

Summer Golf Club Has 24 Matches On Its Schedule

Twenty four tournaments, the first to be held next week, have been planned by members of the Sandhills Summer Club, a ladies golf organization now in its fourth season.

Of the tournaments, four are scheduled for May, five each for June and July, four in August, and six in September. There are 54 members in the club.

Last week the members held a kickoff luncheon at the Pinehurst Country Club and followed it up with a business meeting and then a clinic featuring Dick Chapman.

Officers of the club are Mrs. John W. Rettew, president; Mrs. Hugh D. Stewart, vice president; Mrs. P. J. Boatwright, Jr., secretary; and Mrs. Duwayne D. Gadd, treasurer.

Mrs. Alfred N. Derouin is chairman of the tournament committee, with Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. True Cheney, Mrs. Maxwell Forrest and Mrs. Frank Wells serving as members.

North Carolina's traffic death toll for 1958 included 229 pedestrians who were struck down and fatally injured.

CLARENDON GARDENS in Pinehurst, comprising 23 acres including a five-acre lake bordered with azaleas, is one of the year-round attractions in the Sandhills. A veritable fairyland in springtime when azaleas, dogwoods and bulbs are in bloom, it has much to offer throughout the year as the different seasons come. It boasts the title of the Holly Land of America. The place is open on weekdays from 9 to 5 and on Sundays from 1 to 5 p.m. (Photo by Hemmer)
