

That Crippled Child
"Is Yours, Too?"

THE PILOT

Help Him Walk!
Buy Easter Seals

VOL. 39—NO. 18

SIXTEEN PAGES

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 1959

SIXTEEN PAGES

PRICE: 10 CENTS

OTHER SERVICES ANNOUNCED

Sunrise Services Will Be Held At Four Places In Sandhills Sunday

Easter Sunrise services will be held at four churches in this area Sunday morning.

Brownson Memorial

At Watson's Lake the young people's group of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church will have their traditional program at 7 o'clock, then return to the church for breakfast and Sunday School. The young people are observing "Harvest Sunday."

Dr. Cheves Ligon will preach at the 9 o'clock service, which will have music by the junior choir, and deliver the traditional Easter message at the 11 o'clock service.

Congregational

At the Church of Wide Fellowship a sunrise service will be held at 6:30 with J. R. Howe as the guest speaker. The pastor, the Rev. Carl Wallace, will preach at the regular 11 o'clock service.

One other Easter program tonight at 8 p. m. will also be held at the church where a Baptismal Service and Holy Communion will be observed.

Methodist

At the Methodist Church a sunrise service will be held at 6:30 in the church with the program given over to a short meditation and choir music.

Tonight Maunday Thursday services are being held at 7:30, and tomorrow night the Good Friday services will be held at the same hour. The Rev. Robert Bame will preach on the "Seven Last Words" at the Good Friday service.

Sunday services will be held as usual at 11 o'clock.

First Baptist

A revival is in progress at the First Baptist Church and those programs are being held nightly at 7 o'clock.

On Easter Sunday, the Rev. Maynard Mangum will preach at the 11 o'clock service.

Combined Services

Another sunrise service, at Crystal Lake in Lakeview, will be held at 6 o'clock by the Manly Presbyterian Church. An Easter pageant entitled "The Resurrection" will be presented by a cast of 19 and a choir of 25 from Presbyterian Churches in Lakeview, Eureka and Manly.

St. Anthony's

At St. Anthony's Catholic Church a Mass of the Lord's Supper will be held tonight (Thursday) at 6 o'clock. A solemn liturgical function of Good Friday will be held at 6 o'clock, and Easter Saturday Vigil and Paschal Mass will be held at 11 p. m. on Saturday.

Sunday morning there are services scheduled at 8 o'clock and 11 o'clock by the Rev. Francis M. Smith, the pastor.

Music for all services will be the traditional Gregorian chants and will be sung by St. Anthony's school choir.

Episcopal

The Rev. Martin Caldwell will be the preacher at the three Hours Service at Emmanuel Episcopal Church at noon Friday. Those attending the services are asked, if entering late or leaving before three o'clock, to come and go during the singing of the hymns at intervals of 25 minutes.

The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated three times on Easter Day at the church, at 8 a. m., 9:30 a. m., and 11 a. m. Identical services will be held at 9:30 and at 11, both based on traditional Easter themes.

EASTER HOLIDAY

Easter Monday will, for the most part, be a holiday in the Sandhills.

The banks, post offices and most business establishments will be closed to allow employees a long Easter weekend.

Also to be closed are the public schools, which let out yesterday, the Southern Pines Library, the courthouse in Carthage, and the municipal offices here.

Most stores will also be closed for the day.

Music Association To Present Choral Group Next Week

As the final program of the regular season of the Sandhills Music Association, the 83-voice Furman University Singers will present a concert of choral music at Weaver Auditorium, Monday, March 30, at 8 p. m.

The mixed chorus from Furman University at Greenville, S. C., has been directed for more than 30 years by DuPre Rhame and has become one of the best-known choral groups in the Southeast.

Guest piano soloist with the group will be Milton Hallman, a senior from Columbia, S. C. Accompanists are David Redd and Everett Summerall.

The Music Association will entertain the singers at dinner at the Southland Hotel before the concert. Following the program, there will be a reception, given by the First Baptist Church of Southern Pines, in the school cafeteria. The public is invited.

Norris Hodgkins, Jr., president of the Music Association, said this week that sufficient sleeping accommodations had been offered by residents of this area to provide quarters for the singers Monday night. He thanked all who had made this possible.

There will be no buffet supper for concert-goers prior to this concert, Mr. Hodgkins said.

