

WEST END NEWS

BY SALLY AUMAN

Visitor From London
Mrs. Gladys Cummings of London, England, arrived last week for a two months visit with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Atkins, and Mr. Atkins. This charming English woman was delighted with the countryside including the forest and farm land. She enjoyed seeing hogs on the pasture at the Clyde Auman farm, having never seen one before. When told this stock was imported from Norway and Denmark, she knew instantly that the Danish bacon is quite superior in the London markets.

The voyage over on the Queen Mary was exceedingly rough and she is already planning that she will come by plane her next visit. Her only regret is that the rest of the family could not accompany her.

We extend to you a most hearty welcome, Mrs. Cummings, and urge you to include the entire family in those plans for the next trip.

Class Party
Leland Richardson has returned to the Union Theological Seminary, where he is a member of the graduating class, after spending the holidays at his home in Jackson Springs and with his aunt and family, the Edgar Grahams.

While he was here he entertained the members of his High School Class of '52, assisted by his cousin, Miss Julia Mae Graham. The classmates had fun bringing snap shots along of their families and those unable to attend sent greetings. Those present included Mrs. Robert Richardson of Carthage, the former Miss Lois Whitley; Malloy Steele of Eagle Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Teeter, Jr., (Barabara Blake) of Southern Pines; Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lewis (Jeanette Blake) of Eagle Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Moore (Vivian Graham) of Florida, both of whom are connected with Eastern Air Lines; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blue (Lois Eifort) of High Point; and the host.

Observing Student Recognition Day at the Methodist Church Sunday, devotions were given by Vivian Tucker and Carolyn Branson, students at Woman's College. The Rev. Bob Barefield, former director of the Wesley Foundation work at Woman's College, spoke on the work of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby VonCanon were hosts to a number of Bobby's classmates of the class of '50, Friday evening. The group enjoyed reminiscing, dancing, and party snacks. Fred Monroe, Jr., delighted the group with a first grade picture of the class. Enjoying the get-together were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cheek, Albuquerque, New Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Monroe, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Upole, Mr. and Mrs. Winford Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Hollie Sisk, Sam Poole, and Bill VonCanon.

Best Sisters Entertain
There is always activity when the Best girls, Pat and Sarah, are at home at Eagle Springs. The teen-agers had fun at their party, highlighted by dancing, games, and fellowship. The honored guests included Arnold Cuevas of Cuba, a high school student at Oak Hill Academy, Mouth of Wilson, Va., who spent the Christmas holidays with his teacher, Jim Waters of Star. This young man declared that everything in America is attractive, and how he loved to dance!

Also honored was Javier Cicero of Mexico, a student at East Carolina who spent the holidays with his roommate, Scoot Parsons of Candor. This young man is studying English at East Carolina and plans to work with American business when he returns to Mexico.

Sarah and Pat's other guests were, from Candor, Linda and Gayle Gero, Kent Maness, Scott Parsons, and Ebbie Bruton; Jackson Springs, Otis Boroughs, Susan and Martha Currie, Jane Hartsell, Cora Ann Poole, and Gerald Gaddy; Eagle Springs, Linda Williams, Juanita Bost, Ester Martin, and Jerry Reynolds; Charlotte, Libby Bullock; West End, John Monroe, Merle Fletcher, Carolyn Branson, Dot VonCanon, Chris McDonald, and Watts, Bobby and Nancy Auman; and last but not least, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bost, who added as much fun to the party as their two attractive daughters.

The Men of the Presbyterian Church had a supper meeting at the Månse Sunday evening. Presiding at the meeting was the new president, Allan McDonald, with Hobson Tucker serving as program chairman. Alton Mann and Archie Farmer presented a program on "Our Responsibility to the World as a Christian Nation." Mrs. George Houck was assisted by Miss Treva Auman in serving the group supper.

Our sympathy is expressed to Mrs. George Houck in the passing of her sister, Mrs. Charles A. Scholene of Norfolk, Va. The message arrived Monday morning just as the Houcks were preparing to leave for a visit with the Scholenes. The death came unexpectedly. Mrs. Houck expected her sister to move shortly to Washington State.

Sign-Up Period For Pre-Measuring Crops Announced

The sign-up period for accepting requests from farmers for pre-measurements of tobacco, cotton, and peanuts will be this week through February 15, according to Walter Fields, office manager of the ASC.

The county office, Fields said, may discontinue accepting requests prior to February 15 if it is determined that workers will not be able to do all the pre-measuring prior to planting time.

Charges, Fields noted, were $3 plus $1 per acre with a minimum charge of $8 per farm. Stakes for the measuring will be furnished by the county office.

supply the pulpit at the Presbyterian Church at the Sunday morning (January 11) worship service. The Rev. George Houck has been appointed chairman of Christian Education of Fayetteville Presbytery, in which capacity he will serve as advisor to the men's work. He will attend the Assembly Men's Council which convenes Thursday-Sunday at Montreat.

A Daughter
A baby girl, Genevieve Des-Cognets, was born to the Rev. and Mrs. Hogan Yancey, Jr., of St. Petersburg, Fla., on Christmas morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard VonCanon moved into their new home in time for Christmas. This is a lovely ranch type brick home with picture windows, adjacent to the Paul VonCanon home.

Recent guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Fowlkes were her mother, Mrs. K. M. Mangum, of Rocky Mount and the Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Byrd and three children of Plymouth.

Angelina VonCanon accompanied Dorothy Leigh VonCanon to Greensboro College classes and spent the night on the campus.

Mrs. Hawley Poole is suffering from a foot injury.

Recent guests of the Paul VonCanons were her sister, Mrs. E. S. Adams, Mr. Adams and their teen-age son, Richard, of Newport News, Va.

It was a happy birthday Saturday for the Rev. George Houck and Mrs. Clyde Auman, who enjoyed dinner with Mrs. Claude Auman. Guests included the Earl Auman family, Mr. and Mrs. Houck, and the Clyde Aumans.

Mr. and Mrs. Burke Wiles of Salisbury with their daughter, Marlyn, of Peace College, spent New Year's Day with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hartsell. Mrs. Sloan Cos returned to Salisbury for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Wiles.

Recuperating at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Davis, of Charlotte is Mrs. Fred Hackney, who expects to return home soon.

75 New Books Are Added To Library Collection In Dec.

The Southern Pines Library continued to add new books to its shelves in impressive numbers during December, according to a list supplied The Pilot this week.

Included in the 75 volumes were 25 to be added to the children's collection.

Among the 25 children's volumes were 11 by Walter R.
