

Hearings Set For Three In Break-In Of Harbour's Store Two Are Residents Of Harnett; Other From Lee County

Preliminary hearings will be given three men—two of them from Harnett County and the other from Lee County—Monday morning in Carthage on charges of breaking and entering, larceny, and receiving.

Magistrate Charles McLeod, before whom the three will get hearings, identified them as Eugene Ernest Sloan and John Lindsey (Billy) Mimms, both of Route 1, Broadway, and James William McPherson, of Lee County.

They are charged with breaking into Harbour's store in Cameron several weeks ago and stealing an odd assortment of merchandise valued at about $450.

McPherson has been released on $750 bond for his appearance at the hearing; the other two remained in jail, unable to make the bonds.

Deputy Sheriff A. W. Lambert, who conducted the investigation with the assistance of an agent of the State Bureau of Investigation, said that McPherson was picked up by the Lee County Sheriff's department July 9. Officers in Harnett County picked up the other two. All were arrested on information provided by Lambert.

Leading to their arrest was an extensive investigation which took officers to all three counties, where they were checking on the disposition of some of the stolen articles.

The original tip came when a man in Harnett County told the officers he had bought a pair of shoes from one of the men. Other items of the stolen loot was found in various places.
