FAYETTEVILLE OFFICE SAYS

Domestic Workers Not Receiving Proper Social Security Credits

There have been recent indications that some domestic household workers in Moore County have not been receiving proper social security credit for their wages, a spokesman in the U. S. Social Security Administration office in Fayetteville said this week.

With few exceptions, any person who works as a domestic employee and is paid at least $50 cash wages in a calendar quarter from one employer is covered by social security. A calendar quarter is the three-month period ending March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31. Domestic employees in households on farms operated for profit are under a different rule. They must be paid cash wages of at least $150.00 in a calendar year from one employer or work at least 20 days on a time basis before their work is covered under social security.

Dr. Marr Resigns Staff Position At Moore Hospital

Some examples of those who are considered domestic employees are those who are employed in private households as cooks, maids, housekeepers, laundresses, baby sitters, gardeners and handymen.

To insure that they get proper social security credit for their wages, domestic employees should be sure that their employer has a record of their social security number so that the employer can make his or her report to the Director of Internal Revenue.

For further information, residents may contact the social security office at 605 German Street, Fayetteville, or see the Moore County representative who is in the Post Office in Southern Pines on the first and third Tuesdays and in the Courthouse in Carthage on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m.

Dr. Myron W. Marr, of Pinehurst, who has long been associated with Moore Memorial Hospital, has submitted his resignation as a member of the staff effective July 1, according to an announcement made this week by John F. Taylor, president of the hospital's board of trustees. Dr. Marr's resignation was accepted by the board last month. The board, by unanimous vote, however, voted to make him an honorary member of the staff on a permanent basis and accorded him all the privileges of an active staff member.

A one-time chairman of the hospital's staff, Dr. Marr maintained his offices in Pinehurst. In a resolution of respect adopted by the board, Dr. Marr was described as one who rendered "ever thoughtful and splendid cooperation in behalf of the hospital and its various activities, and to the patients and community in general."
