Hartsell-Wylie
The wedding of Miss Beverly Wylie of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Harvey Hartsell of Eglin Field, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hartsell of West End, was solemnized April 12 at 8 o'clock in the evening in an impressive double-ring ceremony which was performed in the Chapel of the Air Base with Lt. Hughes, Base Chaplain, officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by Tech. Sgt. Bill Wright, wore a ballerina-length dress of white embroidered satin with a shoulder-length veil of illusion. Her flowers were white orchids.

Miss Joan Allison, maid of honor, wore a ballerina-length dress of lime net over taffeta with a matching bandeau. Her flowers were white roses.

The groom had as his best man, John Rosso, with Rox Walters and Bobby Norman, both of Eglin Field, serving as ushers.

A reception honoring the young couple was held at the Danner Service Club immediately following the ceremony.

Attending the wedding from West End were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hartsell with Sandra, and Mr. and Mrs. Winford Williams with Janet.

Bible Study
The Women of the Presbyterian Church had an intensive Bible study Thursday evening on "Meet Dr. Luke." The Spiritual Life Committee, composed of Mrs. G. A. Munn, Mrs. Carl Ritter, and Miss Neolia McCrummen, was in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Munn gave an introduction to the study which was followed by the group enjoying supper together. The study was completed by Mrs. George Houck and Mrs. Clyde Auman.

Special guests were Miss Vista Markham, Mrs. Marion Currie, Miss Sawyer Fowle, Mrs. Flonnie Dobson, and the girls of the Senior High Fellowship.

Junior Choir
The Junior Choir of the Presbyterian Church sang "Little Lamb Who Made Thee" at the Sunday morning worship service. New members of the choir who sang for the first time were Wanda Brady, Brenda Dunn, and Donny Whisnant.

The faculty of the school honored Principal J. F. Sinclair with a surprise birthday party Friday afternoon. Refreshments were served and the honoree was remembered with gifts.

Mrs. R. B. Lewis was recently installed as an officer in the Aberdeen Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Friday evening dinner guests of the Rev. and Mrs. George Houck were Miss Frances Ivery, Dean of Women at Flora Macdonald College, and Miss Margaret Bowen and John Williams, members of the faculty at Flora Macdonald. Saturday evening supper guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dickens and Brenda Gail of Varina.

Mrs. Perry Gallimore of the Jackson Springs community has been elected to serve as a director of the Division of Women's Work of the Farm Bureau.

Promoted

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Melvin visited their daughter, Pat, in Durham last Sunday. Pat, who is a physical therapist at the Veterans Hospital there, had recently been promoted to supervisor. Promotions such as these are usually given following a year's work but for Pat, it came following only six months' duty. She has also received a certificate of honor for a suggestion she presented for improving her field of work. This week Mrs. Melvin has visited Mr. and Mrs. John Caskey in Charlotte.

PTA Program

The PTA enjoyed the program that had recently been given at the Lions Club Talent Show. The Mabe Family Band was presented by the program chairman, Mrs. J. C. Blue, which consisted of Raymond Mabe and his three sons. Of special interest was the playing of spoons along with banjos and guitars. A piano solo, "Whims," was rendered by Loretta Thomas with Brenda Richardson giving "The Prayer of Ruth Graham." Principal J. F. Sinclair led devotions.

The Nominating Committee, composed of Archie Farmer, Alton Munn and Mrs. J. C. Blue, presented the following who were elected as officers for 1958-59: president, Mrs. Bob Youngblood; vice - president, Mrs. Elrie Thomas; treasurer, Z. B. Conrad; and secretary, Mrs. Archie Farmer.

Miss Treva Auman's 5th grade and Mrs. Vance Wilson's 6th grade tied for the attendance prize.

The group inspected the first-aid room which had been furnished this year as a project of the PTA. The Sandhill Furniture Corporation donated the bed and the room is now complete with first aid supplies, sheets and a mattress. Mrs. Bob VonCanon was chairman of the project and serving with her were Mrs. Tarrell Graham and Mrs. Bob Youngblood.

Mrs. J. B. Barnette was a patient at Moore Memorial Hospital last week.

The Senior Class left Saturday morning for Washington, D. C., where they will spend the week returning by Williamsburg, Va., where they will visit historic landmarks of that early American city. They will travel on a Queen City bus with Principal and Mrs. J. F. Sinclair and Miss Bert McCrimmen, Senior Class advisor, accompanying them.

Monday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Nola Lewis were Miss Laland Patterson and Miss Vita Beeson of the Moore Memorial Hospital.

Spending the weekend in Burlington with Mrs. Helen Tommey are Mrs. A. J. Hanner with Julia and Heath. They will attend a talent show there presented by the Western Electric Corporation.

Mrs. W. M. Thompson gave a review of the Bible study at the Women of the Jackson Springs Presbyterian Church meeting Tuesday evening. The program was given by Mrs. Edgar Graham on "The Nature and Mission of the Church."

Honoring Mrs. M. C. McDonald, Sr., on her birthday Wednesday were Mrs. McDonald, Jr., and Mrs. Allan McDonald at her home. The guests were Mrs. Victoria McKenzie, Miss Janie Clark, Miss Maggie Donaldson, Mrs. Lena Sullivan, Mrs. J. E. Currie, Mrs. C. W. Ritter, Mrs. Minnie Morris and Mrs. Claude Auman. Assisting the hostesses was Mrs. E. R. Outland.

Time to Change to a modern Electric Range

Maytime, springtime, no better time to shuck off the old and look to the new. And nothing is newer than the modern timing controls of a safe, clean electric range.

Like grandfather's clock, flame-thrower cooking was okay for grandma. But the swing this spring is to electric cooking. Neat and trim as a new-mown lawn, an electric range with timing controls can cook entire meals while you're away. And does it in perfect safety because there are no flames, no fumes—no soot, no smoke. Just set the timer and away you go.

Balmy days and spring fever are yours to enjoy outdoors when the automatic timing of electric cooking works for you. A springtime array of colorful models await your selection at electric appliance dealers everywhere. See one soon and make the change for the better this spring.