The six-part program to be presented here includes: "Merciful and Gracious Lord" and "Gallia" by Gounod; "I See His Blood Upon the Rose" by Kilpatrick; "Una Furtiva" by Donizetti; "La Caramela" by Mozart; prayer from "Hansel and Gretel," chorus of cigarette girls from "Carmen," and from "Tannhauser," the chorus of returning pilgrims and "Hail, Bright Abode."

Following Mr. Hallman's piano solo, the group will sing "The Dance" by Elgar; six Brahms love songs; and selections from "My Fair Lady."

HARRY L. BROWN

Funeral Services Held This Morning For Harry Brown

Harry Lee Brown, 63, well-known local businessman and former town board member, died Monday night at his home after a short illness.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 10 a. m. at the Church of Wide Fellowship conducted by the pastor, Rev. Carl D. Wallace. Burial followed in Mt. Hope cemetery.

A native of Bedford, Va., he moved his home and business from Charlotte to Southern Pines in 1935. He successfully operated his business, the H. L. Brown Agency (business machines) over a nine-county area until he sold out in January 1958. He continued to operate the Sandhill Office Supply business which he established in 1955, in a new building which he built on West Pennsylvania avenue.

He was appointed to the town (Continued on page 8)

IT SMELLS LIKE SUMMERTIME, youngsters in the Sandhills were saying yesterday as the temperature soared to 80 and flowers burst out all over. Bonnie Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bell of Pine Needles Club, gets a good whiff of a jonquil she picked in front of Dr. George Heinlsh's house and she, too, said the summer smell was all over the place. Bonnie, who is four years old, shows in the bottom picture that she's as pretty as anything that blooms in the summer, including every other pretty girl. (Pilot photos)

FOR RECREATION, RESIDENTIAL AREA

Lexington Man Purchases Thagard's Lake; Plans Extensive Development

Thagard's Lake, about halfway between Carthage and Vass, is being developed as a recreational residential area, the Pilot learned this week.

A. B. Hardee of Lexington, who has developed several other lakes in the past few years, has entered into an agreement to purchase the lake, some 200 acres, from John Watson of Philadelphia, who also is the owner of Watson's Lake between Southern Pines and Pinehurst.

Bulldozers and other heavy equipment have been in the area all week clearing roads and making the property ready for sale in lots.

Mr. Hardee has not been available for comment but an associate said the lake would probably be cleaned out in the near future and boat racing, skiing, and fishing would be the principal attractions.

The lake has long been a famous fishing spot. It was part of the power system operated by I. F. Chandler before he sold his power company to Carolina Power & Light Company. The building housing the water wheel is still standing.

Two Town Council Members File For Re-Election; Five In Race

Howard Broughton Announces For Solicitor's Post

Howard Broughton, young Southern Pines attorney, yesterday filed for the office of Solicitor of the Southern Pines Recorder's Court.

In the meantime E. O. Brogden, present Solicitor, said he would not seek election to the office, which he is serving now by appointment of the Town Council. Brogden said he needed to devote more time to private practice.

Broughton, who graduated from the University of North Carolina School of Law in 1958, is a member of the firm of Johnson and Johnson in Aberdeen. His work has been in both criminal and civil cases.

Last year he served as county chairman of the drive for funds for the Tuberculosis Association.

Married to the former Penelope Dana, they are members of the Emmanuel Episcopal Church. They make their home on Connecticut Avenue.

The position of Solicitor of the court pays $2,400 a year, the same as the Judge.

Bin Junior Cops Sandhills Cup In Steeplechase Race

Bin Junior, a dark brown seven year old gelding recently added to the stable of M. G. (Mickey) Walsh, romped home five lengths ahead of his nearest competitor to win the Sandhills Cup in the 12th annual Stoneybrook Steeplechase Saturday.

The largest crowd in the history of the event, estimated at between seven and nine thousand, cheered young Tommy Walsh, the nation's second leading steeplechaser, as he booted Bin Junior home the winner over the grueling two and one quarter miles over timber. The race ranks with any others in the past for excitement which, incidentally, was added to when J. Wyatt took a spill off Navy Talk at the eleventh fence.

The victory gave the Sandhills Cup, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Winkelman, to Mrs. Walsh for permanent possession for a third win.

Grand Chal, the favorite owned by Alfred H. Smith and ridden by J. Aitchison, Jr., was forced to run second again for the second straight year behind a Walsh entry. Last year it was Mummer's Knot, also ridden by Young Walsh, who defeated Grand Chal. Mr. Smith's horse went on to become the nation's top steeplechaser for 1958.

