LAST CALL!
The Well-Known
LIBERTY MILLING COMPANY
"A Well-Established Flour and Custom-Grinding Mill and Feed Business"
TO BE SOLD AT ABSOLUTE AUCTION!
Wednesday, July 23, 2:00 P. M.
(RAIN or SHINE)

THE LIBERTY MILLING COMPANY is ideally located on U.S. Route No. 421 in Liberty, North Carolina, in the heart of a large and thriving farm and cattle country.

TO BE SOLD AS A GOING BUSINESS to include real estate, all milling, grinding and feed equipment, and stock of merchandise. It has been well established for many years and has been operated continuously by the present owner for 17 years. Inspection of the property will show that it is doing a large volume of business, the greatest percentage being cash.

This mill is equipped with every necessity for a modern milling and feed business operation. The major items of equipment include: 50-barrel flour mill, cornmeal mill, complete seed-cleaning plant, hammermill, one-ton feed mixer complete with feed mill and molasses machine, corn cutter, tanks for 16-ton molasses storage; also, many small items.

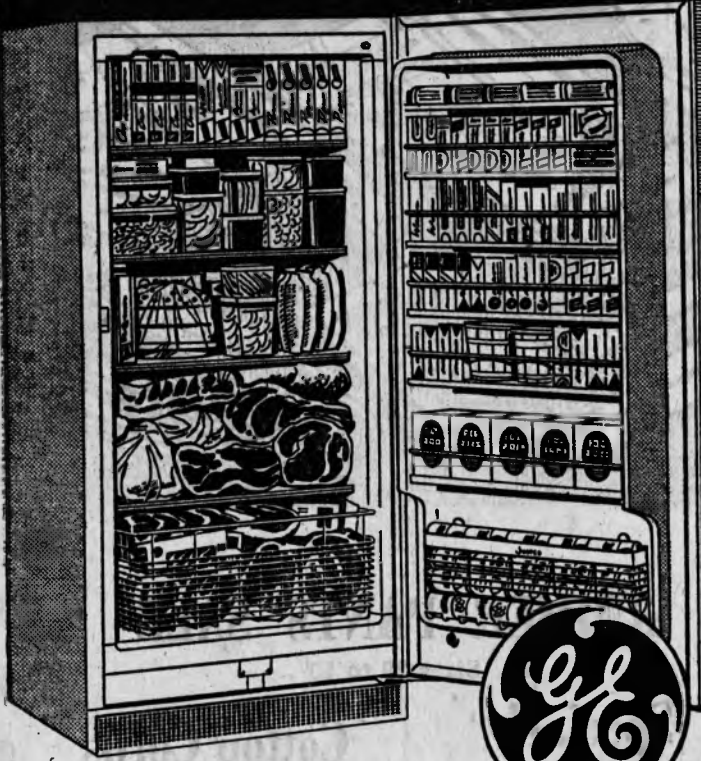

The improvements consist of the mill building and the storage building. The site contains one and one-half acres and fronts on three streets. It could be easily subdivided into several business sites or would make an ideal location for a shopping center, warehouse, or other businesses needing a large tract of land.

If you are seeking a well-paying business, a choice investment or an outlet for your flour or feed, it will pay you to investigate this. Will be sold on unusually good terms. Catalog with views and more details available upon request.
