18 to confer with graduate, student and prospective nurses and employers of nurses in this area on professional problems and job placement.

The NCSNA counseling and placement service is designed to aid graduate, professional and practical nurses in guidance and placement; to help senior student nurses to plan their careers, and to advise prospective student nurses on a possible career in professional nursing.

The service also aids employers of nurses in finding qualified nurse personnel, supplying complete and reliable information about the education, experience, abilities and potentialities of nurse applicants. The counselor also furnishes employers with latest information on employment conditions throughout the state.

Appointments with Miss Peeler may be made by contacting: Miss Lalan M. Paterson, Moore Memorial Hospital, Pinehurst, telephone CY4-7411.
