

Cub Scouts Visit Lumber Firm In Red Springs

Five members of Den 4, Cub Scout Pack 73, visited the Red Springs Lumber and Chip Company recently as part of their outside activities.

The trip was made under the supervision of Mrs. William Bodine, den mother.

The Scouts, together with a guest, Ronnie Bradley, learned how trees were split into lumber and the leftover slabs made into chips for eventual use by pulp companies.

The firm is owned by Don Traylor, Southern Pines lumberman.

Making the trip were Charles Buchholz, Albert Hurst, Jay Montesanti, Steve Kelly and Billy Bodine.

Western Titles, Others Added At Town Library

Western fans, and they seem to be growing in almost legendary numbers, will find almost two dozen new western titles on the shelves at the Southern Pines Library, according to Mrs. Stanley Lambourne, librarian.

Those books, along with more than three dozen others, both fiction and non-fiction, were added during April, Mrs. Lambourne said.

The Western titles: The Killer, Law Man, The Peacemaker, Death Rider, Desert Passage, The Ballad of Cat Ballou, Doves of War, Death at War, Dance, Outlaw Thicket, Shadow of the Butte, Gunsmoke Gold, Broken Wagon, Hell in His Holsters, Indian Country, Pinon Mesa, King of Abilene, Mojave Guns, Guns of Wyoming, Rifles on the Rimrock, Mesquite Johnny, The Last Ride, and The Man Who Found His Way.

The other titles added were: A Person From England and other Travellers to Turkestan; The Crown and the Cross; Alexander's Path; Your Social Security; The Icicle and the Sun; Living in State; Jim Fisk, The Career of an Improbable Rascal; Friend of Live; The Book of Negro Folklore; The Professor and I; A Quite Remarkable Father; I Remember, Sketch for an Autobiography (Boris Pasternak); Gods and Men, the Origins of Western Culture.

Also, The Leaf and the Flame; Wild Tigers and Tame Fleas; Flying Tiger; Seven Shares in a Gold Mine; Letters to Mother; We came Home to Warren Place; Cone of Silence; Pass the Gravy; The Chinese Bell Murders; Alas, Babylon; The Hourglass; Fandango Rock; My Fathers and I; Dear and Glorious Physician; The Pledge; The Galton Case; Pioneer, Go Home!; The Fig Tree; Which Mrs. Bennett?; This Fiery Night; Collision Course; The Achilles Affair; The Middle Age of Mrs. Eliot; A Lantern In Her Hand; Spinster; and Journey to the Hangman.