(Continued on page 5)

Ewing, Hobbs Filing May Stir Interest

Two present members of the Southern Pines Town Council, Robert Ewing and James D. Hobbs, have filed their candidacies for re-election to the board.

Hobbs actually will not be seeking re-election since he was an appointee of the Council almost two years ago. He is filling the term of T. T. Morse, who resigned.

Ewing is the Mayor Pro-Tem, a position to which he was elected at the first meeting of the Council.

Hobbs is an insurance man and, though quite active in civic affairs in Southern Pines, had never sought public office. Ewing is publisher of the Moore County News in Carthage and is chairman of the Republican party in Moore County and treasurer of the North Carolina Republican party.

Their filing this week brings to five the number seeking the five seats on the Council. John Ruggles, George Tyner and Dante Montesanti, Jr., filed last week.

If the number filing increases to more than 10 there will be a primary April 27, one week before the election May 5.

Three men have already filed for the position of Judge of the Recorder's Court which insures a primary. The three are W. Harry Fullenwider, William Barber and D. E. Bailey. Mr. Bailey is currently serving on the Town Council and Mr. Barber is a Justice of the Peace.

Baby Injured In Wreck Near West End This Morning

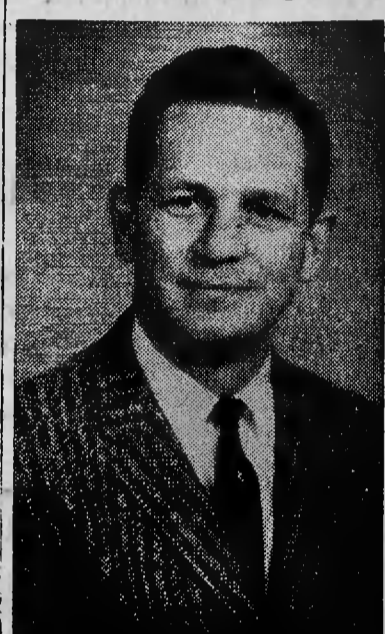

A four months old boy, John Thomas Black, Jr., was seriously injured about 10 o'clock this morning when thrown from an overturning automobile.

The baby, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Black of Biscoe, was carried to Moore Memorial Hospital first but later transferred to Chapel Hill.

Details of the accident are spotty but it is believed that the car in which the youngster was riding, and which was operated by his mother, attempted to pass a car near West End. The car went off the road, hit the shoulder and then, when Mrs. Black tried to get it back onto the surface, she was unable to stop and it rolled over.

The car was brought to Southern Pines by C. D. May of May's Body Shop. He said it was demolished. State Highway Patrolman H. A. Hight investigated.

Harry Fullenwider Seeking Election As Court Judge

W. HARRY FULLENWIDER

W. Harry Fullenwider, a practicing attorney, became the third candidate for Judge of the Southern Pines Municipal Court when he paid his filing fee Monday.

His filing assures a primary, scheduled for April 27. Two other candidates, William Barber and Town Councilman D. E. Bailey, have already filed.

Mr. Fullenwider, who is a partner of R. F. Hoke Pollock, the present Judge of the court, has never sought public elective office before though he has been active in civic activities of this community for the past 10 years.

He said that if he were elected he would continue the present policies of the court which he described as "being on a very sound basis."

A native of Monroe, where he grew up, he graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1941, then enlisted in the United States Navy. He served in the South Pacific area aboard a heavy cruiser and received eight major battle stars. He was discharged with the rank of lieutenant, junior grade.

Returning to the University, he received his law degree in 1948. (Continued on Page 5)

GOLF EXHIBIT

An exhibition golf match featuring four of the nation's top women professionals will be played at Pine Needles Club Sunday. The match and a clinic preceding it will be free to the public.

Mrs. Peggy Kirk Bell and Wiffi Smith, a frequent visitor to Southern Pines, will play Fay Crocker and Marilyn Smith.

The clinic begins at 2 p. m. and will be followed immediately by the match.

BIN JUNIOR, a recently acquired horse in stables of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Walsh, won the running for the Sandhills Cup in the annual Stoneybrook Steeplechase Saturday before the largest crowd in the event's history. He is shown here at right as Tommy Walsh guides him over a timber hurdle neck and neck with Secant, also a Walsh horse, ridden by Beverly Gray.