Attend Funeral

Leon Monroe McDonald, who was fatally injured by a bull at his home at Olivia, was a brother of Mrs. W. A. Brown of Jackson Springs. Attending the funeral at Barbecue Church Saturday afternoon from Jackson Springs were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blue with Johnnie and Joyce, Mrs. E. J. Blue, Mrs. Geneva McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Graham, Oscar Richardson Jr. and Herbert Carter.

Mission Study

The WSCS concluded a study course Thursday evening on "Concern of a Continent." Mrs. A. J. Hanner, Missionary Education chairman, was hostess to the group at her home and presented the study on Mexico, Hawaii and the Caribbean area in a unique way. For the study of Mexico, Mrs. Hanner played Mexican music, served her guests tortillas followed by a talk on that country. Pineapple juice was served representing Hawaii with Helen Hanner in costume, giving a Hula dance. Along with the discussion of the Caribbean area, Calypso music was played and the guests were served bananas.

Robert Clark served as an usher in the wedding of Mrs. George Cooper Franklin to Bailey Sherwood Rich at the Fairmont Methodist Church in Raleigh Sunday afternoon. Also attending the ceremony and the reception following from here were Mrs. Clark and Miss Evelyn Holiday.

Sunday dinner guests of Misses Edith and Vista Markham were Mrs. John Gibson with Rufus and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burton and Barbara, all of Laurel Hill.

Bill Graham and Miss Julia Mae Graham, both of Charlotte, were at home for the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Graham. Sunday dinner guests of the Graham family were Linda Faye Richardson of Peace College and Oscar Richardson, Jr.

The Rev. Neil Thompson, pastor of the Methodist Church of Lake Waccamaw, spoke to the PTA Monday evening on the Boys Home of his town. Devotions were led by the Rev. Paul Buzard, pastor of the Bensalem and Eagle Springs Churches. The group enjoyed a social hour with D. L. Ritter serving on the Hospitality Committee.

Floyd Cole, who is serving as campaign chairman for the Moore District of the Oconeechee Boy Scouts, attended a training program in Raleigh Thursday. Congratulations to Troop 98 of the West End Boy Scouts who won the Health and Safety Award recently in the County!

Superintendent Kenneth Blue of the Jackson Springs Sunday School presented perfect attendance pins to the following: to Mr. Blue's own daughter, Joyce, went the 8th-year pin; 6 year pins were awarded to Eugene Blake, Willis and Marie Clark; a 5th year pin was awarded to Paris Blake; 4th year, Gay and Tommy McCall, Patsy McDonald, and Harris Clark; 3rd year, Mrs. Harris Clark, and George McCall; and 1st year to Nancy and Brenda Sherrill. Special recognition is given to Mr. and Mrs. Harris Clark and their children, Willis and Marie. The entire family had perfect attendance for the year. Circle III of the Jackson Springs Church which Mrs. Ashton Richardson is serving as chairman met with her Monday evening. Mrs. Mike Lambeth was elected secretary and Mrs. Kimes Blake was moderator of the Bible study. The program was presented by Mrs. Richardson. The 15 members present enjoyed a social hour with the hostess.

Mrs. W. M. Thompson was hostess to the Circle of the Jackson Springs Church of which she is serving as chairman on Wednesday evening. At the organization meeting Mrs. W. A. Brown was made co-chairman and Mrs. Robert McKenzie elected secretary-treasurer. Mrs. A. H. McCall was moderator of the Bible study and Mrs. Brown gave the program.

The High School crowd had fun Monday evening at a birthday party honoring Sherrie Upole. There were games and dancing for all, novelty hats for guests and lots of gifts for Sherrie. The color scheme of red and white was used throughout the activity room of the Presbyterian Church. The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth over red, from which Miss Bert McCrummen presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Floyd Upole served decorated cakes and nuts. Also assisting with the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Upole and Mrs. Shirley Craven. Attending were Karen Farmer, Brenda and Earl Conner, Barbara Zachary, Jean Barnette, Gaston Simmons, Jr., Jimmy Melton, Mack McKenzie, Carolyn and Hanford Thomas, Charles Lee Shaver, Joyce Martin, Dot Furr, Lois Godfrey, Julia Hammer, Nancy Auman, Clement Williams, Bobby Ritter, Cindy Craven, Sunny Upole, Judy Upole, Kenneth Whitesell, and Deelie Priest of Carthage.

Leland Richardson, senior at the Union Theological Seminary, will supply the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church at Charlotte Court House, Va., this Sunday. The Rev. R. R. Ramsey, pastor of the church, will be in Charlotte this weekend with his family to attend the wedding of Catherine Ramsey at Belk Chapel, Queens College, Charlotte.

Mrs. Charles Krywokusky and Mrs. Edward Tucker with Carol of Chicago, Ill., are guests of the North Lewis family.

Bob VonCanon is a patient at Duke Hospital.

Visiting his sister, Mrs. Ernest Currie, is Raymond Seawell of Norfolk, Va.

Hospitalized at Moore Memorial is Brenda McKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKenzie.

George McDonald is a patient at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Miss Louise Baughn left Sunday for Campbell College.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald are home following Charles' completion of his tour of duty with the Armed Forces.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Atkins. Congratulations to the parents and to the grandmother, Mrs. Gladys Cummings, who is here from London, England, to welcome this fine little fellow.

Little Dawn Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winford Williams, is home after being hospitalized at Moore Memorial last week.

Richard Chapman And Son Honored By Golf Writers

Richard D. Chapman of Pinehurst and his son, Dixie, were among several outstanding golfers recognized Tuesday night by the Metropolitan Golf Writers at their annual dinner in New York.

The Chapmans, father and son champions, received awards. Others well known in this area who were honored were Tom Robbins, of Larchmont, N. Y., and Pinehurst, national seniors champion, and Charles Coe, the national amateur champion.

Coe, who won the National Amateur title for the second time in 1958, received the Metropolitan Golf Writers Association's Gold Tee Award, which goes to the person who has done the most for golf in the past year.

The Chapmans, who won the father-son tournament in Pinehurst, are well known on Northern courses, where they spend a considerable amount of time in the summer.

Chapman, Sr., won the North-South Amateur last year on Pinehurst's No. 2 course.

In 1957, North Carolina dairy cows averaged 5,000 pounds of milk and 200 pounds of butterfat.

Where needed, an application of lime can pay for itself many times by helping to produce higher crop yields.
