CARPET MAKING MACHINERY requires know-how to install and operate, Governor Hodges was told by officials of the Karagheusian organization prior to his speech Saturday morning. Pictured here looking over a spinning machine, are Steele Winterer, Karagheusian president, Gov. Hodges, J. Cecil Beith, plant manager, and W. P. Saunders of Southern Pines, director of the State Department of Conservation and Development. (Photo by Humphrey)

COMPANY LEADER ALSO SPEAKS

Dedication of Carpet Plant Draws Large Turnout To Hear Gov. Hodges W. S. Tarlton of the North Carolina Department of History forms and fee into either Jim and Archives, will be principal Baird or Rob Dunn at Barnum heard Governor Luther Hodges ute their share to the growth of night.

praise the company for its lead-our company and participate in Mr. ership in the industry and urge its success." greater development of the state as a center for research and in- his remarks with numerous jokes also show slides of several other dustrial expansion. troduced by W. P. Saunders of of the plant convinced him that that local citizens can do in the Southern Pines, director of the "we can create a great North field of restoration. State Department of Conserva- Corolina and a promising future tion and Development, said he for our children if we will work president of the association, wil "felt a deep sense of pride when together in doing what is best preside at the meeting, which a company of Karagheusian's for the greatest number of peo- will be held at o'clock in the olina's industrial family." company had selected the Aber- do with." deen plant, which was formerly He added: "As we pioneer in operated by Amerotron Corpora- research in the Research Trition, because it met the specifi- angle, we believe we offer an cations of the Karagheusian en-unparalleled opportunity for a gineering staff and "because we company such as Karagheusian were deeply impressed by the to utilize these research facilities warm welcome extended to us which will help you to remain and the expressions of sincere competitive."

desire to have us here." company from its origins in 1897 weather, were Mayor E. M. Med-(in Manchester, England) to the lin of Aberdeen, J. Cecil Beith, present operation of four differ- plant manager, and Mr. Saunsuch as ours," he said, "requires the benediction was pronounced workers who take pride in their

ON ABERDEEN FIELD

Governor Hodges, who was in- audience, said the establishment state and outline various things calibre sees fit to join North Car- ple." He plugged the recently Southern Pines library.

announced Research Triangle of An earlier speaker, Charles A. North Carolina as "one of the Karagheusian, chairman of the most exciting and encouraging Board of Karagheusian, said his programs I have had anything to

Other speakers on the pro-He traced the growth of the gram, held outside in perfect ders. The invocation was given 'The manufacture of products by the Rev. Jack W. Ewart and

(Continued on page 8)

To Speak Tuesday Karagheusian carpet plant in sociated with us. We already speaker at the season's opening Realty Company.

Aberdeen Saturday attracted know from experience that they meeting of the Moore County A meeting of the tournament Aberdeen Saturday attracted know from experience that they meeting of the Moore County approximately 1,000 people who are ready and willing to contribtopic, "Long Range Plans for the Governor Hodges, who spiced House in the Horseshoe." He will AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK OBSERVED which drew laughter from the places of historical interest in the

State Archivist

Sheriff Charles McDonald,

The public is invited.

'SO. PINES' OUT

"So. Pines," with two exceptions, is on the way out so far as the State Highway Commission's signs are concerned.

The department, in a letter to town officials, has agreed to spell out the name of the town on all small signs along the new Parkway, but said it could not change the large ones at each end of the Parkway because of the large expense involved in altering

Carousel Entries Arriving In Rush As Deadline Nears

Qualifying Will Begin Thursday: Chapman To Defend

Approximately 100 entries for the 4th annual Golf Carousel, which will be played next week, have been received, according to members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors.

The entry list to date includes Richard "Dick" Chapman of Pinehurst, who shared the championship honors last year with Charlie Harrison of Atlanta. Chapman's partner this year is Art Ruffin of Wilson, one of the top amateurs in the state.

Jaycees said they were hopeful Progress On New that last minute entries would push the total over 200. Last year 164 entered, the biggest in the history of the tournament.

Prizes went on display this week in the offices of Barnum Realty Company on Broad street. Others have been purchased, Jaycees said, and will be engraved as the entry list grows.

The tournament is being played over all three courses in Southern the Town Council Tuesday night. Pines. Qualifying rounds will be held Thursday, though local entries may qualify over the weekend providing they have paid their entry fee. Weekend qualifiers will not, however, be eligible for the medalist trophy.

Entries have been received from several states, with Massa- Already construct chusetts and Pennsylvania in the lead. Local players who plan to enter have been urged by tourna-

Parent-Teacher Association.

any time all this week.

land, treasurer.

Student Leaders Speak To PTA;

Members Endorse Movie Protest

In the business session, with bicycle racks and first aid room

Mrs. I. A. Woodell, president, equipment have been purchased penditures of $899 for the cur- Approved unanimously by the Income includes $245.25 from tre chain owning and controlling memberships—indicating a rec- "the only theatre available to ord-breaking membership of 491 children in Southern Pines,"

$450 from magazine subscrip- asking that nothing but strictly tions and a carry-over balance of wholesome movies be shown at presiding, members approved a and are now in use.

budget listing income and ex- Letter About Movies

EXPLORER

Little David Woods, threeyear old son of Captain and Mrs. Albert D. Woods of 160 E. Massachusetts Ave., went sightseeing with his dog this morning.

niks, and assorted goodness-knows-whats, didn't tell his mother he was leaving. When she missed him about 10:20, she called the Police Department and an immediate search was started.

