ribbon streamers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Whitaker of Carthage. She is a graduate of Carthage High School and for some time has been employed by the local A. & P. Store.

Mr. Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Walsh of Waltham, Mass., served eight years with the Air Force and is now employed by a radar equipment company in Waltham, where he and his bride will be at home after a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina.

The private wedding was attended by only the immediate families and three friends, Miss Grace Donaldson with whom the bride has been living, Miss Betty Seward of Carthage, and Miss Ann Suggs of Aberdeen and Richmond.

The bridegroom's parents were here for the weekend to attend the wedding, staying at Charlton Court.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesies
First of the pre-nuptial courtesies honoring Miss Whitaker was a dinner at Jack's Grill at which she was presented an electric iron as a gift from all her fellow-employees at the A. & P. Store.

Attending the dinner were: Miss Whitaker, Mrs. James Fulk, Mrs. Davis Salmon, Mrs. James Springer, Mrs. Cliff Presby, Mrs. Cecil DeVaney, and Mrs. Troy Creed.

The girl employees of the store honored the bride-elect at a linen shower given at the Woodmen hall. Games and contests were enjoyed prior to the presentation of shower gifts. Bridal cakes, lime punch, nuts and mints were served, and the honoree was presented a corsage of rosebuds.

Attending the shower were Miss Whitaker, her mother and sisters, Mrs. Elmer E. Whitaker and Misses Janet and Lucille Whitaker, of Carthage; Mrs. Frank Cagle, Miss Betty Seward, Mrs. Bill Green, Mrs. Jane Ivey, Mrs. Troy Creed, Miss Grace Donaldson, Miss Sybil Kinlaw, Mrs. Cecil DeVaney, Mrs. Ronald Britt, Mrs. Alvin Adcock, Mrs. Lloyd Lucas, and Mrs. Howard McNeill.

After the rehearsal Saturday night Mrs. L. D. McDonald and Mr. McDonald, manager of the A. & P. Store, entertained at a cake cutting at their home, honoring the couple. The three-tiered cake, decorated in pink and white, was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. James Springer presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. McDonald, after the couple had cut the first slice, served the cake. Bridal mints and nuts were served, also.

Attending the party were: Miss Whitaker and Mr. Walsh and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Whitaker and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Walsh; Mr. and Mrs. Emory Brown of Cameron, Roy Whitaker, Miss Betty Seward, Miss Sybil Kinlaw, Miss Grace Donaldson, Mrs. John S. McLaughlin, Mrs. Howard McNeill, Mrs. James Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil DeVaney, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Salmon, Alvin Adcock, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Deese.

The Perfect Gift

for the giver—
A GRADUATION
PHOTO OF YOURSELF

★
Special prices
to graduates

Humphrey's Studio

240 S. W. Broad—Southern Pines—Tel. 2-3611

DRIVE CAREFULLY—SAVE A LIFE

PHARMACISTS TO THE MEDICAL PROFESSION

ASK YOUR DOCTOR
ABOUT OUR STORE

Let us fill your next Prescription

OPEN SUNDAY

BROAD STREET PHARMACY

Prescription Headquarters
Phone 2-5411 Southern Pines, N. C.
PHARMACISTS ON DUTY
Joe Montesanti, Jr., Prop.

JACQUIN'S vodka ROYALE

$2 PINT

DISTILLED FROM GRAIN - 80 PROOF
CHARLES JACQUIN et Cie, Inc., Phila., Pa.