Dr. Golden To Speak Here This Sunday Morning

Dr. W. S. Golden, pastor emeritus of the Carthage Presbyterian Church, will deliver the morning sermon at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church Sunday at 11 o'clock, in the absence of the minister, Dr. Cheves Ligon.

Dr. Ligon and a group of men from the church are in Montreat attending the Men's Conference this weekend.

James Warman, Part Owner Of Dunes Club, Dies

James S. Warman, a popular figure in Southern Pines, and part owner of the Dunes Club, died last Thursday night in Providence, R. I., where he maintained his summer home.

Mr. Warman, it was learned here, had been to the races near Providence and was stricken as he returned home. He died a few hours later in Roger Williams General Hospital in Providence. Born in New Castle, New Brunswick, Canada, he was 61. He moved to Providence as a child and came to Southern Pines a number of years ago.

In addition to the Dunes Club he was also owner of the Mayfair Apartments on May Street and operated a stable. He was known throughout the country as an owner of trotting horses and kept several at the Pinehurst Tracks during the season.

He had been a member of the Greensboro Lodge of Elks, the United Trotting Association, the Pinehurst Driving and Training Club, and the Standardbred Owners Association.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret Purcell Warman a daughter, Mrs. James J. Dunn of Providence; and a grandchild.

Funeral services were held in Providence.

The 1958 North Carolina Corn Production Contest offers a total of $200 in cash awards to participants.

Although the Chinese had printed books about 1,000 years ago, printed books did not appear in Europe until the 1400's.

Two Lawyers Of County Elected To State Posts

W. D. Sabiston of Carthage was elected president of the Conference of Local Bar Presidents at the annual meeting of the North Carolina State Bar Association held this past weekend at Myrtle Beach, and Lawrence McN. Johnson of Aberdeen was named chairman of the Young Lawyers Section of the association.

The terms of both are for one year.

Sabiston is a practicing attorney in Carthage and is substitute Judge of Recorder's Court. He has also filled in on occasion for the Solicitor.

Johnson, who is a partner with his father, J. Talbot Johnson, in the firm of Johnson and Johnson, will head up the group known as the "junior bar."

The "junior bar" is a separate organization of lawyers within the framework of the state association and carries on its own program.

Several other attorneys from the county attended the meeting, which was highlighted by pre-

Vass Man Finds People Are Honest

Buster Cameron of Vass was pretty much put out recently when he reached for his wallet and found that it was missing. To make it doubly bad, he had just had his pay check cashed before leaving Vass.

He hurried back to Hudson's Service Station where the check had been cashed and with James Hudson, the proprietor, made a mental check of people who were there at the time, hoping one of them had found it.

They made inquiry of "Wootsy" McCrimmon, colored, who had been there and through his honesty Cameron was united with his cash. McCrimmon had found the pocketbook after Cameron had driven off, had hunted up Chief A. R. Laubscher and had gone with him to Cameron's home trying to find him to return the wallet. He was rewarded with a gift of cash and warm thanks.

sentation of a "court reform" report by Spencer Bell of Charlotte, chairman of the special committee.