He didn't stay lost long, however. William Wilson, the town's building inspector, and Roland Norton of the street department, spotted him 20 minutes later on May Street, 10 blocks away from his home.

MunicipalBuilding

Progress to date on the new municipal building for Southern Pines is "much more than you would normally expect," Town Manager Louis Scheipers, Jr., told

Pointing out that rainy weather had hampered somewhat the pouring of concrete and grading operations, Scheipers said nevertheless the contractors are moving along on schedule and "maybe

Already constructed is a long which will form the outside front who was the Board's chairman,

Young David, braving a world full of Sputniks, Mutt-

Noted By Manager

(Thursday) at the home of Mr. outside walls of the Council uses for its employees, discussed chamber have been erected. at length proposed improvements does not solicit advertising. The

Two Killed Near Here In Car, Hearse Wreck

Employees Of FBI; 2 Others Seriously Hurt

Two young men, both employ-ees of the Federal Bureau of In-Gore died Saturday morning. vestigation, were killed on US Highway 1 about five miles Royal, were en route to spend north of Southern Pines Friday night. The deaths brought to the weekend at Fullwood's home ten the total for Moore County's and were to drop Miss Whitehighways this year.

State Highway Patrolman gated, said the car in which the two were riding collided head White and Lisky. on with a hearse which was returning to Brooks turning to South Boston, Va., and White Funeral Home in from Waycross, Ga.

said, along with the driver of the body to South Boston.

hearse. He identified them as Russell Lisky, about 21, and Miss Julia White, 18. The dead were identified as Lloyd Brooks Fullwood, 19, of Mullins, S. C., and Robert Wayne Gore, about 20, of Front Royal, Va. Fullwood died shortly after the accident and Samuels said that Gore and off at her home in Hamlet.

Joe Jenkins, the driver of the Robert R. Samuels, who investi- hearse, was removed to St. Jo-

South Boston with a body he had Two other employees of the picked up in Georgia. Another FBI were also injured, Samuels driver came and delivered the

SUCCEEDS DONALD CASE

Bryan Poe Named To Planning Board; Change In Sign Law Is Contemplated Bryan Poe, owner of Poe's Service Station on N. W. Broad St., was appointed to the Town Planning Board Tuesday night to fill the unexpired term of Donald Case, who resigned recently because of ill health.

The term runs until May 1 curving wall of the building 1960. In the absence of Mr. Case, of the Council chamber. The base- Ralph Chandler, Jr., has been ment has also been poured and serving as acting chairman. A most of the footings for the rest meeting will be called in the next of the building have been com- few days to elect a permanent

A meeting of the tournament committee will be held tonight complete and the columns for two Council approved Christmas bonto the sewer system, approved payment of $1,200 to Paul M. Van Camp Associates, Inc., for services in drawing up the proposed changes, and granted two beer

Signs and their sizes and locations have been a matter of much American Education week set the $73.50 for state and national dues; The Council approved a resolutheme for Monday night's meet- $49 (a 10 cents per member levy) tion calling for a public hearing ing of the East Southern Pines for a fund to help build a new to amend the sign ordinances in PTA headquarters building at Residence District III. The hear-had been ordered recently to re-Members heard activities des- Raleigh; $142 for bicycle racks; ing would be concerned with allowing property owners in that of its recently constructed Golfocribed by students and later $100 for a microscope and area (there are only two-Mid tel, because it did not meet the rambled through rooms of the $107.82 for first aid room equip-Pines and Pine Needles Country requirements. A drawing of a schools to see a variety of spe-ment. The Association is again Club) to erect one larger sign on cial exhibits. The public has been contributing $250 to help finance their property than is now perinvited to visit the schools at the high school annual which missible.

> The effect of any such change approval. in the sign ordinance would have town. The change would make it National Guard Armory.

BRYAN POE

permissible to erect a sign larger than the 12 square feet now allowed only on the approval of the building inspector and only if it The 37th annual observance of Main expenditures include discussion in the past few weeks. was set back at least 500 feet from the highway. Mid Pines Club, which has property adjoining the Parkway, move a large sign it had in front new sign which the firm would construct was presented to the Council and met with informal

The December meeting of the little bearing on other sections of Council will be held at the new

(Continued on Page 8) Writers To Autograph Books Tuesday

Aberdeen To Meet Gamewell Friday For Western District Championship The undefeated Aberdeen Red; Coach Bill Link's Gamewell

Devils meet Gamewell, also un- team has won 10 this season defeated, on the Aberdeen field without a loss. He has a squad Friday night to decide the west- numbering 24, three of whom are ern district six-man football considered among the best in the championship.

