Carolina Power & Light Transfers Tucker To Southern Pines Office

A Reynold Tucker, local manager for Carolina Power & Light Company at Wadesboro since 1954, has been named CP&L division personnel representative at Southern Pines. It was announced this week by Personnel Director J. S. Newbold. He succeeds Roy Council who was recently transferred to Raleigh.

Tucker is a native of Raleigh, and received his AB degree at Duke University in 1943. He served with the Marine Corps and Merchant Marine Cadet Corps from 1943 to 1945, and in 1946 joined CP&L as manager trainee in Henderson. He moved to Warrenton in 1948 as local manager and was promoted from that job to local manager at Siler City in 1949.

He is a member of Calvary Episcopal Church in Wadesboro, is secretary of the Rotary Club, director of the Merchants Association and Chamber of Commerce, and president of the Executives Club.

Mrs. Tucker is the former Patsy McKinnon of Raleigh, and they have three children: Helen,

7; A. R. Tucker, II, 5; and Peter, 1. Tucker's father is Dr. A. R. Tucker of Raleigh.

Farm Bureau In Campaign To Get 400 New Members

A drive to enlist a minimum of 400 farm families in the Moore County Farm Bureau is underway and meeting with marked success, Bill Dalrymple of Carthage, membership chairman, said this week.

"There is a real need to strengthen the voice of agriculture in this county," Dalrymple said. "As the percentage of farmers goes down, it becomes imperative that we organize to develop our own policy and see that it becomes effective."

The membership campaign will be conducted through October, he said, with special emphasis on the last week. Community chairmen have been appointed and will be visiting non-members in the next few days.

Southern Pines, Aberdeen Bands To Play at Duke Game

Marching bands from Southern Pines and Aberdeen High Schools will join 46 others at the annual observance of Band Day at Duke University Saturday.

Duke plays Wake Forest on that day in a rivalry that dates back many years. Duke officials pointed out that the 48 bands participating include twice the number that have ever appeared at the observance before. Some 2,600 students, including 250 majorettes, will take part.

During intermission, the bands, wearing many colors, will march onto the field to play tunes carrying out an Autumn theme.

More North Carolina farmers are raising laying hens this year than in 1956.

It's better to fertilize the lawn lightly several times than to risk burning by over fertilizing in one application.
