Sisters Are Feted

Connie Sue Hudson, who was five years old last Friday, and her sister Marsha Kay, whose third birthday was Saturday, were feted at a Mother Goose party at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hudson, Saturday afternoon.

The children enjoyed a Humpy Dumpty game and had a good time playing on the little hostesses' gym sets. Refreshments consisted of ice cream, birthday cake, koolade and party mints. The cake was especially attractive to the tots. It was decorated with lollipop dolls playing ring-around-a-rosy. Faces were made of mints and bonnets of paper dollies. Connie and Marsha received many nice gifts, and their guests were presented balloons and Mother Goose plaques as favors.

Small guests included Kathy and Mike Coe, Jesse Coore, Jr., Carol and Al Klingenschmidt, Jimmy Ferguson, Janet Lee, Jimmy and Joan Hudson, John David and Cheryl Ann McRae, Craig Cameron, Ann, Stevie and Ronnie Boggs, Linda Kay Frye, Susan Callahan, Martha Morgan, Jimmy Cameron and Sue Bullock.

Mothers attending were Mrs. Henry Klingenschmidt, Mrs. Bobby Hudson, Mrs. J. A. McRae, Mrs. Charles Cameron, and Mrs. Jack Morgan, and a special guest was Mrs. Edd Boggs, grandmother of the honorees.

Family Picnic

The Rainbow Home Demonstration Club held a family picnic at Futrell's lake last Friday evening. Some of the group went swimming and all enjoyed a bounteous picnic supper.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Roby Futrell and their three children, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mullinix and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffin, Butch, Mike and Tommy Griffin and Butch's guest, Karl Schweinfurth, Mrs. R. L. Oldham, Mrs. Charlie Gschwind, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bailey, and Miss Flora McDonald of Carthage.

Entertains Class

R. A. Edwards, teacher of the Intermediate Class at the Presbyterian Sunday School, entertained the class at a wiener roast at Futrell's lake Wednesday evening. Swimming was enjoyed. Mrs. Edwards assisted her husband in entertaining.

Class members present were J. D. Blue, Danny McGill, David Crockett, Roy Jackson and Sarah Von Metzger, who had Emma Oldham as her guest. Ann Crockett, a member, was visiting her grandfather at Williamston at the time.

MYF Meeting

Mrs. G. E. Griffin was leader of a program based on The Lord's Prayer Sunday evening at the Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting. Taking part were Sylvia, Sophia and Lynne Oldham, Bonnie Callahan, Ann Edwards and Patsy Callahan. The Rev. Fant Steele talked informally. Charles Parker presided over a short business session.

Plans for attending the sub-district meeting at Marcus Church near Norman on Monday night were made, and the following attended: Mr. Steele, Bonnie Callahan, Ann Edwards, Patsy Callahan, Al Edwards, Lynne Oldham, Sophia and Sylvia Oldham.

Navy Men Leave

Stanley Buie, Tommy Oldham and Danny Cameron, who recently completed boot training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center and came home on leave, are returning there this week for training as medical corpsmen. Bruce Jackson, fourth member of the group, is going to Norfolk for ship duty. All are 1958 graduates of Vass-Lakeview High School.

Visit The Lassiters

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lassiter and children, Billy, Janie and Donnie, and Mrs. Lassiter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, left Sunday for their homes in Verona, Pa., after visiting Mr. Lassiter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lassiter, and family for nearly a week. They made side trips to see brothers and sisters at Robbins, Carthage and other places and were taken by their host on sightseeing trips to various places, including Southern Pines. Mr. and Mrs. Miller were especially interested in seeing tobacco harvested and barned.

The visitors, accompanied by Diane Lassiter, drove to Cherokee on Wednesday and toured the mountain country to the Tennessee line, returning Thursday.