Aberdeen, with a 9-0 record, advanced to the district finals by defeating Courtney last Friday in their winning streak, boasts a Coach Hugh Bowman said today that some of his players may miss the contest because of ill-Styers Green, who have been on quarterback and signal caller. the sick list, will turn out. If so, he added, the Red Devils would be hard to cope with.

Bowman is counting on Richard and Styers, Sonny Smith, Larry missions are 25 cents. Students College in a restored farmhouse Littleton and Jimmy Veasey to and members of the Boosters which was hospital and headquardo the major part of the offen- Club are selling the tickets.

six man ranks. The team, which has averaged likely candidate for the first string six-man all-star team.

ness. However, he was hopeful for Gamewell are Jim Kent, left that mainstays David Ruble and halfback, and Darius Anderson, bookshop, said she had issued spe-

The game, with an 8 o'clock kickoff, has admission prices of 75 cents for adults in advance Bowman is counting on Rich- and $1 at the gate. Student ad-sive work in the backfield, with If Aberdeen wins the western the Revolutionary war. The Stonewall," a biography of Gen- E. Lee," published last Novem-"Scooter" Marts calling the district playoffs, it is likely, house is a survivor of the Battle eral T. J. Jackson, published in ber. plays. He said that several plays some feel, that the state cham- of Guilford Court House, a climax leading for the Armed for children, is a humorous tale of and D. A. Blue; Vass, A. G. Ed- Forces overseas should be mailmay be used if the going gets field. The Red Devils are defended, wrote in 1951.

Last Cavalier," published in September 1956; "Jeb Stuart: The Southern animals in terms of wards; West End, Paul VonCaned with the designated periods, also, Rush said.

Bookshop. Both have recently had books published and saw them receive much favorable comment in the state and national press.

Burke is the author of a volume better than 30 points per game and Mrs. Russell has written of 185-pound end, Bruce Bryant, 80 years. They will be on hand her acquaintances over the past at the Bookshop, located on the corner of Pennsylvania Ave. and Others who are outstanding Bennett St., from 1:30 to 5 p.m Lockie Parker, operator of the > cial invitations to the state's school supervisors who are holding their annual convention next week at the Hollywood Hotel. Burke Davis lives near Guilford Phillips Russell, two of the State's War led him to study the history best known authors, will visit of the period but writing Confed-Southern Pines Tuesday for an erate biography did not occur to autographing party at Country him until a visiting editor proposed that he turn to that field rather than continue in fiction.

> Born in Durham in 1913, Davis has spent most of his life in North Carolina. He is a 1937 graduate of the University of North Carolina, and had also attended Duke University, Guilford College and the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

He has been an editorial writer, sports editor and feature writer on newspapers in North Carolina and in Baltimore. His magazine work, all non-fiction, includes articles in Harper's and the Atlantic Monthly.

His published work includes 'Whisper My Name," published in 1949; two historical novels, "The Ragged Ones," and "Yorktown," published, respectively, in ters for Lord Cornwallis during 1951 and 1952; "They Called Him tember of this year; and "Robert

BURKE DAVIS

Industrial Group | Christmas Mail rent year. The budget was read members was a proposal by the and explained by Robert M. Le- PTA Executive board to write to To Hold November Deadline Nears, the Charlotte office of the thea-Meet In Robbins

The Moore County Industrial Development Committee will a mailing period for Christmas hold its regular monthly meeting parcels to members of the Armnext Wednesday in Robbins, it was announced this week by L. B. Creath of Pinehurst, president mail routes, Postmaster Max of the organization.

Members will gather at the Robbins and community. The plants to be visited include the dard Mineral Company.

Robbins Town Board members have been extended an invitation to take part in the meetbeen invited.

Members of the Industrial earlier than December 10. Committee are, from Aberdeen, bour; Carthage, Mayor Jack Wilkins, Jr., John C. Ostrom, John corrugated fiberboard. "Robert E. Lee," his first book L. Ponzer, W. Harry Fullenwider

Postmaster Warns

Monday marks the closing of ed forces overseas on the surface Rush said today.

Dates for airmail packages are Robbins Town Hall at 2:30 for a December 1 to December 10, he tour of the industrial plants in added, though patrons who mailed earlier than that would "cer-Colonial Poultry Plant, Seating, tainly be taking a heavy load off Incorporated, Williams Hosiery us at the post office, particular-Mill. Amerotron and the Stan-ly during those last few hectic weeks."

The post office department in Washington has said that paring. Wayland Kennedy, ex-Rob- cels mailed after November 18 bins mayor, and former town over surface routes could not be board members Edgar Kennedy guaranteed of delivery by and H. L. Williams also have Christmas. The same holds true of air mail if it is not posted

Rush said that families and Ben Wicks, Ralph Leach, Dr. E. friends of servicemen, or any M. Medlin; Cameron, Hayes Har- other relatives overseas, should receive parcels in good condition lians, David Ginsburg; Pine if they are mailed in containers bluff, Mayor E. H. Mills; Pine- that will stand the distance and hurst, L. B. Creath; Robbins, handling. He recommended box-James F. Steed; Southern Pines, es of wood, metal, solid fiber-Robert L. Ewing, Norris L. Hodg-board, or strong double-faced

Greeting cards for the Armed